The Municipal Christmas Tree

I offer my pine-scented spirit to those who are helpless with pain;
To the cripples, the shut-in, the blinded, I bring the Christ story again.
To the rich whose bodies are pampered but whose souls are hungry for love
I carry the Bethlehem message, the anthems which echoed above.

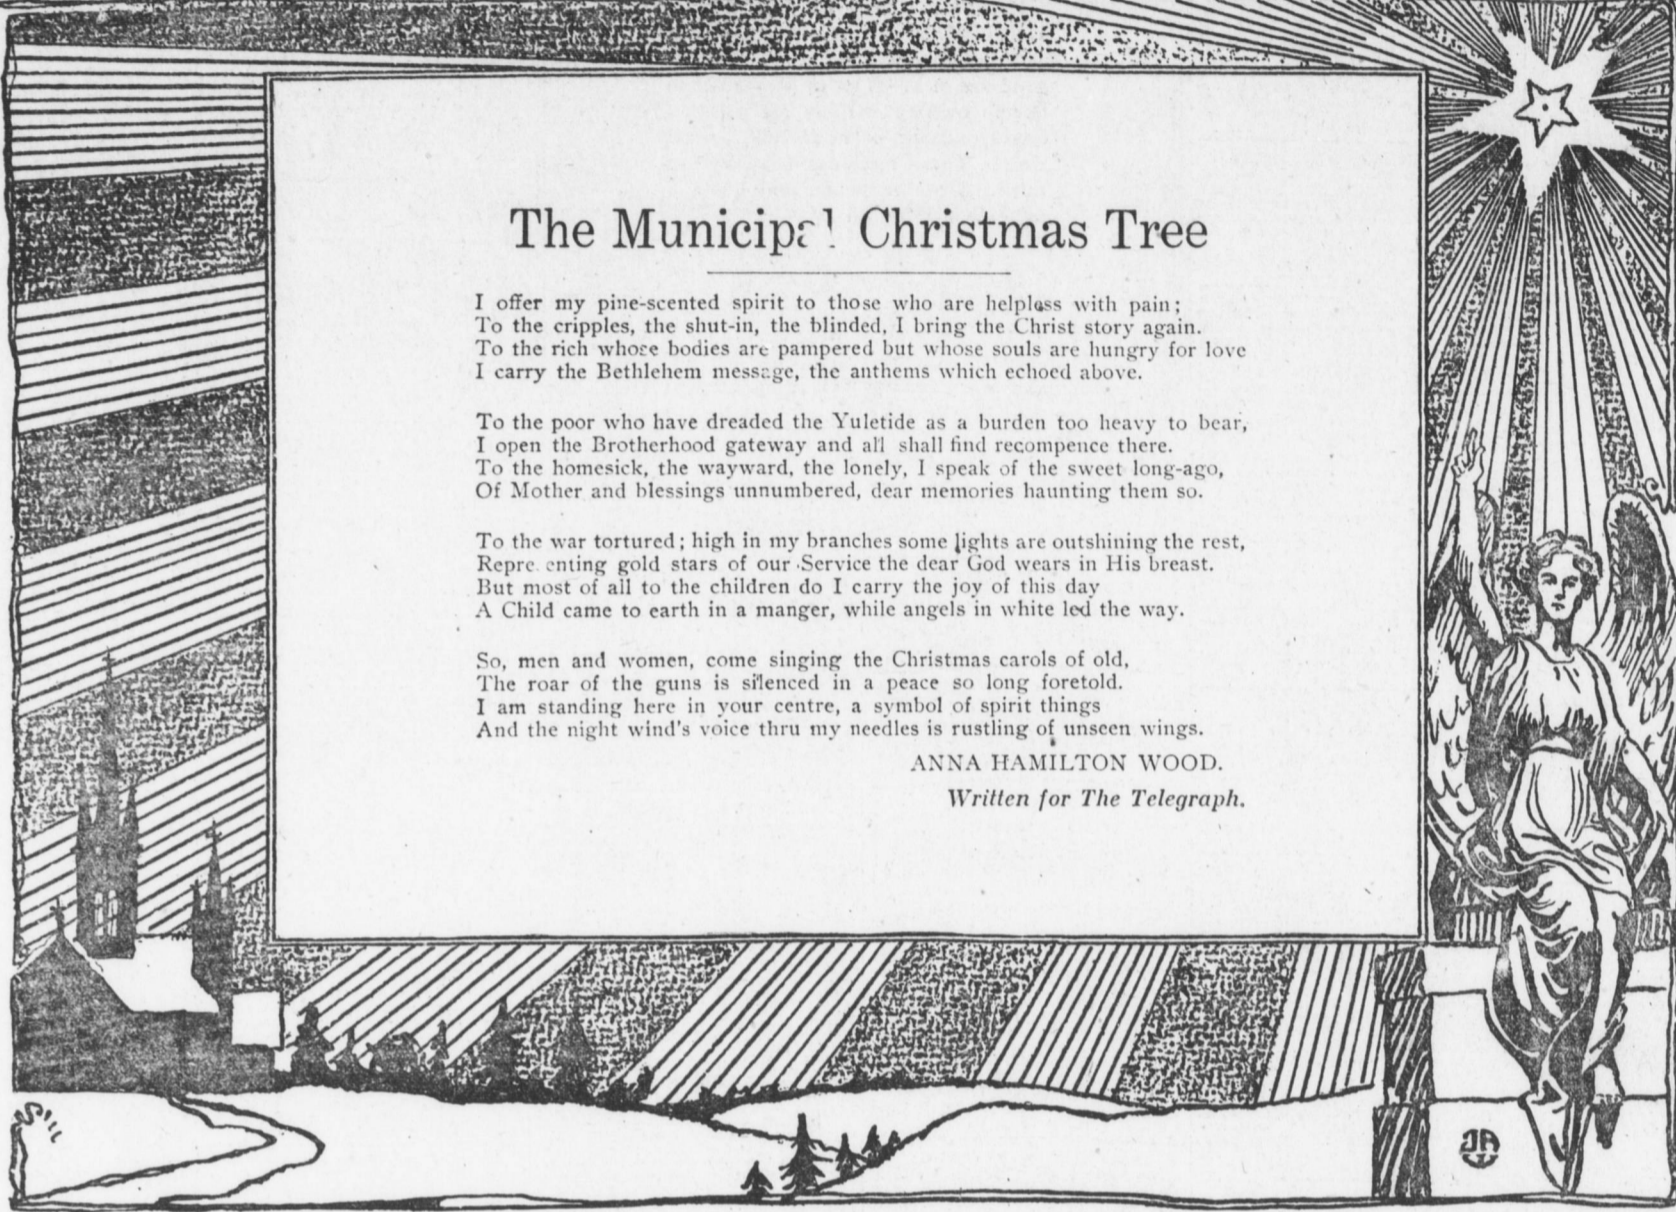

To the poor who have dreaded the Yuletide as a burden too heavy to bear,
I open the Brotherhood gateway and all shall find recompense there.
To the homesick, the wayward, the lonely, I speak of the sweet long-ago,
Of Mother and blessings unnumbered, dear memories haunting them so.

To the war tortured; high in my branches some lights are outshining the rest,
Reprenting gold stars of our Service the dear God wears in His breast.
But most of all to the children do I carry the joy of this day
A Child came to earth in a manger, while angels in white led the way.

So, men and women, come singing the Christmas carols of old,
The roar of the guns is silenced in a peal so long foretold.
I am standing here in your centre, a symbol of spirit things
And the night wind's voice thru my needles is rustling of unseen wings.

CAROLS FOR CHRISTMAS EVE VICTORY CELEBRATION

NO. 1.
O COME ALL YE FAITHFUL
O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him, born the King of Angels;
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him,
O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

NO. 5.
KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.
Chorus
Keep the home fires burning,
While your hearts are yearning,
Though your lads are far away
They dream of Home;
There's a silver lining,
Through the dark cloud shining,
Turn the dark cloud inside out,
Till the boys come home.

NO. 2.
THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL
Chorus
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams,
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true:
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

NO. 6.
JOY TO THE WORLD.
Joy to the world! the Lord is come
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing.
Joy to the earth! the Saviour reigns:
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy.

NO. 3.
LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM
Oh, little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie;
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

NO. 7.
HARK, THE HERALD ANGELS SING.
Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King,
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled."
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."
Hark! the herald angels sing
"Glory to the new-born King."

NO. 4.
IT CAME UPON A MIDNIGHT CLEAR.
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
Peace in the earth, good will to men,
From heaven's all gracious King,
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

NO. 8.
O Holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us we pray;

Our Lord Emmanuel!

DENNIS BOOMS FARMING COURSE

Agricultural Education Moving Forward in Pennsylvania After the War

An important future is forecast for the rural vocational school with its courses in agriculture and home making by Lindley H. Dennis, director of the Agricultural educational division of the State Department of Public Instruction, in his report to the Superintendent, Nathan C. Schaeffer. War has interfered with the expansion which was just commencing, but the interest has been maintained and very satisfactory progress is stated by Prof. Dennis to have been attained in the face of shortages of teachers and other conditions.

During the year ending July 1 there were twenty-three rural community vocational schools in operation with agricultural, home making and academic departments. Special attention was given to crop raising and livestock instruction. The registration was 852 boys and 1,035 girls. The students worked on farms, on Liberty Loan and Red Cross committees, made packing boxes for the Red Cross and aided in other war activities, while the United States Boys Working Reserve camp at State College was a branch of work in which the division took a prominent part.

Numerous exhibits were held of products raised by boys and girls and corn judging was a feature. The agricultural pupils cultivated 550 acres, of which 357 were in potatoes, 50 in corn and 25 in garden and raised 3,925 hens, 50 ducks, 40 cows, 250 pigs, 13 calves and 59 sheep, the total products yielding $85,695.25, of which $67,721.25 was from crops, $8,985 for live stock and $8,889 for poultry.

Farmers' night schools have been started, special courses launched for training agricultural teachers and home making schools standardized.

The state stands second in agricultural and home economic schools.

Discharged Soldiers May Retain Uniforms

Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., Dec. 24.—Assurances that the Government will grant discharged soldiers a chance to keep their uniforms, instead of returning them for the scrap pile at the end of a four-month period, has been received from their United States Senators and Congressmen by many soldiers at Camp Dix awaiting demobilization. The purpose of all these messages indicates that both houses of Congress will vote practically unanimously in favor of the suggestion made by Secretary of War Baker that the present legislation be amended in order that every man may have not only his uniforms, but his helmet and gas mask as souvenirs of his service.

The new order of the War Department directing the use of scarlet chevrons on uniforms of discharged soldiers was put into effect here yesterday and officers say it will help avoid much confusion in the matter of the use of uniforms by demobilized troops. The new chevrons is worn on the left sleeve, point up, midway between the shoulder and the elbow.
