Sporting Editor, Harrisburg's Best Sporting Paper, Harrisburg, Pa.:

Sir—Would you be kind enough to insert the following in the sport columns of your valuable paper, and oblige:

The United States Navy Ordnance basketball team, of Pittsburgh, Pa., intends to make a trip East as far as Lancaster or York, Pa., and would like to hear from high schools or first-class independent teams who would desire this Service (sailor) team as an attraction. This team is a first-class team in every respect and will guarantee a good game. Would like to arrange games at Altoona, Tyrone, Lewistown, Harrisburg, Lancaster, York or Columbia, Pa. Address A. C. Green, Box 734, Munhall, Pa.

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy, I am,

Yours for sports.

A. C. GREEN.

Disbarment Testimony Will hast Be Taken in Court Next Wednesday

The results of the complimentary shoot held on Saturday by the local Sportsmen's Association at Second and Division streets, in honor of L. M. Wise, a prominent member, who was instructor at a southern aviation camp in target shooting, found J. G. Martin high man. Mr. Wise himself had a rather tough time of it, not being familiar with the gun model used, but the members gave him a greaty ovation for his efforts to boost the marksmanship sport. The records:
