war conditions, but with the conflict ended the financial committee of the Associated Aids Society has become busy and is planning un event that will surpass those of the past in both size and quality.

The committee met yesterday afternoon and made preliminary arrangements for the big event. Friday evening, January 31, was selected as the most suitable date for the holding of the ball and the Penn-Harris Hotel as the most suitable place.

The entire lower floor of the build-The entire lower floor of the building has has been reserved for the ball, a fancy dress awair, and dancing will be held in both the lounge and diningroom. These rooms will be tastefully decorated for the evening. The space is limited, consequently the number of tickets will be limited, reported as fair this morning.

Mrs. Marlin E. C'msted, chairman of the financial committee, which will serve as the executive committee for the ball, told to-day. Other members of the committee include Miss Arne McCormick, Edwin S. Herman, Frank J. Brady and Henderson Gillert. Other committees are to be announced laier.

Says Strong Drink Made Him Climb Wrong Fire Escape in Middle of Night

Ed Sellers, 413 Granite street, was for the benefit of the Harrisburg Associated Aids Society will again to police court for a hearing to-day following his arrest shortly after midnight when he was discovafter midnight when he was discovalered on the fire escape at the scolond floor window of the Koons Apartment, Third and Kelker streets, Howard Barnes, who lives on the third floor, was roused from his sleep when he heard the screams of a woman on the second floor. Tushing to his window, he said he saw Sellers on the fire escape. He called to him to throw up his hands, and Sellers obligingly compiled, even though Barnes did not have any gun, he says. Police are inclined to accept Sellers' statement that he made a mistake, because he was declared to have been drinking.

Republicans Seek to Learn Manner in Which Large Fund Will Be Spent

Washington, Jan. 8.—Republican opposition to the $100,000,000 appropriation requested by President Wilson for European relief was manifested yesterday in both branches of Congress. In the Howse, Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, blocked consideration of a bill carrying the appropriation by refusing unanimous consent to take it up either to-day or Thursday. Chairman Sherley, of the appropriations committee, said he would seek a special rule to get action Thursday. Senators Borah and Smoot announced in the Senate that they would oppose the measure unless more information regarding plans for the use of the money was forthcoming.

for the use of the money was local coming.

"If we have no more information than is given in the President's message," said Senator Borah, "I, for one, will not vote for the appropriation. We are entitled to know where this money is going, what peoples are to be fed and the plans and methods of carrying out the project." "I shall note vote this $100,000.000

"I shall note vote this $100,000,000 if it is to be expended by Mr. Hoover in the manner he expended funds in this country. I'm not willing to vote on generalizations. We must have detailed facts."

Senator Smoot said he was sure the appropriations committee would not approve the President's request unless more information was given.
