The United States naval vessel Tallapoosa, which brought to this port the crew of the Gloucester, Mass., schooner Arkona, wrecked in the ice, in Forteau Bay, was ordered last night by the United States shipping board to proceed to the Castalia and make an attempt to tow her to the nearest port.

No word was received here during the day regarding the Italian steamer Ansaldo, reported by wireless yesterday as being in distress off this coast.

A message came through from the American steamer Tuckahoe giving her position as latitude 42.16 north. longitude 64.05 west. The Tuckahoe reported yesterday that she was leaking badly, but expected to reach Halifax without assistance.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 14 .--- A wire less message received here last night by the United States shipping board from Captain Behm, of the Castalia, aboard the Bergensfjord says fortysix of the crew were transferred safely.

One of the Castalia's crew was drowned and three others died of exposure, accoding to the message. The Bergensfjord will continue on her voyage to Norway and the Castalia's crew will be transferred to an incoming vessel at sea.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 14 .--- The American transport Tuckahoe, which had been reported in distress, was towed into Halifax harbor late last night.

Brunswick, Ga., Jan. 14 .- The American steamer Bedminister, which went ashore December 19, off Sapelo Island during a gale, reached this port last night in tow of the steamer Biesbosch.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a small bottle of Danderine Get a small bottle of Dandering at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applica-tions will destroy every bit of dan-druff; stop scalp itching and fall-ing hair.

It would have been impossible to trust the bridge with more than one gun at a time. "This meant that we had no offl-cers to send across with each gun. Most of the guns crossed the bridge with only the three drivers. Yet, as scon as they reached the other side, they got the guns into position to batter a way for the other guns which followed them. "I wish you could have seen those drivers, many of them Polish boys from the mines. All the guns ex-cept those of the battalion ordered across the river, were keeping up an incessant protective fire. "The guns rumbled down the road to the river, the six horses in a wild frenzy, and with a skilfful turn the drivers steered into the narrow ap-proach leading to the bridge, across the risky bridge and to the enemy-infested bank opposite. Evangelistic Services Are Marked by Catchy Themes

With evangelistic services being held in three of the local churches, those being held in the Methodist Church are marked by sermons on some catchy themes. Among the themes announced by the pastor, the Rev. Herbert A. Sawyer, are the fol-lowing: "Lot's Wife, the Back-silder"; "Philip, the Talker"; "Aaron the Calfmaker"; "Timothy, the Bible Reader"; "Samuel, the Boy"; Jonah, the Stubborn"; "Thomas, the Doubt-er"; "Peter, the Swearer"; "Nicode-mus, the Night Owl"; "Judas, the Unforgiven." Inforgiven. The sermons in the United Breth-ren Church are on the subject of prayer.

Home Minstrels Charity Show on February 20

The charity show by the Original Home Talent Minstrels yesterday an-nounced to be held on January 20, is to be held on the night of February 20 instead. The late date was set in order to allow plenty of time for the sale of tickets. The proceeds of the entertainment will be given to the Associated Charitles of Steelton. The minstrel group is an excellent one.
