ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR THE PARADE

Scouts to Play a Prominent Part in Inaugural Ceremonies Next Tuesday

Harrisburg Scouts are to have a very prominent place in the inaugural ceremonies of the new government next Tuesday. We are NOT going to parade. First, we will not have 200 Scouts acting as an escort of honor to the gubernatorial party.

Second, fifty of the bigger Scouts are needed to act as ushers at the reviewing stand. If more than fifty report they will be used to assist the state police in handling the crowds at the Capitol.

INFLUENZA WARNING Bureau General. One of the public health service's main objects is to prevent the spread of influenza.

THE WIGWAM The Scout's Chance

The war is over. The foe is done for. The Hun is vanquished and peace is restored. But much suffering has been endured for the final results which this conflict has brought to us.

Making the Team

Fellows, as I write this, I am thinking about two football teams one representing a school in a small town and the other bearing the colors of a large city high school.

Now in the city high school there were a hundred candidates for the squad. Day after day they raced up and down the field, tackled the dummy, caught punts, fell on the ball and lined up in scrimmage.

NEW RULES FOR TROOP THIRTEEN

Public Organization Makes Interesting History

Troop Thirteen was first organized in the latter part of May, 1917. Since then the troop has been boosting itself until it ranks first among the troops of the city.

BURCHFIELD NEW TEAM CAPTAIN

Will Head Basketball Playes of Troop 8; Adopt New Constitution

At our meeting last Monday evening Scoutmaster Jenkins read the new constitution of the troop. It has many good points, and will be framed and hung in the Scout room.

Troop 4 Holds Good Meeting; Play Basketball

Troop No. 4 held an interesting meeting on Monday night. Scout Graeff was absent so we couldn't have the current events talk.
