Natural History Society Sues Company. - Asking $1,200 tenant-Governor Frank B. McClain,

Harry M. Bretz, lawyer and member o fthe bankrupt firm of Bretz Broth-of the bankrupt firm of Bretz Brothers, will be heard by Judges George Kunkel and S. J. M. McCarrell on Tuesday, January 28, at the regular argument court session.

All testimony in the disbarment precedings against the lawyer was heard at the afternoon session yesterday, and shortly before the hour of adjournment a brief argument was started. No defense was presented, counsel for Bretz merely cross-exam.

Service was made on State Treasurer Harmon M. Kephart and Lieutenant-Governor Frank B. McClain, Argument of the motion to disbarment petition.

only tended to establish more clearly the facts as alleged in the disbarment petition.

Numerous replies have been made to the Chamber of Commerce query sent to manufacturers to ascertain if they would be in a position to furnish jobs to the returned soldiers. It was said that thus far the answers have been satisfactory, and the manufacturers have expressed a desire to co-operate in the movement to provide for the soldiers. The answers will be considered by a special manufacturers' committee, and reported to he Manufacturers' Council at their meeting Monday.
