REIGN OF TERROR ENDS IN BERLIN

London, Jan. 15.—No renewal of disturbances in Berlin is reported in the latest advices. The government, which has succeeded in restoring order, now is applying itself to the business of maintaining order and preparing for the elections to the national assembly Sunday.

General Noske announces he will keep sufficient troops in the city to safeguard the elections. Government troops are active and are disarming all citizens armed with rifles and suppressing the dangerous aftermath of robbery and pillaging by the defeated and dispersed Spartacan elements, the leaders of which, including the chief of police Eichhorn, whose resistance to dismissal was the focus of the uprising, have all been arrested or have fled.

Leibknecht is Missing. All citizens are urged to report any information regarding the whereabouts of the Spartacan chief, but nothing reliable is known of his fate or whereabouts. The new police president, Richter, is reorganizing and arming the police force, which will contain no Spartacan elements.

All the election results in South Germany announced up to the present show that the independents elect the majority in the Reichstag.

The Bourse, which was closed during the disturbances, will reopen on Wednesday.

Defence forces are to be armed to defend Berlin. Gustav Noske delivered a speech in front of the foreign office Sunday, thanking the troops for what they have accomplished. He said he was glad to see that the threatened troubles in the east, which they had been employed in Berlin order at the frontiers while in the capital might was going before right.

Noske added that as soon as Berlin was normal the troops would be sent to their original destination, but he would not allow them to be retained to safeguard the elections at the assembly. The speaker concluded by saying the German government had not forgotten for an instant its duty to its brethren in the east and had done everything to protect them in the future securely and lastingly against "Polish despotism."

It is proposed to make the illegal possession of arms a punishable offense with immediate death. The military men now co-operating with the government propose to show the insurgents no mercy and to simply execute the policy during the capture of the factories, barracks and police headquarters.

Hundreds Under Arrest. It is estimated by credible eye-witnesses that the new German troops in both actions Saturday beat down with bayonets and with clubs and other killed scores of men who were otherwise guards or civilians caught with arms. Hundreds of persons already have been arrested.

The last ripples of the tidal wave which has swept over Berlin in the past few days are being felt in the spread of robbery and looting, which is being carried on by soldiers and sailors who detached themselves from Spartacan units. Berlin to-night is virtually defenseless against lawlessness.

Vorwaerts Building a Fortress. The material loss and disorder caused by the rebels was especially heavy in the Vorwaerts building and the Tageblatt. Records and accounts were strewn about and bulky ledgers were jammed into windows to serve as barricades for riflemen.

The Vorwaerts building was converted into a veritable fortress with arsenal. After a breach had been blown in with cannon the Spartacans began to weaken and later gave in.

Government Yet Impetuous. The reinstatement and arming of the police gives the government a new force of trained men who know the criminal world and whose absence during the first days of the revolution gave the disorderly element a free hand. Police records, including those of the Bertillon system, were not destroyed, as was first reported. Detectives are already rounding up old acquaintances in the work of disarming lawless elements is proceeding.

Property losses during the past week amount to tens of millions of marks in damage to newspaper plants and government buildings. Merchants' losses through looting are very high, one youth being captured with sixty dollars' worth of loot, including a watch which he had stolen. In some streets near the police headquarters nearly every store was systematically looted.

Silesian troops holding the Silesian station for so much but that they used it to grease their guns and boots.

Center of City Is Quiet. The center of the city has been quiet today. Little has been heard of a few shots were heard in different parts of the town, being fired by snipers and looters. Merchants having shops along Unter den Linden took down their shutters and business was suspended.

The government has no intention of slackening its efforts against the Spartacans. The Abend Zeitung says it learns from best authority. Energetic measures are being taken against the Spartacans and looting. It is reported that documents found by loyal troops show that the Spartacan uprising was inspired from Moscow.

Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the Spartacan leader, Georg Ledebour, head of the revolutionary independent Socialist element, and the immediate supporters of these revolutionary chiefs, were so certain their plans for the recent uprising had succeeded that they had prepared a proclamation, dated January 6, in which the Ebert-Scheidemann government was declared deposed and a formal announcement made that the government had been taken over by the revolutionists.

The proclamation was addressed to "Comrades Workers" and was signed by Liebknecht and a committee, per Ledebour, Liebknecht and Scholze. It was presented to Lieutenant Hamberger at the ministry on January 6, by a messenger who appeared before the ministry with three hundred armed men from the royal stable which was then one of the headquarters of the revolutionists. The marine commander that the ministry he turned over to him, Liebknecht, observing that the signatures were typewritten, objected to them as invalid, saying he was ready to surrender the ministry to the new government if the document were properly signed.

The troops withdrew and returned later with the proclamation bearing the personal signature of Liebknecht and Scholze, together with an annotation by Dr. Liebknecht signing himself as "the representative of Georg Ledebour, who is for the moment in the city."

Four of Castalia Lost in Rescue of Ship's Company. Halifax, N. S., Jan. 15.—Four of the crew of the United States shipping board steamship Castalia, disabled off Sable Island Monday, were lost in the rescue of the ship's company by the steamers Bergensford and Wardigan. A wireless message from Capt. Bull of the Bergensford, received here to-day by the shipping board said the rest of the crew had been saved.

Fred Stone, of Andover, N. H.; John Tomakavitch, of Oliphant, Pa.; and Benjamin Silverman, of Roxbury, Mass., died of exhaustion, and Andrew Cobb, of Ware Shoal, S. C., was drowned, the message said.

The survivors will be taken to Bergen, Norway, to which port the Bergensford was bound when she answered the Castalia's distress signals.

British Censors Will Pass All Peace Messages. London, Jan. 15.—The British foreign office announced to-day that the government does not intend to exercise any censorship over press messages during the Peace Conference. It states that it has also received a similar assurance from the French government.

McCormick Quits THE CHAIRMANSHIP LEAGUE OF NATIONS [Continued from First Page.] President. No agreement had been made, however.

Officials at the White House declined to discuss the report that Mr. Sharp had returned to Washington, succeeded by Mr. McCormick, but it seemed to have credence in other official circles. Mr. McCormick was appointed chairman of the War Relocation Administration.

While it is true that Ambassador Sharp had tendered his resignation to the President, it was stated on good authority that there is no real foundation for the report that Mr. McCormick is going to succeed him in the post. Mr. McCormick is expected to leave the post as "at least premature."

GUERRILLA BANDS DO BIG DAMAGE

Tear Clothing From Man and Wife Until They Get Money. Warsaw, Jan. 15.—Bolshevik guerrilla bands are carrying out many depredations in Lithuania as they advance toward Warsaw. A landowner named Michulsky, who has arrived in Warsaw, says twenty armed men surrounded his house and demanded money. He told them he had none, but they must have the clothes from him and his wife, beat the woman with a whip and pounded Michulsky with the butts of their guns until he agreed to give them 1000 rubles.

The band told Mrs. Michulsky, who is French, that she belonged to the "dirty Allies."

"If your people will soon be like us, there will not be any more property owners. We are going to Warsaw and then we will overrun Europe."

Later the bandits asked for more money and tortured the couple until Mrs. Michulsky became unconscious and her husband's wrists were broken. Michulsky gave them 15,000 rubles more, all the money he had.

They were still asking for more money and valuables in the house and the horses on the farm, the men demanded liquor. Finding that there was none, they gave the pair a final beating and went to a neighboring house.

They did not find any money there, so Michulsky says. They set fire to the house and shot down the family as they fled. A girl of 18 almost escaped, but was brought down with a second shot as she ran. The bandits then beat her to death with the butts of their guns.

The commanders of the retiring German army are reported to be carrying on systematic schemes of getting money. One plan is to sell the farms back to their owners before retiring, or if they are unwilling to buy to sell them to the peasants.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR INAUGURAL MADE READY

Lieutenant-Governor Beidleman to Take Oath of Office Outside Senate Chamber. The announcement yesterday that Lieutenant-Governor-elect E. Z. Beidleman will take the oath of office in front of the Capitol at the same time as Governor-elect Sproff, instead of in the Senate Chamber, as had been reported, is meeting its general approval throughout the city and state today. The change in plans will give Senator Beidleman's many friends an opportunity to witness the ceremony, something they would have been unable to do had the event been conducted according to precedent.

On Friday an fifty members of the Philadelphia Union League will come to Harrisburg for the inauguration. This delegation will act as the escort of honor for the gubernatorial party. The reception room in the Capitol to be used for the occasion will be in the Capitol to the grandstand in front of it, and will have seats on the grandstand during the ceremony.

Two hundred Boy Scouts, each carrying a large American flag will precede the Union League members and the gubernatorial party from the Capitol. They will line up on both sides of the grandstand and after the gubernatorial party has passed by will close in behind on a specially prepared platform.

John Brown, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, will administer the oath of office to Governor-elect Sproff, after which the Governor's inaugural address will be delivered. Lieutenant-Governor-elect Beidleman will then take the oath of office. It will be administered by Judge S. M. J. McCarrell, additional judge of Dauphin county.

Changes have also been made in the plans of the Governor's reception on Tuesday evening and instead of being held in the Senate caucus room as has been customary, it
