BUSY WEEK FOR GRACE METHODIST

Dr. Bagnell Preaching Series of Interesting Sermons on Timely Subjects

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, State street near Third, was the scene of two most unusual and interesting sermons on January 5th and 12th by Dr. Robert Bagnell. Dr. Bagnell is preaching a series of sermons on four great subjects, and his mons on four great subjects, and his discussions of the first two have created a great deal of interest, and have helped clear up many a point in doubt. This Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, he will preach a sertification. mon on the topic, "If a man neglects Cumberland valley and a rah! rah! mon on the topic, "If a man neglects his chance of salvation here, will he get another chance?" This topic will be presented in a straightforward, togical manner, that will appeal to all, and it is anticipated that this sermon will be heard by the largest addience since the series were beginning the series were beginning to the societies of Dauphin countries.

all, and it is anticipated that this sermon will be heard by the largest audience since the series were begun.

In the morning, at 10.30 o'clock, Dr. Bagnell will preach a sermon on the topic, "The Gravest Charge Against the Church." This will be Dr. Bagnell's second sermon as preparatory to the Centenary movement, as it effects Grace Church.

The Sunday school will meet at 12.10 and the Teen-Age department will be under the control of its newly elected officers for the first time. These officers were elected at a most successful social, held Thursday evening, at 7.30 o'clock in the social room of Grace Church, and are as follows: President, Charles H. Crist; secretary, Mary Emma Fisher; absentee secretary, Emily E. Sites; treasurer, A. Daniel Bacon, Jr.; assistant secretary, Marion A. Hartwick; social secretary, Florence B. Burtnett.

TO TALK HERE

The evening subject is equally timely. The deathlow having been given to John Barleycorn it is time that the people who have been contending against his supremacy should come together to rejoice. This week is one of the greatest weeks in the history of America. Enough states have voted to write prohibition in the Federal Constitution. Certainly this "satan" will be convicted in write all workers who have labored long to bring about this day. I would like to see present all the women and fittle children of Harrisburg, who are going to enter a brighter future. I would like to have every-enslaved man who is at liberty with the strain of the first Eaptist Church, the Rev. William J. Lockhart, pastor, was held this week.
