SCOUT BUXBAUM WINS HIGH RANK

Names of Prizewinners in W. S. S. Contest Are Announced

All Scouts in the city whether they took part in the W. S. S. campaign the last week in December or not will be interested in knowing who are the winners of the prizes donated through the kindness of Postmaster Sites. In the troops as a whole, Troop 11 comes first with a total amount of $768.50; Troop 26 is next with a total of $219.75 and the third place goes to Troop 8 with a total of $218.00. You will notice that a keen rivalry must have existed between 26 and 8 since 26 had an advance of only $1.75 over Troop 8. The Troop prize won by Troop 11 consists of an American Red Cross first aid box. Congratulations, Troop 11. The individual winners are as follows: Scout. Troop. Amt. Sold. Richard Buxbaum . . . 11 . . . $737.50 Joseph Steele 26 . . . 129.00 Richard Haar 8 . . . 88.25 Christian Brandt 8 . . . 55.25 George Hopkins 4 . . . 40.25 Earl Hoeker 28 . . . 31.50 Leon Criswell 16 . . . 29.25 Arthur Bard 26 . . . 21.50 James Parsons 26 . . . 21.50 Joseph Hagar 13 . . . 21.50 Here are the prizes: First prize, Scout uniform; second prize, weight helmet; third prize, Ceebnyite compass; fourth prize, magnapole compass; fifth and sixth prizes, Scout jewelry sets; sixth to tenth prizes, souvenir edition Scout Diary.

Troop Sixteen Elects Officers at Meeting

We had some meeting last week at Troop 16. Every fellow on the active list present on time. After the devotional exercises and inspection we elected officers resulting as follows: President, Frank Foose; vice president, Joseph Machlan; scribe, Cleon Criswell; treasurer, Harold Grand; chaplain, William Sellers; custodian, Russel Brown. The matter of merits took our attention for a little while. We decided to give twenty-five merits for proposing an acceptable new member. Charles Foelich was appointed chairman of the committee for our next luncheon. He named the following committee: Cleon Criswell, Frank Foose, Oliver McGary and Robert Cunkle. The Court of Honor met immediately after the meeting and discussed the lack of interest of some of the officers, and re-arranged the patrols. To-night we shall have the pleasure of bearing Captain James T. Long, 112th Infantry, 38th Division, who was in the second battle of the Marne, and whose company entered Chateau Thierry a few hours after the Germans left, tell of his experiences in that great conflict. Captain Long is a very interesting talker and we feel highly honored that he has consented to talk to us. We will give him a rousing welcome.

To-morrow, weather permitting, a game of hare and hounds over a six-mile course in the York hills. The hare will leave the Square on the 1:15 New Cumberland car, and the hounds will follow on the 1:45. Each fellow should bring fourteen cents for fare and a lunch. We expect to reach the Square not later than 3:30. You know what will be found at the end of the course, so don't miss it. CLEON CRISWELL, Scribe.

Troop to Go on Hike to Hummelstown Cave

Troop 26 held its regular weekly meeting Monday with very nearly the entire troop membership present. After opening the meeting the scoutmaster gave a short talk on the work performed by the troop during 1918 and predicted a year of activity during the coming year that would place Troop 26 far in the lead in Harrisburg. Achievement buttons were awarded to the following scouts for the sale of War Savings Stamps, with the promise of more to come, and Ace Medals for at least the bare scouts decorated, Joseph Steele, James F. Parsons and Chas. Vitmeyer. The 100 per cent. duty pin for December was awarded to Arthur Bard and will be his to wear until won by another scout. During the meeting Mr. Sparrow took over the duties of assistant scoutmaster and was assigned to instruction in woodcraft. The troop will go on a hike to the cave at Hummelstown Saturday afternoon where firemaking and cooking test will be given to those scouts who are ready to take it. All scouts going along should bring a flashlight or candle and be dressed in old clothes and shoes. Scouts wishing to attend the hike will report at the church at 1 o'clock Saturday. H. T. COLLICOTT, Scout.

Scouts Hold Interesting Debate at Their Rally

The Scouts of Troop 9 held a rally Thursday, January 2. Everyone who attended had a grand time. Mr. Argin was with us and gave us a talk. Our visitors also included Scout Davago Brown of Troop 11, York, and Scouts Charles Diggs, Robert Strain and Boyd Strain, of Troop 25, Harrisburg. One of the most interesting parts of the program was a debate on the following subject, "Which is the stronger of the United States fighting forces, the army or the navy?" The affirmative side consisting of Edward Harrison and Ross Cooper won over the negative side which was headed by Beverly Ward and Walter Massey.

Troop Eight Attends Services in Christ Church

Last Monday evening about seven members of Troop 8 went to a communion preparatory service at Christ Lutheran Church. After the church service there was a short meeting in which the new constitution was read. This constitution contains many good clauses, among them being one which states that a candidate can enter Troop 8 unless he has the consent of the Scouts of the Troop and is ready to become Tenderfoot at the first meeting which he attends. E. A. SPOTZ, Scribe.

"The Live Store"

"Always Reliable"

Doutrichs is a "safe" store for you and your friends at all times because you always have a "come back" in case you are not satisfied, our guarantee is so sweeping that it takes in everything and leaves no doubt whatever in your mind, the whole transaction is entirely in YOUR hands, when you are pleased and satisfied, then and only then do we consider we have served you the way we should.

Doutrichs January Reductions

A great many stores will say guarantee but to "carry it out" is where a great many "hedge" — Sometimes a store will guarantee for a short while until they probably feel that they have the trade coming their way and they can "slacken up" a bit — But do you notice we continue to say "Always Reliable" as aggressively as ever before with unabated interest?

We press on still using our original methods of obtaining the "good will" and confidence of the people. That is by square dealing, honest representation and greater values—Take January reductions, you'll find it just as a customer told us yesterday — you don't seem to make much "fuss" about your values yet they're the best to be found anywhere.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Kuppenheimer & Society Brand Clothes

We've been "checking up" for several days and you'll be surprised to see the number of customers who have been here the past few days who came HERE after they had been disappointed elsewhere — We have the merchandise and when you go to another store and "can't get" what you want come here.
