Good news! The wrangle over and Beek playing on Gordon Ford's idependent basketball team instead on Tech has been adjusted micably and now we will see the ig fellow busting up things in the intral Pennsylvania League. There as really no severe bickering. Manager Ford har the enterprise to put farvisburg on the map with a bang-p attraction which exhibits every aturday night at Chestnut street, he public found the sport de lux and liked the dancing afterward, so his club is flourishing like a green size coll is flourishing like a green ay tree.

An only thorn in the rose was that each demands its athletes to give size only to the institution and here was some feeling that Ford and others who are Tech aluminould not stick by the alma mater, his they have done now, and at he same time found a way of substitution for Beck on the Independants, so all is merry as a marriage cll.

First League Game

The Technical High school basketall season at Chestnut street hall on riday evening with the Lancaster Igh school quintet. Captain Lingle, Johnnyi' Beck and Ebner will be the slections for the forward position. Tony' Wilsbach and 'Haps' Frank re still fighting it out for the pivot osition. Likely both lads will be root and places.

Coming From "Lebanon Up" Coach "Doc" Miller left to-day to the size of the sasociation an assistant manager for the association an assistant manager for mext season will be elected.

Willard Scared Off by Dempsey's Challenge

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Jess Willard has turned down the record-breaking purse of $75,000 for his share for a twenty-round bout with Jack Dempsey for the champlenship of the ward. plonship of the world, it became known yesterday.

Dominick Tortorich, New Orleans promoter, put his bid on the wire to Harry Tammen, of Denver, who, he figured, could get a favorable reply from the champion.

Here is Willard's reply as wired

"Received your wire on my return to Lawrence to-day. Don't care to consider proposition of boxing at this time. Might pass through Denver in near future and will see you then."

Tortorich's offer is a flat guarantee for Willard's services glone. antee for Willard's services alone. Dempsey's end is to be taken care of independently.

THIS MAGNATE KNOWS SOMETHING

William Wrigley, Jr., millionaire and dominant stockholder in the Chicago National League baseball club, has taken a life insurance policy for $1,000,000. The annual premium on the ordinary life plan will be $60,000.

Eight physicians, representing 22 companies, among which the insurance will be apportioned, conducted the examination.

I never saw so many stethoscopes and little mallets which they pounded on my chest, said Wrigley to-day after the examination. They asked on my kept in such good condition. did not turn in an alarm, but phoned did not turn in an alarm, but phoned for three fire companies. Jimmy Hodges, whose company is playing at the Majestic this week, advised "those whe do not, like smoke" to leave quietly. There was no disorder in the crowd, which left. The smoke curled into the theater, causing some of the actresses to take alarm and leave. The fireproof construction of the building, however, prevented a fire and the small blaze in the paper was extinguished without difficulty.
