WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The members of the Junior Red Cross of the Forney school building have shown the spirit of giving when they recently donated two crates of oranges and $15 in cash to the Industrial Home. The school children accomplished this feat in an afternoon. From the youngest to the oldest, each one did his part and, under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Knox, chairman of the gift committee, they were able to present these things, which are so much needed, to the home. And the youngsters are enjoying the results of their forts, for, as Coleridge writes:

The Iris Club dance which will be the Harrisburg district of the Luther League will hold a rally in Kelher Memorial Church, Shiremanstown, of which the Rev. H. K. Lantz is pastor, to morrow evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. H. Menges, of Menges' Mills, President of the Luther League of the winter. It will be the first dance to be given by the Iris club, and is to which the Rev. H. K. Lantz is pastor, to morrow evening at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Mr. H. It's Worth Waiting For

Have you ever been in a store where one person attempted to serve you and another customer at the same time? Then you know how utterly impossible it was for her to give either of you proper service, and I won't hesitate to say that you both came away dissatisfied. You would much rather have waited until she could give you individual attention.

At my shop you will never fail to receive strictly personal service. When making a selection in one of my private fitting salons, under no condition will you be interrupted or hurried in your choice. The saleswoman who attends you will devote her undivided attention to your wishes alone.

I am sure that you will be so pleased and satisfied with this sales policy that you will consider it well worth the occasional inconvenience of waiting for a short
