

Christmas Spirit to Pervade Park Street

The regular session of the Park Street United Evangelical Sunday School will be held on Sunday at 9.30, the lesson being a regular Christmas lesson. At 10.45 Sunday morning the first of the series of Christmas services will be given when the juvenile departments of the Sunday school will present a program under the direction of Mrs. L. Booda. This service always attracts a large audience in Park Street. At 6 o'clock the only evening service of the day will be held when the Sunday school will again assemble and every department participate in the presentation of the "White Gifts For the King" exercises. For this service white will predominate as a color and missionary offerings and gifts for the white in white envelopes and wrappings will be laid at the foot of a white cross. In this service the senior choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Booda, will take a large part, as also the newly-formed junior choir under the direction of Miss Leah Hansen.

CHRISTMAS BELLS ARE VICTORY BELLS

The International Sunday School Lesson For December 22 Is "The Birth of Jesus" — Luke 2:8-20

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

For two thousand years the Christmas bells have been ringing in prophecy; now they ring in realization! Peace for all the world is here. The victory bells that still are ringing are also peace bells, taking up the glad refrain of the centuries. No where on earth is there a malignant nation designing to oppress or invade or usurp.

While all the world makes Christmas plans, there sits an "international conference—the most significant since the shepherds met the Holy Family in the stable of the Bethlehem khan—to assure that tranquility and good will prevail permanently. After the great war is a great peace. The Council of Nations now in session is undertaking definitely to preclude future strife.

What It Now Means to Bethlehem. Certain matters of fact crowd themselves upon our attention this Christmas, so that there is scarcely opportunity to muse over the significance of the Birth of the Babe and its circumstances. For the places of his nativity and earthly life are now free. For centuries an oppression more cruel than the Roman has held sway over the land made holy by the foot-prints of Jesus.

thought of the day when it placed the only-begotten Son of God as a Babe in a manger; and brought him to manhood in a workingman's home, with a workingman's labor for His own lot; and horny-handed sons of industry as His chosen companions. This was a new idea. Even yet the whole earth has not grasped it. Jesus embodied a fresh truth—the nearness and love of God; displayed amid the common people. When the Almighty did His best to reveal His own personal qualities to humanity He incarnated them in an artisan. Whatever it was possible for God to make known concerning Himself was to be seen in the character of Jesus, the carpenter.

And all because a Babe was born in Bethlehem! Truly, His name has become "Wonderful," and "Counselor," and He is the "Deliverer," with "the government upon His shoulders." Simeon foresaw far when he declared that this Babe was set for the rise and fall of many. The news, as it now speeds faster than angel's flight through the pure ether above to all the earth below, translated in terms of the victory of righteousness on the battlefield, and of peace conferences and world parliaments, is verily "good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people."

Our Daylight Policy Has Met With Approval. This Store Is Not Open Any Evening.

Several years ago this store adopted the policy of closing on Christmas eve. This permitted our salespeople to enjoy Christmas without being unnecessarily fatigued at the close of a busy holiday season.

For years we have advocated closing stores on Saturday evenings. This year we practice what we have advocated. Furthermore, we will not be open any evening preceding Christmas.

We trust it will not be many years before other local stores will see the wisdom of this policy, now practiced in leading cities.

The most remarkable increase of business that any old established business house could hope for has been our good fortune. This would seem to imply that our customers have approved the policy adopted in behalf of our employes.

SHOP EARLY MONDAY AND TUESDAY. STORE CLOSURES PROMPTLY AT SIX.
