

INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

PLANS SWINGING FOR CONFERENCE Excellent Music, Good Speakers and Large Attendance of Delegates Features

MUSIC will be a special feature of the Pennsylvania state conference, the daughters of the American Revolution, held in the Penn-Harris Hotel, January 27-30, inclusive.

Many Delegates Coming The Penn-Harris, headquarters for the conference, has had applications for about 200 reservations for delegates, and those unable to secure

Chapter Meeting Thursday Harrisburg Chapter, hostesses for the conference, will hold a meeting at the Civic Club, Thursday afternoon, January 23, at 3 o'clock.

Needlework Guild Plans New Work The first meeting of the Needlework Guild of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Polyclinic Hospital will be held on Friday afternoon, January 17, at 8 o'clock in the nurses' home.

Flowers For All Occasions Floral Decorations Wedding Flowers Party Flowers Funeral Flowers

The Berryhill LOCUST ST. AT SECOND

MILLER-HOFFMAN HOME WEDDING Following an Eastern Bridal Journey Couple Will Reside in Derry Street

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron M. Hoffman, of Dauphin, when their daughter, Olive Alma Hoffman, became the wife of Varnes Miller, of this city.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a traveling suit of chiffon broadcloth with hat to harmonize, and a corsage bouquet of sweet peas.

Progressive Supper For D. S. Society Members of the D. S. Society, of Central High School, held a progressive supper last evening starting with the bouillon served at the home of Miss Betty Brown.

HOME FROM SCHOOL Miss Katharine Beideman, of Mary Lyons School, will arrive home tomorrow to spend a few days with her parents, Lieutenant Governor-elect and Mrs. E. Beideman, of Evergreen and Market streets.

GUESTS HERE NEXT WEEK Mr. and Mrs. William Tyeck and Wallace Peters, of Guernsey; Charles S. and Mrs. Duncan, William Duncan, 24; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butt, of Gettysburg; Miss Lucy Seylor, of Reading, and Captain Albert Gastrock, of Washington, will be guests of the Misses Hunt and Constance Beideman, of 1209 Chestnut street during inauguration week.

ENTERTAINED FOR MRS. ELY Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McCreath entertained at their home, 619 North Front street, Tuesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. Carl B. Ely, of Washington, D. C.

Miss Susanna Fleming, of the Nurses' Training School, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md., is spending the weekend at her home, 107 South Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Neiffer, Rivers, left today for a visit of eight weeks in Philadelphia, New York City and Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Poole and daughters, Margaret and Roberta, of Erie, are spending the weekend with friends in Paxtang, on route to New York City.

Major Carl B. Ely has returned to Washington, D. C., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, 119 State street.

Miss Violet Oakley, who is in the city supervising the hanging of the paintings on the walls of the Senate chamber, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Elder Bailey, Front and South streets.

Mrs. Henry Lipsitt and son, Billy, have returned to Newport after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cohen, 39 South Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rogers, of Reading, are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, Riverside.

Mrs. W. D. Goodyear and Mrs. W. J. Fetter, of Carlisle, were guests of Mrs. William D. Block, of 130 Evergreen street.

Lieutenant Mrs. Herbert Price Hunt were guests of Mrs. John Wisler, of 323 South Thirteenth street, for a few days.

ENTERTAINED VETERANS OF THREE WARS Captain D. H. Swengel, of the Thirteenth Infantry, Visits Uncles Here

On Tuesday of this week there was a most enjoyable occasion at 75 North Eleventh street, this city. Captain Derbe Hooster Swengel, of the Thirteenth U. S. Infantry, stopped in the city to visit his uncles, Bishop U. F. and the Rev. A. W. Swengel.

Other guests at the table were A. T. Buck, of Union Hill, N. J., and his wife, Mrs. U. F. Swengel; Miss Ada C. Swengel, Miss Hope Swengel and Mrs. M. A. Buck, widow of a veteran of the Civil War.

War Relief Meeting Held Yesterday The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad Women's Division for War Relief, Department No. 7, was held yesterday afternoon in the Red Cross rooms, Fager school building.

Argus Staff Meets With Louis Rimer The Argus staff of Central High school last evening at the home of the business manager, Louis Rimer, 227 Penn street.

Camp Fire Girls Hike to Paxtang The Rowland-Camp Fire Girls hiked along Paxtang road Monday afternoon, after marching some distance they built a fire at the foot of a hill, by the side of a small stream.

Olivet Sunday Schools to Unite For Service William F. Boyer, until lately in war service at Camp Lee, Va., where he was styled the "Farmer Barton", will sing in Olivet Sunday school on Sunday.

ENTERTAINED FOR MRS. ELY Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McCreath entertained at their home, 619 North Front street, Tuesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. Carl B. Ely, of Washington, D. C.

Miss Susanna Fleming, of the Nurses' Training School, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md., is spending the weekend at her home, 107 South Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Neiffer, Rivers, left today for a visit of eight weeks in Philadelphia, New York City and Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Poole and daughters, Margaret and Roberta, of Erie, are spending the weekend with friends in Paxtang, on route to New York City.

Major Carl B. Ely has returned to Washington, D. C., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, 119 State street.

Miss Violet Oakley, who is in the city supervising the hanging of the paintings on the walls of the Senate chamber, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Elder Bailey, Front and South streets.

Mrs. Henry Lipsitt and son, Billy, have returned to Newport after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cohen, 39 South Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rogers, of Reading, are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, Riverside.

Mrs. W. D. Goodyear and Mrs. W. J. Fetter, of Carlisle, were guests of Mrs. William D. Block, of 130 Evergreen street.

Lieutenant Mrs. Herbert Price Hunt were guests of Mrs. John Wisler, of 323 South Thirteenth street, for a few days.

DANCE TO BE ON PATRIOTIC DATE University Club Is Giving Another Party With Washington Birthday Suggestions

The University Club has already begun plans for its second big dance, to be held on the evening of February 21, with suggestions of Washington's Birthday in decorations, music and refreshments.

Other guests at the table were A. T. Buck, of Union Hill, N. J., and his wife, Mrs. U. F. Swengel; Miss Ada C. Swengel, Miss Hope Swengel and Mrs. M. A. Buck, widow of a veteran of the Civil War.

Mrs. Thora Doeckle entertained at her home in Wormleysburg, Tuesday evening, some 25 guests, including Mrs. Doeckle, of the Ambulance Corps, Train, and Corporal Edward A. Twigg, of the Medical Corps.

Argus Staff Meets With Louis Rimer The Argus staff of Central High school last evening at the home of the business manager, Louis Rimer, 227 Penn street.

Camp Fire Girls Hike to Paxtang The Rowland-Camp Fire Girls hiked along Paxtang road Monday afternoon, after marching some distance they built a fire at the foot of a hill, by the side of a small stream.

Olivet Sunday Schools to Unite For Service William F. Boyer, until lately in war service at Camp Lee, Va., where he was styled the "Farmer Barton", will sing in Olivet Sunday school on Sunday.

ENTERTAINED FOR MRS. ELY Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McCreath entertained at their home, 619 North Front street, Tuesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. Carl B. Ely, of Washington, D. C.

Miss Susanna Fleming, of the Nurses' Training School, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md., is spending the weekend at her home, 107 South Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Neiffer, Rivers, left today for a visit of eight weeks in Philadelphia, New York City and Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Poole and daughters, Margaret and Roberta, of Erie, are spending the weekend with friends in Paxtang, on route to New York City.

Major Carl B. Ely has returned to Washington, D. C., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, 119 State street.

Miss Violet Oakley, who is in the city supervising the hanging of the paintings on the walls of the Senate chamber, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Elder Bailey, Front and South streets.

Mrs. Henry Lipsitt and son, Billy, have returned to Newport after spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cohen, 39 South Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rogers, of Reading, are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, Riverside.

Mrs. W. D. Goodyear and Mrs. W. J. Fetter, of Carlisle, were guests of Mrs. William D. Block, of 130 Evergreen street.

Lieutenant Mrs. Herbert Price Hunt were guests of Mrs. John Wisler, of 323 South Thirteenth street, for a few days.

"HUSKY" CANINE SAVES YANKS IN KADISH AMBUSH Americans See White Dog With Soviets; Withdraw in Darkness

American troops continued to be revealed as American troops search the vast warehouse area in Coblenz and vicinity. Officers to-day found more than 150 guns of .77 caliber and leather worth half a million dollars.

One afternoon a sentinel of the rear guard, who had participated in previous engagements, during which a white "husky" dog appeared with the Bolshevik forces, saw the dog in the woods.

His warning, followed by a bit of scouting, led to the discovery that the Bolsheviks were moving through the swamps to cut off the Americans in the rear at the Petrograd road.

Hardships For Troops The original crossing of the Emsa river, in the direction of the town, was attempted three times by the Americans, with considerable losses, before it was finally accomplished.

S. S. Teen-Age Department Gives Social Tonight The teen-age department of Grace Methodist Sunday school is holding an entertainment this evening in the social rooms of the church.

Poles Take Lithuania From Soviets' Clutches London, Jan. 15.—The Polish government has provisionally taken over the administration of Lithuania to protect the country from the Bolsheviks, according to a telegram from Warsaw to-day.

SAUERKRAUT DINNER IS POSTPONED FOR WEEK Despite the fact that forty quarts of sauerkraut and a great quantity of the "fixings" had been ordered for the dinner, it was postponed for a week.

GUESTS OF MISS STRAUB Miss Alice M. Straub, of 1333 Susquehanna street, gave a little evening party in honor of Mrs. W. A. Wallower, of Pittsburgh, a former Harrisburger.

MISS HELEN LEIB HONOR GUEST Helen Leib, whose marriage to John McCandless, of Pittsburgh, will be an event of the near future, was guest of honor at the party given last evening at the Penn-Harris, by the executive staff of the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Red Cross.

LIEUT. MILLER ON FURLOUGH Lieutenant Richard Miller, who has been spending ten days at his home, 2321 North Third street, has returned to Pittsburgh, where he is receiving treatment at one of the hospitals for convalescent soldiers.

ELECTED PRESIDENT James W. Kellogg, chief chemist of the State Department of Agriculture and president of the National Seed Control officials in Pittsburgh this week and was elected President of the association.

GUESTS OF MRS. JAMES DURBIN Miss Helen Durbin, who is a student at the School of Musical Arts, New York City, is the guest of Mrs. James C. Durbin, North Sixth street.

Mrs. James W. Kellogg, of 900 North Sixteenth street, is home after a little trip to Florida.

PENN-HARRIS HOTEL GRILL To-day the Penn-Harris grill was thrown open to the patrons from noon to twelve midnight.

Moose Minstrels, Orpheum Theatre, night of January 23, 1919, advertisement.

AMERICANS FIND HUN WAR SINEWS AROUND COBLENZ Come Upon 150 Good Guns and Leather Worth Half Million Dollars

American troops continued to be revealed as American troops search the vast warehouse area in Coblenz and vicinity. Officers to-day found more than 150 guns of .77 caliber and leather worth half a million dollars.

One afternoon a sentinel of the rear guard, who had participated in previous engagements, during which a white "husky" dog appeared with the Bolshevik forces, saw the dog in the woods.

His warning, followed by a bit of scouting, led to the discovery that the Bolsheviks were moving through the swamps to cut off the Americans in the rear at the Petrograd road.

Hardships For Troops The original crossing of the Emsa river, in the direction of the town, was attempted three times by the Americans, with considerable losses, before it was finally accomplished.

S. S. Teen-Age Department Gives Social Tonight The teen-age department of Grace Methodist Sunday school is holding an entertainment this evening in the social rooms of the church.

Poles Take Lithuania From Soviets' Clutches London, Jan. 15.—The Polish government has provisionally taken over the administration of Lithuania to protect the country from the Bolsheviks, according to a telegram from Warsaw to-day.

SAUERKRAUT DINNER IS POSTPONED FOR WEEK Despite the fact that forty quarts of sauerkraut and a great quantity of the "fixings" had been ordered for the dinner, it was postponed for a week.

GUESTS OF MISS STRAUB Miss Alice M. Straub, of 1333 Susquehanna street, gave a little evening party in honor of Mrs. W. A. Wallower, of Pittsburgh, a former Harrisburger.

MISS HELEN LEIB HONOR GUEST Helen Leib, whose marriage to John McCandless, of Pittsburgh, will be an event of the near future, was guest of honor at the party given last evening at the Penn-Harris, by the executive staff of the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Red Cross.

LIEUT. MILLER ON FURLOUGH Lieutenant Richard Miller, who has been spending ten days at his home, 2321 North Third street, has returned to Pittsburgh, where he is receiving treatment at one of the hospitals for convalescent soldiers.

ELECTED PRESIDENT James W. Kellogg, chief chemist of the State Department of Agriculture and president of the National Seed Control officials in Pittsburgh this week and was elected President of the association.

GUESTS OF MRS. JAMES DURBIN Miss Helen Durbin, who is a student at the School of Musical Arts, New York City, is the guest of Mrs. James C. Durbin, North Sixth street.

Mrs. James W. Kellogg, of 900 North Sixteenth street, is home after a little trip to Florida.

PENN-HARRIS HOTEL GRILL To-day the Penn-Harris grill was thrown open to the patrons from noon to twelve midnight.

Moose Minstrels, Orpheum Theatre, night of January 23, 1919, advertisement.

Suffs Cable President to Spur Party Leaders For Vote on the Issue

The last of the series of addresses on "Mormonism" in this city for both men and women will occur this evening at 7:45, at the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Shepard Will Speak in City Two Evenings The last of the series of addresses on "Mormonism" in this city for both men and women will occur this evening at 7:45, at the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

FUNERAL FLOWERS SPECIAL Beautiful Spray, $3.00 Keeney's Flower Shops

ANNOUNCEMENT TO LADIES! M. Mall, the Ladies' Tailor, will resume tailoring at his residence at 1213 Green St. I especially solicit my former patrons.

The Philadelphia Eysight 10 DAY SPECIAL Commencing Thursday, January 9th, and ending Saturday, January 18th, this exceptional offer:

Our scientific eye examination, first quality spherical lenses and a guaranteed frame all complete at low as $2.00

Large shell rim glasses; best quality lenses, special during this sale $5.00

In our examination we use the most modern methods known to optical science and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

Office hours: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. The Philadelphia Eysight Specialists

Over Wm. Strouse Store, Phila. Office, 1547 W. Passyunk Av. Harrisburg, Pa. 310 Market St.

Buying Ice Cream is an Every Day Occurrence--- BUYING Hershey's SUPERIOR ICE CREAM is using good judgment Ice Cream is the great American refreshment-food. Every person should eat plenty of ice cream. The time is long past when ice cream was considered a summer delicacy. Ice Cream today is the all-year-round food that nourishes and refreshes. The ice cream industry has grown to large proportions in the past ten years. With the growth of the business large establishments have sprung up all over the land. Some of them are successful, some not quite so progressive, while still others have come to be numbered among the largest in the community. Those that have succeeded in gaining wide patronage are those who have striven to please the public's taste and at the same time to give the public the quality that should be in good ice cream. Hershey Creamery Company's plant is conceded to be the finest in the state. Every piece of machinery that is modern is used in our establishment. Every modern method is used in the making of Hershey's Superior Ice Cream. Our Ice Cream is made entirely by sanitary machinery—no hands touch the product from the beginning to the end of the process. Hershey's Superior Ice Cream is pure, high in quality, distinctively delicious. Real fruits are used for fruit flavors—not extracts. Sold by all dealers who want to give their patrons the best. HERSHEY CREAMERY COMPANY 401 South Cameron Street