

BUSY WEEK FOR GRACE METHODIST

Full Program of Activities is Outlined Showing Methodists Are Awake

Members of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church hand their friends have a very busy week before them. Starting with Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Dr. Bagnell will preach a sermon on the topic "Mechanics Plus Dynamics," and in the evening at 7:30 he will preach a stirring sermon on the topic "The Uplifted Christ."

The Grace church chorus choir, under the leadership of Prof. John W. Phillips will sing some especially attractive selections that fit in very well with the Christmas and New Year's spirit.

On Sunday evening at 6:30 the Epworth League will hold a meeting of special interest in the lecture room of the church which will be addressed by John Koch, on the topic "Have you ever won a soul?"

On Monday evening at 7:30 the Musical Art Society, under the leadership of the Grace church choir master will render "Handel's Messiah."

The public have heard the choir master in many splendid recitals, but it is anticipated that this year will be one of the most enjoyable that they have ever given.

Tuesday evening at 10:30 o'clock the choir will celebrate the going out of the old year by having a watch night service continuing until the new year arrives. Dr. Bagnell will preach a sermon on the topic "The Two Roads," and the musical features will add greatly to the meeting.

Wednesday evening the regular prayer meeting will be held when New Year resolutions will be in order and a most interesting and helpful meeting is planned.

On Thursday evening Mrs. A. C. Steinn, 333 South Thirteenth Street, will be the hostess to the young people of the various organizations of Grace church. Grace church has big plans for the young people and this meeting will be held to discuss the federation of the young people of Grace church so that their efficiency may be increased.

This busy week will be ended on Friday night by a special meeting of the girls scouts Dog Wood Troop No. 1 under the leadership of L. M. Herrman and the boys scouts of Grace church under the leadership of Scout Master Erman B. Mitchell.

Special Services to Say Goodby to Old Year at Messiah Tomorrow

The final Sunday in the old year is to be celebrated with special services tomorrow in Messiah Lutheran Church, Sixth and Forster streets, the Rev. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, pastor. At the morning service, 10:30, the pastor will preach on "Why They Are So Many Unrealized Possibilities in Life." A feature of the musical part of the service will be the rendition of "Whispering Hope," which will be sung by special request.

At the evening service, 7:30, the Messiah choir will render the sacred cantata, "The Adoration," by Nevins. The pastor will preach on "Four Great Questions Which Should Be Asked Before We Enter the New Year."

To Give Cantata Again At State Street U. B.

On Sunday evening the choir of the State Street U. B. Church under the leadership of Prof. J. H. Davis, will repeat the cantata sang last Sunday, "Prophecy Fulfillment." The solo parts will be sung by the following: Sopranos, Miss C. Walker and Mrs. Hilday; alto, Mrs. Shafer; tenor, T. H. Davis, Jr.; bass, M. Bushman. Miss Miller will be at the piano.

AT PINE STREET

The last Sunday of the old year will be celebrated at the Pine Street Presbyterian Church at both morning and evening services. In leaving the old year and entering the new, the pastor will preach on "What to Remember" at the morning service and in the evening, "What to Forget." These will be memorial services for 1918, services of praise, thanksgiving and retrospect.

Ford's Eagle Boats Win Experts' Praise

Washington, Dec. 28.—Trials of the Eagle boats have convinced many constructors that the little craft turned out by the Ford Motor Co. are the best of their kind. The boats were built by the Ford Motor Co. and are being used by the navy as permanent units of the fleet. It was learned to-day that official reports to the Navy Department, given full details of the trials show that in speed, seaworthiness and maneuvering the new boats exceed all contract requirements. An average sustained speed of 18.2 knots was made by the boat used by the navy experts in their tests. The vessel showed no signs of "bucking" under this gait, or when the speed was forced still higher for short periods.

Value of Boy's Life Is Put at $2,500 by Court

New York, Dec. 28.—Ruling that a jury award of $3,000 was excessive for the death of a six-year-old boy killed several months ago by a motortruck, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday ordered a new trial unless the plaintiff ordered a new trial to accept payment of $2,500 from the John Eichler Browning Company, which owned the truck. The decision sustained the argument of the company's counsel that since the child had never attended school and his father "never spent a cent on medical men for him" the verdict was excessive. The father, who is a shoemaker, originally sued for $20,000.

TAKEN ON MURDER CHARGE

Derby, Conn., Dec. 28.—Casar Valencia, a laborer, was arrested at Stevenson by police officers from this city on a charge of murder. He is alleged to have shot and killed Bartoli Agostine in Media, Pa., on November 24.

YOUNG PEOPLE FORMING A "NEW ERA MOVEMENT" NOW

Presbyterian Members of Christian Endeavor Societies Plan New Union Organization

Young People's societies of the Presbyterian church have responded to the call to prepare themselves for the day that has dawned with the coming of the world peace by uniting with all forces of the denomination in allied strategy under the name of "The New Era Movement." A special committee has been formed and the Presbyterian young people to become a part of this great forward movement by enrolling as "Comrade of New Era" under the old covenant embracing the following: 1. Daily intercession for the success of the movement and the cause for which it stands. 2. Hearty co-operation in the practical promotion of the work by the advantageous placing of posters, distribution of publicity materials, etc. 3. Careful study of the whole task of the church. 4. Active participation in the Victory Drive in March to provide sufficient funds to carry forward the work of the whole church. Each young people's society is asked to form a Company of Comrades, led by their Captain President, the individual members declaring their allegiance to the movement by accepting a personal covenant of prayer, study, service, and giving. This is a challenge great enough to demand the best that any young person has to give.

The department of Young People's Work, at denominational headquarters, has sent full information to each society in the local society, and it is possible, however, that some societies have failed to receive a letter with enclosures of literature, or that they desire additional literature. The Rev. William Ralph Hall, of Philadelphia, Adjutant of the Comrades, a prominent Endeavor in conference work, has control of the vast amount of advance information on the history of the society. He is a regular speaker at summer conferences, C. E. conventions and rallies in church work.

Who's who at the Covenant Presbyterian society on Sunday evening? The new president will conduct the "Happy New Year" service and many Endeavorers expect a good time.

Miss Mabel Rapp will speak and lead the Endeavor service at the St. John's Lutheran church, Steelton, on Sunday evening.

Market Square Presbyterian Endeavorers will have a live meeting to-morrow evening. Daniel Roberts will have charge of the service.

Miss Mildred Gallagher will lead the meeting at the St. Matthews' Lutheran society on Sunday evening. A good time is promised to all who desire to attend.

Westminster Presbyterian Endeavorers will hold a well planned meeting on Sunday evening. Miss Anna Margaret Hammelbaugh, the president of the society, during the past term, will have charge of the service.

Endeavor societies will hold a "Happy New Year—Rules for It" services in many churches to-morrow with the view of starting the New Year with new zeal, inspiration and new methods.

The Rev. Daniel A. Poling, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, is planning a three month's trip to Europe to work with the Y. M. C. A. and visit Christian Endeavor centers.

ZION TO HOLD A MEMORIAL MEET

Lutherans to Pay Tribute to Those of Their Number Dead

The services tomorrow will be of a special character in Zion Lutheran Church. The annual memorial service will be held in the morning in memory of the deaths in the congregation during 1918. Dr. Herman officiated at thirty-four funerals, of which twenty were communicants of Zion. The majority of this number was under thirty years of age. The music for this service will be of an appropriate character.

The offering at the Sunday school will be for the support of our Christian Colleges. The senior catechetical class will meet at 6:30. At the evening service there will be special music with the Christmas theme prominent and the evening sermon will be upon the subject "Shattered Idols." It will be in the nature of a review of the past year with an attempt to enumerate the things of little value, which have been overthrown by the war in political, social, intellectual and religious life. The mid-winter communion will be held next Sunday and the preparatory service on Wednesday evening.

Park Street Preparing For Coming Revival

It is planned to begin a series of revival services in Park Street United Evangelical on Sunday evening, January 5. Preparatory to these meetings the pastor will preach to-morrow at 10:45 on "The Coming Revival—Who Do You Stand For?" and will discuss the attitude every member of the church should take towards this effort, both in theory and practice. In the evening at 7:30, the subject will be, "A Timely Challenge and a Gracious Promise" and will be based on Jeremiah 3:22, "Who is a Backslider? What is God's Attitude Towards Him? What Does It Mean to 'Return'?" Are among the questions the sermon will answer.
