

American Methodists in Petrograd Are Starving

New York, Jan. 2.—Members of the American Methodist Episcopal Church in Petrograd are dying of starvation, according to a cable message from Madame Eklund, the deaconess, received here last night by the Methodist board of foreign missions. Dr. G. A. Simons, pastor of the church and now in this city, says the Bolsheviks made four classes for food distribution: laborers, who get food; minor clerical help, who get a little food; professional classes, who get no food, and aristocrats, who are expected to starve. Our church members belong to the second and third classes.

WANTS TRAINING CONTINUED By Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 2.—Retention by the government of a majority of the twenty-four training camps for instructing the naval reserve force was advocated by Captain Laning, acting chief of navigation, in a statement submitted yesterday to the House Naval Committee. All the training camps will be required until demobilization is completed in 1920, Captain Laning said.

8-Hour Day For Firemen Tried Out in Cleveland

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 2.—Two-thirds of the local fire department were off duty yesterday as a result of the firemen's union's plan to institute an eight-hour working schedule. The amendment to the city charter granting the firemen and policemen an eight-hour day was approved by the voters in 1917. It was never enforced, city administration officials say, because of lack of finances. According to union officials, all the firemen will report in any great emergency.
