Thursday and Friday the Vitagraph presents Alice Joyce in a five-part feature, entitled "Every-body's Girl," showing at the "Colonial Theater. Thrills and surprises abound in this fascinating story. The story tells a vivid side light on life in the city. Saturday only, Norma Talmadge, the screen's most popular star. will be seen in a return engage

William Hodge, who has gained the reputation of being the most typical American actor now before the public, is starring, in the role of a young country doctor in his new comedy, "A Cure For Curables." The piece is in four acts and was written by Earl Derr Biggers and Mr. Hodge.

He has the role of a young country physician from Kentucky, who has inherited a rest cure sanatorium from his rich ancle. There is a clause in the document, however, which provides that the heir must effect ten cures in thirty days or forfeit the title to another person, but there are only nine patients in the institution when the young doctor arrives. As time passes, however, the hard working young doctor manages to add one more patient to the roster and long before the date set in the will he has completed ten cures. But he has one more surprise is store for his friends, when he amnounces his engagement to the daughter of one of his wealthiest patients. Glass Workers Are to Get 10 Per Cent. Raise; Four Shifts For Toilers

By Associated Press

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 16.—A ten per cent. wage increase, which affects over 12,000 workers, was agreed to here yesterday at a conference between representatives of the National Window Glass Workers' Association and a committee of window glass manufacturers. The increase was based on last year's wage per hour, which was approximately $1.60.

The workers also agreed to the two period plan of operations of factories, which was accepted by the manufacturers at their meeting in Pittsburgh yesterday. Under the plan workers in plants throughout the country will receive equal employment and as long as possible without causing over production of window glass.

The men will go on a four-shift per day plan this year instead of three shifts.

Meanwhile these chairmanships were decided on: Philadelphia, Jan. 16. - Important

Bridget Clougherty and William A. Duffee. A large number of the injured were taken to the relief hospital. The tank was owned by the Purity Distilling Company, a substidiary of the United States Industrial Alcohol Company, of Cambridge. Two million gallons of molasses rushed in a mighty stream over the streets and converted into a sticky mass the wreckage of several smashed by the force of the explosion.

The greatest mortality apparently occurred in a city building, where a score of municipal employes were eating their lunch. The structure was demolished. Another city building also was torn from its foundations and two women occupants were severely injured.

A section of the tank wall fell on a fire house, crushing its three firemen, including Leahy, who was killed, were buried in the ruins. The rest of the tank wall crashed against the elevated structure of the Boston Elevated Railway in Commercial street, damaging three spans, suspending all traffic on the line which connects the north and south statutors.
