Single men drubbed the poor hand-cuffed guys last evening on Parthe-more alleys, New Cumberland, just like this:

Muldoon, one-time champion wrestler, who trained Sullivan for his fight with Mitchell, could handle Sullivan at will. A mixed match was proposed between Muldoon and Mitchell, but Mitchell never accepted because he wisely listened to the ground and leaving him defenseless.

The system will give small men more confidence in themselves to attack larger and more powerful men. Once the small man masters this experts who told him that Muldoon physical strength.

Sporting Editor of the Telegraph:
Dear Sir:
"These are a few lines in connection with the Beck' case, of Tech. Your paper is continually using my name as also under suspicion of playing professional basketball. This year i have not engaged in a single game of ball outside of Lebanon High, and wish you to use my name no more in connection with Beck's professional-ism.

"At no time this year was I ineligible to play, but your paper stated that Beck and Miller have been reinstated after giving up their playing with any outside team. I, personally feel as if Beck should play, and hope he does, for that will make the league more interesting.

"Very truly yours,

After over a century of existence the toll road between Lewistown and Reedsville has been freed by the state, thus giving a toll-free highway all the way from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh by that route. This is said to have been the last toll road in that section of Pennsylvania.

"Snowey" Baker, the best-known sport promotor in Australia, says that Australians and Americans in France had not only adopted one brothers in arms, but that their affections ran into the sporting field as well, and that the returning Australian soldiers had learned to know and like baseball and had, in fact, become ardent fans. Baker thinks baseball a high-class sort of sport himself, and is willing to lend his tremendous influence, his money and his genius to fostering this new love of the Australians, so that the time may not be far distant when a team will come from the Antipodes to meet the best this country can produce.

Philadelphia, Jan. 14.—"Billy" Miske, of St. Paul, outpointed "Tom" Cowler, the Australian heavyweight, in a six-round bout, Saturday night, at the National A. C. Miske dropped Cowler with a right to the jaw in the first rount for the count of seven. The Australian recovered and managed to last out the round. Throughout the remainder of the bout he was continually on the defense.

to Religious Unity

An athletic novelty entirely new in Harrisburg was fully organized last night, namely, the Sunday School League, which will include ten clubs from progressive religious activities, irrespective of creed. Clergymen of Harrisburg expressed the opinion to-day that this movement, so unexpected and unusual, might mean a great deal for religious unity.

The election last evening resulted in William Winn being chosen president, with Emory Lutz, secretary and treasurer. The president announced that there were now ten churches in the league and that five managers, who would not be personally concerned, would make all decisions that were appealed.

The churches now represented are: Stevens Memorial, Market Square Presbyterian, Christ Lutheran, Hick-A-Thrift, Methodist Club, Covenant
