Everything referring to childhood days finds ready recognition in the memory of the oldest person. We doubt if Minstrels would evince such doubt of the Hun were it not for the sufferings inflicted on children by the cruel methods of the Kaiser and his brutal followers.

Every human being, whose heart pulsates with kindness, is greatly influenced by children. To witness their plays and games is to carry us back to the days of frolics, rag dolls and mud pies.

Al. G. Field is noted for the many productions he has staged with a view solely to please the fancy of his youthful followers. The popularity of the Field show has been enhanced two-fold through the efforts of Mr.

Field to provide wholesome amusement for children. Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels are at the Orpheum to-night.

"The best ever," although a much-abused caption, may be applied aptly to the noted 11-star colored S. H. Dudley's "Darktown Frolics," who are booked to make merry at the Orpheum to-morrow, matinee and night. Fieldon has such an aggregation of negro comedians, dancers, singers and funmakers been brought together in years. They are capable in every detail and give an entertainment that compares favorably with any company seen heretofore in years.

"Twin Beds," an effervescent comedy by Salisbury Field and Margaret May, which was produced in expert observers proclaimed the funniest comedy play in the English language, with Lola Bolton in the leading feminine role, will be seen at the Orpheum Theater for two days and Saturday matinee, beginning Friday, January 17.

To renew the highly satisfactory impression of its previous visit it will be recalled that this diverting and wholesome comedy at the time attracted immense patronage and held its audience in uncontrolled roars of laughter which followed one another so rapidly that they were practically continuous, save for space between acts.

"Twin Beds" is a clean, rollicking farce, built upon an attempted escape from a hotel by a group of six people in a fashionable apartment building, who all solemnly profess to be in great secrecy, to another precisely similar apartment house in another part of town, and then begin their troubles all over again. The play will be presented with an entire new production, and the same great cast of comedians, dancers, singers, Roy MacNicol, Virginia Fairfax, R. M. D'Angelo, Kathryn Mills, Thelma H. Manning, Lucille Beckett and others.

Y. M. C. A. Takes Care of Soldiers Stopping in This City

A Telegraph photographer caught these soldiers napping in the Central Y. M. C. A. gymnasium the other night at the war arm' hour of 1 o'clock. Almost every night the "gym" is turned into a huge bedroom and scores of soldiers are given rest. During the past six months 2,173 men in the service were given lodging in the "Y" building at Second and Locust streets. Of this number 500 were unable to pay, but they were given the welcome hand despite this fact. Expenditures for the entertainment of the boys was $600. The receipts were $113, leaving a deficit of almost $500. These facts were made public in a recent report by General Secretary Robert B. Reeves. To all soldiers the privileges of the building, including shower baths, reading rooms, gymnasium and other conveniences are open without charge.

The third episode of Universal's thrilling serial, "The Lure of the Circus," is also being shown.

To-day and to-morrow "The Racing Strain," another "Y" production, is the way one man expressed it after seeing this Colonial charming picture with winning some Mae Marsh in the leading role, and you will probably agree with him after seeing this romance of the Kentucky Hills, written expressly to suit the peculiar tastes of this vivacious little star. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Geraldine Farrar, the famous start of the opera, will be seen in a gripping story of the west, "The Hell Cat."

That William S. Hart is as popular as ever in his newest photoplay, "The Border Wireless," was amply evidenced at the Regent Theater last night when hundreds of people saw him in the role of "Steve Ransom," a western prospector, who turns bandit, foils a German spy system and wins the love of a western maiden. As the bandit in this picture, he does his country a great service by destroying a wireless station operated by a band of Hun spies, and finds love and happiness after a series of thrilling episodes. In "The Border Wireless" he is joined by a new trait which will add greatly to his reputation for versatility.

Enrico Caruso, the world-famed tenor, is announced to appear Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in his first moving picture, "My Cousin," a delightful love story with many a heart throb and a lighter side, too. As an extra feature, Manager Magaro has secured the ever-popular "Fatty" Roscoe Arbuckle in his newest film, "Camping Out."

HEARD IN POLICE COURT J. A. Heverstick, a railroad clerk, who was arrested last night on a charge of having a loaded gun in his possession. He was arrested as he got off an Enola car, last night, and it is believed that he shot at his father-in-law.

Daily Health Talks A WORD ABOUT THE KIDNEYS By DOCTOR WATSON

People are easily frightened when they think something is the matter with their lungs or heart, and well they may be; but few people understand the dangers of disease kidneys. These organs have a duty of vital importance to perform, and if they are diseased, there is no telling how or where the symptoms may appear. The kidneys are filters, and when they are healthy they remove the poisons from the blood and purify it. When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is uric acid. The uric acid is carried all through the system and deposited in various places, in the form of urate salts—in the feet, ankles, wrists and back—often forming bags under the eyes. Sometimes the resulting trouble is called rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and backache. Finally, some stone in the bladder, diabetes and Bright's disease.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., in recent years, discovered that a certain combination of remedies would dissolve uric acid (urate salts) in the system. He found this combination to be harmless, so that he made it up in tablets, of double strength, and called them Anuric Tablets. They dissolve uric acid in the human system as hot coffee dissolves sugar. If you have uric acid troubles, don't delay in taking Anuric Tablets, which can be secured in the drug stores. You can write Dr. Pierce, too, and he will tell you what to eat and how to live so that more uric acid will not form in your system. Dr. Pierce will not charge for this advice.

ORPHEUM CROWDS ENJOY MINSTRELS Al. G. Field's Entertainers Are Popular With Harrisburg Patrons

Introductions and explanations about Al. G. Field's noted minstrel organization, appearing in public for thirty-three years, are unnecessary, especially in Harrisburg. Last night, at the Orpheum Theater, the entertainers opened a two-day stay and once more proved their popularity with the many patrons. They played to a capacity house and won applause and laughter only accorded when the best of entertainment is offered. Some folks say a minstrel show is always the same. That may be true of a few of them, but NOT about Field's pleasing offerings. Who would ever think of introducing a fine bit of specialty dancing with a song by Fanny Time and chorus for a chorus? It's a novel idea, but served the purpose well, and then, to close the dance, a military tableau, "Over the Top," was shown and brought a storm of applause.

The William Fox feature, "The Prussian Cur," is showing for the last time to-day at the Victoria. Based, as it is, on the revelations of a self-confessed former member of former Kaiser Wilhelm's diabolical spies in this country, the film presents one of the most remarkable exposures of the workings of German intrigues in America that has been made. An added feature is that Captain von Goltz himself, the former German spy, acts in the film, thus lending a touch of realism that could otherwise not be secured.

Arthur Yule gave some good imitation which pleased him; then the scene changed to a barbershop where a saxophone sextet gave a concert while the tonorial artist used a paint brush and a large bucket as the principal implements of warfare against a beard.

In conclusion, another short tableau was presented after a bit of comedy supposed to take place at a port town along a southern river. With the best of everything in minstrelsy, there is little wonder that the Field organization is always so popular and so welcome in this city, and the proof of it is that crowded houses always greet the entertainers.

THE MAJESTIC "Jimmie" Hodges and his company again made a tremendous hit with the theatergoers of this city last night at the Majestic, when "A Night Out" was presented. "Ollie" Hodges, as Harry Baldwin, and "Joe" McGee, as Bobo, Harry's negro valet, also won popular approval in their parts. The usual run of good humor was gone through and the audience had another chance to laugh and enjoy itself with the well-known comedian and his company.

During the intermission Miss Cavanaugh and Mr. Hodges gave some very good patter and songs. Mr. Hodges' singing of "Late to Get Up in the Morning" meeting with especial favor. Another song hit was "The Devil Has Bought Up All the Coal," by Jennie Junot and chorus of devil-girls.

DEAF MUTE SAVES LIVES York, Pa., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Amanda L. Bentzel, aged 72 years, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maggie Bentzel, aged 87, both deaf mutes, were overcome by coal gas and for a time their condition was critical. Their lives were saved by Emandel Bentzel, also a deaf mute, a son of Mrs. Amanda Bentzel, who found the two women unconscious.

HART IN NEWEST PATRIOTIC FILM "The Border Wireless" to Be Shown at Regent Today and Tomorrow

In last night's issue of the Telegraph it was incorrectly stated that William S. Hart will appear at the Regent Theater in "The Silent Man." He will be shown in his newest picture, "The Border Wireless." It is a thrilling picture of the great West, throbbing with patriotism. It is scheduled for to-day and to-morrow. Mr. Hart is true to his western characterizations, taking the part of "Steve Ransom," a young western prospector. He turns bandit and later foils the attempts of Hun spies to communicate with their government. A smashing climax is given when he plights his troth to his sweetheart, a charming western lass.

SPANISH INFLUENZA MORE DEADLY THAN WAR

Said That Epidemic Cost More Lives Than American Loss in Battle. Danger Not Over. Great Care Necessary to Prevent Further Outbreak.

The appalling ravages of Spanish influenza in this country are perhaps best realized by the statement recently made, that more deaths have resulted in little more than a month from this disease than through our whole eighteen months participation in the battles of the European War.

Influenza is a crowd disease. Avoid crowds as much as possible. Influenza germs spread when ignorant or careless persons sneeze or cough without using a handkerchief about you each cough or sneeze. Do not spit on the floor, sidewalk, in street cars or public places. Avoid the use of common drinking cups and roller towels in public places. Breathe some reliable germicidal and antiseptic air to destroy the germs that do find lodgment in your nose and throat.

Remember, no safer precaution against influenza could be employed in this manner than to get from the nearest drug store a complete Hyomei Ointment consisting of a bottle of the Pure oil of Eucalypti and a little vest-pocket hard rubber inhaling device, into which a few drops of the oil are poured. You should carry this inhaler about with you during the day and each half hour or so put it in your mouth and draw deep breaths of its pure healing germ killing air into the passages of your nose, throat and lungs.

By destroying germs before they actually begin work in your blood, you may make yourself practically immune to infection. All these suggestions about Spanish influenza are equally true in the prevention of colds, catarrh of nose and throat, bronchitis and even pneumonia. Don't become careless. Do your part. Keep the germs away. You may save yourself a serious illness and the loss of several weeks work. On sale by H. C. Kennedy.
