FAREWELL TO DR. BRUMBAUGH

Attaches of State Government Say Goodby to Governor at His Offices

Officials and attaches of the State government bade formal farewell to Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh at the executive department last night...

During the evening Mrs. Brumbaugh also said farewell to the wives and families of state officials at the department.

The Governor remained at his office until a late hour, shaking hands with the officials and attaches and chatting with a number of personal friends among the legislators and visitors.

Dr. and Mrs. Brumbaugh spent the night at the Penn-Harris and this afternoon start for Pinehurst, N. C. William H. Hall, the private secretary for the last three years, goes to Philadelphia, where he will engage in the real estate business.

Will Meet Tomorrow—The State Board of Agriculture and various other agricultural bodies will begin their formal sessions tomorrow. The State Commission of Agriculture will meet late today.

New Secretary Busy—Prof. Frederick Rasmussen, the new secretary of agriculture, spent yesterday and today going over the details of the department. He will probably commence to outline new work and to speed up activities very promptly.

Captain Godcharles Home—Captain Godcharles, deputy secretary of the commonwealth, who is on leave for army service, is here for the inaugural. He is the holder of the very fortunate position of small arms instructor on the staff of General Leonard Wood.

Ex-Members Visit—Ex-Representatives Ringer and Thompson, Blair, Siggins, Warren, and Kitts and Buvee, Erie, were legislative visitors.

Considering Rates.—The Public Service Commission is giving consideration to the recently advanced telephone rates, it was stated at the office of the Commission to-day, but no decision has been reached as to what action will be taken.

Dozen Decisions.—The State Compensation Board to-day announced decisions in a dozen cases. A new hearing was ordered in Hart vs. State Insurance Fund, Williamsport.

The Latest Vesting.—Governor Brumbaugh last night said that he could not be paid to write a history of Pennsylvania and that all the War Board ever intended him to do was to compile records of Pennsylvania soldiers. When the Governor announced the creation of the War Service Board he said that he had been chosen director and that he would "write the story of what Pennsylvania did in the war."

Murderer Receives Life Sentence For Each of Two Crimes

Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 21.—Charles Evans, of Springfield, Ill., 18 years old and a deserter from the Navy, who recently confessed to two murders, was sentenced here yesterday to life imprisonment for each crime, the two sentences to run concurrently. Evans killed a man who resisted him during a robbery, and later killed a policeman who tried to arrest him. He received the court's sentence with a smile, and remarked that he would be a "model prisoner."

Railroad Men Get Pay Checks With No Banks to Cash Them

Altoona, Jan. 21.—The paying of 16,000 Pennsylvania Railroad employees for the first half of January started yesterday in Altoona without any arrangements having been made for the cashing of checks by the local banks which are standing pat on their decision not to advance the money. In consequence the employees must depend on merchants and hotelkeepers for the favor of having the checks exchanged for money and are likely to be seriously inconvenienced for the time being.

Royalists Revolt in Portugal, Is Report

London, Jan. 21.—A Royalist revolution has broken out in Portugal, according to a wireless dispatch from London. Palva Conceiro has placed himself at the head of a Royalist revolt at Oporto, Braga and Viseu and has proclaimed former King Manuel king of Portugal. Government troops are on their way to suppress the conspiracy. The wireless dispatch adds that former King Manuel has sent a telegram to the Portuguese government reproving the attempt in his behalf.

Falls While Kissing the Blarney Stone

London, Jan. 21.—Peter McGuire, some time of San Francisco, now of the United States Navy, imperiled his neck for the right to tell his admiring friends at home "I've kissed the Blarney Stone."

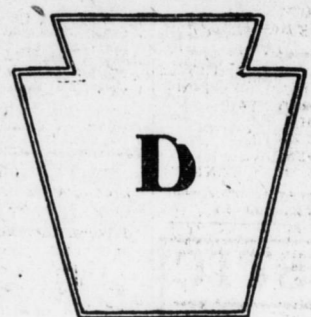

RESTORES OUSTED OFFICER.—Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—The War Department last night announced the reappointment of Captain Sam Bucklew, a National Army infantry officer dismissed from the army, after trial by court-martial, on charges involving the accounting for certain construction funds entrusted to him while he was on duty at Camp Funston, Kan.

LIBERATE TURKEYS.—Lykens, Pa., Jan. 21.—Seven wild turkeys were received from the state game commission to-day and placed on the state game preserve west of town. During recent months, quite a number of turkeys, pheasants and a number of deer have been released on the new preserve.
