By Associated Press
New York, Jan. 15.—Tribute to the memory of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was paid by members of the National Boot and Shoe Manufacturers' Association at the banquet held here last night in connection with their annual convention. All stood in silence for thirty seconds out of respect to "our great departed American of Americans."
Bishop Charles D. Williams, of Detroit, suggested that Thanksgiving Day be celebrated in the future on November 11, to recall the signing of the armistice.
The association elected J. Frank McElwain, New York, president. Other officers chosen included: Vice-presidents, L. H. Downs, Haverhill, Mass.; treasurer, Herbert P. Gleason, Newark; delegate to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Aaron S. Kreider, Anne, Pa.

HENEY PUTS BLAME FOR MEAT PROFITS ON SWIFT AND CO.

Says Head of Food Administration's Meat Division Told Him 1917 Profits Were Scandalous; Testifies Swift & Co.'s "Dollar-a-Year" Men Backed Organization

Washington, Jan. 15.—Francis J. Heney, of San Francisco, who was chief counsel for the Federal Trade Commission in its investigation of the meat packing industry, told the Senate Agriculture Committee yesterday that Swift & Company "had packed" the food administration with "dollar a year men, who received large salaries from the company at the time they were serving the government."
Mr. Heney, who was appearing in support of the Kennick bill for government regulation of the meat industry, said Food Administrator Hoover sought to stop him from making public letters criticizing the administration of the industry, and that the food administrator declined to take such action.
Mr. Heney told the committee that other employees of Swift & Company who received salaries from the company while working with the food administration were E. O. Heyl, who had charge of fixing prices on canned goods; H. B. Collins and F. S. Brock. Heyl later resigned under fire, Heney said. Collins and Heyl, he asserted, received $10,000 a year from the company.
The witness said that Joseph P. Cotton, head of the food administration's meat division, was a man of "high integrity, but was unfit for the job of regulating the packers." Mr. Heney said Mr. Cotton had admitted to him that the profits of the packers in 1917 were "scandalous."
Swift & Company's profits year charge of fixing poultry prices for the food administration and that while so acting he received a regular salary from Swift & Company, with a percentage of the income of Priebe & Company. This company, Mr. Heney said, was owned by Swift & Company.

"To assist in the organization of local federations and to promote the aims of the Federal Council in their communities."

Rosenfeld told a detective he entered "Phoenix Lodge" with Lebaudy and was met by Lebaudy's brother, who had fed, fearing his life would be endangered by the "Emperor."

Bishop Heil Nearing Recovery, Is Report
Allentown, Pa., Jan. 15.—Bishop William F. Heil, of the United Evangelical Church, who was run down by a locomotive at the Lehigh Valley station in Allentown six weeks ago and who was thought to be fatally hurt, has recovered sufficiently to be able to walk at the Allentown Hospital. The saving of his life is regarded as little short of miraculous.
Bishop Heil is scheduled to preside at the twenty-fifth annual session of the East Penn Conference of the United Evangelical Church, to open the last week in February in Bethany Church, Allentown. Should he not be able to bear the strain the chair will be taken by Bishop Mays of Iowa.
Bishop Heil is chief of the conference of the United Evangelical Church who have been discussing reunion with the original Evangelical association, and should he not be strong enough to participate in the conference proceedings there might be a delay in the advancement of the question.
The East Penn Conference includes the territory of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Reading, Harrisburg and Philadelphia, in all of which Bishop Heil is one of the foremost prelates of his church, and of his ultimate recovery all its members can feel assured.
