RUMOR HITS BETHLEHEM

Bethlehem, Pa., Jan. 9.—There was a rumor current here that Eugene C.
Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, is to be 'replaced by Quincy Bent, a vice-president of the corporation and formerly general manager of the corporation's Steelton plant. According to the rumor, the change is to be made upon instructions of Charles M. Schwah, chairman of the corporation. Efforts to confirm the report were unsuccessful.

Quite often we are creatures of habit, not in-frequently to our disadvantage. Good habits are to be treasured bad habits apurned, says the moralist. One of the best busines habits you can acquire, says the business man, who has learned the lesson, is the printing habit. Be t attractive, earnest printing help you add to your earnings. It has done this for others and will get business for you. The catalon, the folder, the booklet, the window card, the circular, all these have been found valuable auxiliaries to the business man. We print them and print them
