

NATION HALTS IN TASKS FOR FUNERAL

PRIEST AT BIER OF ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Among the early arrivals to attend the funeral of Colonel Roosevelt was Father John J. Curran, of St. Mary's Church, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., who came for the special request of Mrs. Roosevelt.

When her husband, as president, settled the Pennsylvania coal strike, Father Curran, taking part in the funeral service, took a prominent part. This was the beginning of an intimate friendship between the priest and Colonel Roosevelt.

"I came to pay a last tribute to the best man who ever lived," said Father Curran to-day.

the amiable relations I have had with him." American Army of Occupation, an. 8.—News of the death of Colonel Roosevelt was withheld by a soldier friend from Captain, Kermit Roosevelt, of the Seventh Artillery, until the captain had been given an opportunity to read his father's latest letter. The friend was in "Coblenz" when the news was received at a headquarters there, and he delivered the letter before transmitting advice on the Colonel's death.

Lieut. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. is with the Twenty-sixth Infantry, near Montauban. Dr. Richard Derby, Colonel Roosevelt's son-in-law, is a surgeon attached to the headquarters of the Second Division.

Word of the death of Colonel Roosevelt was received over the wires of the American Signal Corps and was flashed immediately to all headquarters in the area of occupation.

New York, Jan. 8.—While the whole nation was mourning the passing of former President Roosevelt, this city in which he was born and to whose citizens he was perhaps most personally familiar, paid tribute to-day to his memory as his body was being laid to rest in the little cemetery at Oyster Bay. Virtually all business was suspended for one minute while New York paid respect to the illustrious dead. Old Trinity cranes began the funeral toll and as the sound was wafted upon the air, the bell in the cupola of New York's historic city hall merged its mournful cadence with that of Trinity and hundreds of other churches in the upper and lower reaches of Manhattan.

Precisely at 1.59 p. m. and until 2 o'clock, for one minute, virtually every wheel of industry in greater New York stopped, including the wires of the Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Washington joined with the little village of Oyster Bay to-day in mourning the death of Theodore Roosevelt. While the funeral of the former President was being conducted in the town which knew him as a private citizen, government activities insofar as possible ceased in the city which knew him as a public official.

Pages over all government buildings here were at half mast to-day and will remain so for thirty days in accordance with the proclamation issued yesterday by President Wilson at Paris. The Senate, over which Colonel Roosevelt was the presiding officer for a short time before becoming President, stood adjourned. The House planned to meet for only a brief session.

Although an act passed in 1893, it was not possible to order the various government departments closed. Work was reduced to a minimum during the services at Oyster Bay.

MARK GRAVES OF U. S. DEAD IN GERMANY. PLAN New York.—Arrangements for marking graves of all American soldiers who died while held prisoner by the Germans have been made by A. C. Harte, Y. M. C. A. representative at Berne, Switzerland, and Conrad Hoffman, the American Y. M. C. A. secretary, who was allowed to remain in Germany during the war to aid American prisoners.

The plan provides for a central American memorial, as well as small memorials for each American grave. "I believe this will prove valuable to relatives, who no doubt will come to look up the graves of their loved ones after the war is over," said a message from Mr. Harte telling of the plan.

DESERTERS SURRENDER Clarence Return and Elmer Thomas Hearty, declaring they had deserted from the League Island Navy Yard, in Philadelphia, gave themselves up to police last night, and were sent back to Philadelphia to face charges of desertion. They had procured civilian clothes at Philadelphia while on leave and came here.

TO NAME COMMITTEES The standing committees of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce will be announced at a meeting of the board of directors next Tuesday, at luncheon. Mr. Hetsch will have membership of the committees completed by that time.
