

JUDGE IN TEARS, TELLS OF SOVIET SLAYING OF CZAR

But Five Chances in Hundred Russ Imperial Family Lives, He Says

Paris, Jan. 3.—Prince Lvoff, the former Russian Premier, from whom information of the massacre of the Imperial family as related in the Chamber of Deputies last week, informs the Journal that he learned the details from a judge who made an investigation of the deaths. The Prince quotes the judge as saying: "I left nothing to chance, and although some points are not yet cleared up, I consider that the chances are ninety-five out of a hundred that the Imperial family was massacred."

FROSTBITTEN IN HIGHEST FLIGHT

London, Jan. 3.—Flying a British airplane at Ipswich yesterday, Captain Lang established a new altitude record, reaching a height of 30,000 feet. Observer Blowers, who accompanied him, collapsed when his oxygen bottle broke, but recovered. Both men were frost-bitten during their flight.

Chambersburg Girl Makes Second Attempt at Suicide

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 3.—Miss Savilla Hendricks, aged 20 years, of Chambersburg, attempted suicide at her home on Wednesday by swallowing two seven and one-half grain tablets of bichloride of mercury. Soon after taking the tablets she drank some milk and succeeded in vomiting up one of the tablets. She was taken to the Chambersburg Hospital, where the physicians are unable to state whether she will recover or not.

Major Leagues Prepare Draft for Coming Season

French Dick, Ind., Jan. 3.—Members of the executive committee of the two major baseball leagues were here today to draft the 1919 playing schedules of the National and American Leagues. The two leagues already have agreed to open the season April 23 and will play 140 games each, instead of the usual 154 games during the season. It is understood that no deals of the schedules worked out here will be made public until after their adoption at the joint meeting of the leagues to be held in New York, January 16.

France Pledges Graves of Yanks Shall Be Sacred

Washington, Jan. 3.—The State Department made public yesterday the following message, received under date of January 1, from the French government: "The French government wishes to express its profound sympathy and gratitude to the American families whose sons have met a glorious death on French soil during the war. The graves of the young soldiers are as sacred in its eyes as those of their French comrades, and it will take the necessary measures to provide that they shall be respected and tended with a reverent and patriotic care."

Philadelphia Wants Probe of Its Port Discrimination

Philadelphia, Jan. 3.—Government investigation of alleged discrimination against Philadelphia as a port of shipment for overseas supplies and for disembarkation of troops urged in a report adopted by the local Board of Trade and submitted to George S. Webster, director of the Department of Wharves, Docks and Ferries.

BUSY DAY IN BANKS

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 3.—Yesterday was the busiest day in twelve months in the four Waynesboro banks, probably the biggest financial day in their history, with a total predicted business for the first three days of the year of approximately $1,000,000. In addition to the banking institutions themselves paying their semi-annual dividends, they were busy cashing checks or adding to the accounts of their customers who were recipients of dividends from one or more of the many manufacturing institutions of the city.

Workmen Refuse to Pay More Than Five-Cent Fare

Denver, Col., Jan. 3.—After street car service had been completely suspended for six-and-a-half hours here last night, because of demonstrations by crowds of men and boys who objected to the collection of a seven-cent fare, service was resumed early today on regular schedules. Whether it would continue depended, company officials said, on adequate police protection. The trouble last night began when homeworkers in the stockyards district refused to pay more than a five-cent fare, ejected the trainmen and ran the cars into the city.

DIES SOON AFTER SON

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 3.—Mrs. Allen McKee, a resident of Baltimore, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Brown, at Hagerstown, from pneumonia. Mrs. McKee came to Waynesboro about two weeks ago to nurse her son, Charles McKee, who died December 23 of influenza. On the day her son died, Mrs. McKee was taken ill and was unable to attend the funeral. Another son died about ten months ago.

When the Nurse Comes

It may be necessary to have a nurse — in any home, and at most any unexpected time.

Then there will come the question of "Where shall the nurse sleep?"

So, when you are buying a Davenport for the living room why not buy one with a bed in it?

The PULLMAN—if you get a genuine PULLMAN—not only contains a most comfortable and satisfactory bed, but it has the appearance of being a stationary Davenport.

It will be a pleasure for us to show you a genuine PULLMAN—in either Oak or Mahogany finish—their cost no more than the ordinary kinds—12 different styles to select from.
