Sara Lemer Is to Play Before Millerstown Club

Sara Lemer, violiniste, is going to Millerstown to appear in recital next Tuesday evening before the Music Study Club of that town. Mrs. Joseph D. Mitchell is president of the club and Miss Lemer will give some of her most charming numbers. Nevell Albright, the accom-panistwilligive a group of piano soli on the program. Walter Heaton, the eminent English organist who wrote a criticism of the Reading Symphony rchestra concert given last Sunday for which Sara Lemer was the solofor which Sara Lemer was the soloist says of her: "Miss Lemer in her playing exploits no sensational mannerisms. Her appeal is a musically direct one. Her tones speak for her without the superfluous aid of bodily movement or superfleal musical excitement. She plays as well as Jacobinoff did a year ago and if she improves as surely as he has done, with the years to come — indispensible years — she will occupy a position all her own. The greatness of a Helfetz or a Kreisler does not shut out all others, but rather tends to be an incentive to others to "go and do likewise."

France Will Welcome All Yanks Who Wish to Stay

Metz, Jan. 6 .- France will welcomecome all American soldiers who wish to remain in this country and assist in rebuilding its devastated districts. General Petain, commander of the French forces, declared in an interview.

General Petain drew a sharp contrast between the German cities now under control of the Allied forces and the wrecked villages of North-ern France.
