Billy Sunday must be warming up, DEFEAT FOR MARIETTA HIGH for another campaign. Says he: "The Kalser has sunk so far below hell he'll need an airplane to reach it."

The Tarsus Gymnastic Association held its annual election last night and chose Clarence Lick manager for the football team on his merits. Lick is well named. He totaled 'personally fifty of the 94 points mad this season against the various foes. Tarsus plays St. Joseph, at Lancaster, Wednesday night in basketball, and follows on Saturday with Millersville.

Clay bird shooting is flourishing in our midst. The Harrisburg Sportsman's Association will pull theirs this afternoon at Second and Division streets. The Motive Power A. A. stage theirs to-morrow, 12.30 p. m., at Fifth and Division. The receipts from the latter will be turned over to the soldiers' smoke fund. As a feature, a gold lapel trophy will be awarded the high scorer among the veterans who have been competing for fifteen years or more. Those shooting less than fifteen years making a high score will get a sterling silver lapel button. A silver watch chair will be awarded the shooter making the longest run. Every contestant will be given a lapel trophy. testant will be given a lapel trophy.

Occasionally the English papers hand a clout to the raw Yank who is quite plenty about London these days. They have one now on a doughboy who gave his seat to a pretty lady in a tram car. "But I don't like to deprive you of your seat," said she "No depravity at all" blushed the Yank.

At sweport, which town is most particularly concerned in the movement, borough officials and citizens in large numbers are attaching their signatures to the petition, which points out that some of the abundant supply of money which will be spent within the next several years, should be used to open up the beautiful Juniata Valley between Newport and Amity Hall.

Calvary U. B. Sunday

Washington Heights, Pa., Dec. 28.

—At the annual Christmas entertainment held by Calvary United Brethren Sunday school, the text, "It Is More Blessed to Give Than to Receive," was literally carried out. Instead of the customary giving the children a treat, the scholars gave to the Quincy Orphanage and Home. After the program each class was called and representatives carried to the platform the articles given by their classes. The Men's Bible class gave three barrels of flour, the Women's Bible class gave three barrels of the "division to make more than 1200 hits in a season.

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Dec 28.—Dr. Thomas J. Stevens, aged 95 years dided shortly after noon yesterday at his home in East Simpson street following three days' illness of influenza which resulted in pneumonia.

Dr. Stevens was known as a multicura healer and was born at Huntsdale, Cumberland county, on Septimeber 10, 1823, growing to manhood in his native county. He was engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods and carpets in his early life, later taking up the study of herbs in the making of salves and ontiments.

In the fall of 1879 he moved from Bowmansdale to Mechanicsburg, where he lived ever since, giving up the carpet business in the year 1900. On January 30, 1907, Dr. Stevens alighted from a trolley car in West Main street before it had come to a standstill and was thrown with such force as to dislocate a hip joint, consequently he has been bedfast technical contents and prominent part in the night's discussion which lasted to a late hour last night, delegates to tea and a freed W.
