TUESDAY EVENING,

HARRISBURG

- *-

Reading for Women and all the Family

A Series of Plain Talks to Parents. By Ray C. Beery, A.B., M.A.

MAKING THE MOST OF

OUR CHILDREN

why Dorothy, I'm of you, is that the way I ld you to act in company?" Well up sheepishly pens: some stranger wants to be friendly with the child and asks some questions. A perfectly natural reserve in a child, who has not spe-cifically been taught to answer ques-tions asked by strangers, will cause him to remain silent until the par-ent whom he trusts gives him some intimation that it is proper to ans-wer knuckle into her mouth and The mother has a lesson—an impressive

But a parent, not understanding his, often will do just the wrong hing and ask the child why he doesn't talk. This not only seems to center attention more denitely upon the child (a thing bad in it-self in this particular situation) but he question as to why the child one from which the bad alts will be hard to erase. happens that the very ents who do not seem to know results are the ones the question as to why the child doesn't talk suggests that he was ex-pected to talk at first and didn't; therefore, he takes it as fault-finducceed in making the most imssons of the wrong kind. Chan child training there is no ing. Let us now strike the course of the trouble. It is the fear in an adult that his actions or words or appearance will not meet with the meets the meets greater importance and, other important subjects, studied carefully by who have charge of children. performance with not meet with the proval of those whom he meets at causes him to feel ill-at-ease in e presence of other adults. And it is with the child. Any faultmother writes to me: What can I do to get my daughter to answer ques-at people ask her? I someit is with the child. Any fault-nding when in front of others is de-hat people as have of her and feel so ashamed of her and the methods I have tried have er no good. In fact, she seems good. In fact, she seems ard now than ever." others no doubt have daughter to be backway it usually hap

How To Make a

The child looks

ns her back.

Gray Hair Remedy

Mrs. Mackie, the well known New a grandmother still dark, rehair can your child seems slow to ans-take the attention more away him instead of putting more ed black, brown er shade you on as is so often done of the following question for the that you can make at way using change the subject. a small box of Orlex change the subject. If you want to get a response from a child, ask about some concrete action or thing which in itself is in-teresting to him. For example, ask a boy something about his new airdrug store. It costs o extras to buy. Disand comb it through ull directions for mixing ill directions for mixing a boy something about his new air-e in each box. One box for months. ; it does not rub off, is just a natural interest in the re-greasy, and leaves the sponse and change the subject. It will make a gray on look many years seted and she gradually will show an improvement

"When a Girl Marries" BY ANN LISLE A New, Romantic Serial Dealing With the Absorbing

Problems of a Girl Wife

"Pat lunches here almost every day -shall you mind if he walks in on is?" asked Carlotta Sturges, wav-ng the waiter aside to serve our hicken Clinsarge and artichoke. "Is that why you brought me here -to see how I'd take a meeting with my—brother-in-law?" I asked, won-tering if Carlotta meant it confide "The set of the set of th ng the waiter aside to serve our chicken Clinsarge and artichoke.

"Is that why you brought me here -to see how I'd take a meeting with my-brother-in-law?" I asked, won-dering if Carlotta meant to confide When a child has one experience a given situation that is painful unpleasant, he wants to avoid a milar situation in the future. The ore often he has unpleasant ex-priences, the more inclined will he to sidestep the situations that use them. in me after all.

table and put her hand over mine. "Anne Harrison," she said, "I liked you from the first. And you stood by me at the canteen the other day. that we thoroughly under-

Now that we thoroughly under-stand the situation, we can easily see that the desired attitude of open-ness and self-confidence can be se-cured by managing to make the meeting of people a pleasant experi-ence. Instead of finding fault, ap-prove your child about something. All children like approval and they like the situations in which they are approved. You're a thoroughbred. And if I can do anything for you-why, name But in the meantime I want you I replied earnestly to Answer the child in a naive and then quickly to when you put it that way, ed unwillingly. Iow else can I put it?" cried lotta, her eyes bright with tri-h or some other even more stimumph or some other even more stim-ulating feeling. "Pat Dalton and Virginia are mar-ried. They're separated-that's true But perhaps they'll find each other again. I think marriage is a-permanent thing-not just what the minister has said, but how people have felt. That ought to be-sacred."

Carlotta narrowed her eyes and of women.

"That's it," I agreed gravely, won-dering how she would take it ally in search of it, in each other

She sat quite still and motionless for a moment, staring ahead of her with sphinx eyes. Then a glitter of mischief came into them, and she turned to me almost saucily.

turned to me almost saucily. "I warned you-but you didn't hurry. Here comes Pat now. And guess who's with him?" But before I could guess, a voice of greeting sounded over my shoulder: "Hel-io, Lady Tenant! So you've found the best restaurant in town. Patrick Kerence O'Maragh Dalton and I drop in for a bite now and again-and to-day I think we've found fine company-unless you object to Dal-ton." us that many women believe they can only obtain success, happiness love, in proportion as they are beau tiful.

the field.

A frivolo knows that she is classified as a ton." His volce was so u.r.uffled-so as-sured-that only by affronting Pat could I hope to rid myself of Tom Mason's unwelcome company. So all in the next minute our ta-ble was stretched to accommodate four-and the men ordered cocktails, in which Carlotta almost defiantly joined them. "This is a cosy little foursome," "pretty girl" believes she has her equipment for life. The poor child s encouraged to think that by merely exploiting her piquant profile or her pink complexion she can secure her share of the world's gifts with.

in the multitude about them.

talk of beauty is on their lips.

The beauty-cult has so obsesse joined them. "This is a cosy little foursome," Tom Mason declared jovially after his second drink. "Suppose you girls fool round over your sweets a bit, and then we'll take you to a matinee or for a spin up the road in Pat's little new car." out taking very much trouble to the new car." Carlotta beamed and clapped he that'll be jolly-we'll g ad and have a dance and d I promise to make the tea too, Anne." teed-as much at her int pretty poor thing, scarcely worth uldrit." "Why not?" asked Pat, a little belli-rent. "You were happy enough I came—is it me you're after ob-ting to, Mrs. Jimmie?" "Oh, no—you know it isn't that, i, didrit I have tea with you?" I ed unguardedly, stupidly—and re-teted on the very period to my rd that I hadn't bitten my tongue t when I began the sentence. "Tom and you—Pat and I. I chap-ne you, you chaperone me," laugh-Carlotta.

"Tom and you-Pat and I. I chap-rone you, you chaperone me," laugh-l Carlotta. Tom Mason leaned forward, inclin-ing his body toward me in the lit-e intimate way he has of seem-ing to shut off the world and make a place with room in it for only is two of us. "A chaperone." he chuckled. "A isperone! But you can take tea one with this scamp of a Pat be isperone! That's more than yd a taperone! I that's more than yd a eity ti sc, ang into the Od Hand-u when I stopped there for a cock-il before I met Pat." Carlotta snickered. "There's something sacred about aperone me-I chaperone you ---id we beat the boys at their own me."

BEATRICE FAIRFAX superstition in regard to beauty, but who has something elses abroad in the world, I that counts, often far outdistance beauty is abroad in the world, I mean the beauty of human beings.

And, above all, of course, the beauty Beauty in women greatly praised that we have come o overvalue it. Women themselves believe it to be of great and serious importance. Their eyes are continu-

LITTLE TALKS BY

is, on the substance of illusion. Look carefully and understand-ingly about the world, you girls who believe yourselves cursed by straight, thin hair or by dull com-plexions or irregular features. Stop listening to those too often repeated tales of the supremacy of beauty and the tragedy of ugliness and see what the facts are. The And when there's no trace of beauty whatever, superstition and panic take

Is He Fascinated? Dear Miss Fairfax: I am very much in love "You'll get a great deal of en-couragement from your investiga-tion and a truer idea of the really important things. Perhaps you'll even come to the conclusion that beauty aloneline and color—doesn't attract very forcibly af.er all unless it's joined with something else. Cold, passive loveliness is sometimes let rather severely alone. Perhaps you'll find that the beau-tiful women who are powerful, either in promoting happiness or creating havec have something else after all besides radiant smiles and shining exce out taking very much trouble to develop any qualities she may have of mind or character. While the girl who is frankly without a trace of beauty under-stands even from a child that she is almost unconquerably handi-capped. She finds the whole world patiently, stupidly believing that a woman must be beautiful to be loved, and that without love life is a pretty poor thing, scarcely worth manner. Large Natures Attract Or

Or perhaps it's something ver much better than this. Perhaps it' the influence that's exhaled by Itving If a girl who has had this sort of training becomes melancholy, des-perate, without courage, who can blame her? There's deep suffering involved in believing that because one was born with a certain kind of face one is forever an outcast irom all the joy and shining reality of life. And it's a kind of suffer-now, as I suppose it has been al-ways. Heartbreaking letters come to me from the victims of it. Girls who have not beauty and who know they haven't, and who weep through long wakeful nights because they lack the one precious thing that the; believe all women are bound to display up-on the highway of the world. Girls who cry but for some shred of com-fort for their blank comfortlessness. It's all a silly superstition, and a suffering that it causes. That beautify is powerful cannot be denied. But there are other forces in the world than beauty. A beautiful woman, sometimes seems a supremely conquering crea. ture. Yet sometimes she has less influence on the current of life about her than a drawing that hangs on the wall. Or perhaps it's something very much better than this. Perhaps it's something very much better than the the very and the world than beauty. A beautiful woman sometimes seems a supremely conquering crea. ture. Yet sometimes that hangs on the wall. Or perhaps it's sometime and the super-tion the trans the super-tion the beat you can of any "good points" you have done that, try net to give If a girl who has had this sort of

"good points" you have,

Advice to the Lovelorn How Long Shall She Wait?

ar Miss Fairfax: Isn't this young lady something of a coquette? Still she is right in I am a girl of twenty and care fo young man. He has asked me to maintaining that love and fascinat-tion are not the same. One of the, ait two and a half years for our marriage, which I think is too long. differences between them is fascination is transient. So Plea advise me what to do wait six months, you can surely tell whether your feeling is really love or not.

that counts, because they don't ber exterior. Don't let anyone persuade you that the unbeautiful woman never triumphs in life and love. She tri depend on light and shadow—that is les on the substance of illusion. U Look carefully and understand-ingly about the world, you girls bellave yourselves cursed by the bulk is on the substance of illusion. Lettave yourselves cursed by the bulk is out thoroughly and is the substance of illusion. The by dull constances can profitably advise you in this matter. The best way you in this matter. The best way self and arrive together at an agree the dull of the substance? CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Dan-derine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a small bottle of Danderine at any drug store for a few cents and save your hair. After several applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or inny falling hair, and the scalp will, never itch.

young lady who says that I am merely fascinated. Kindly explain the difference between love and fas-cination. I think of her all day

that you tell

So if

But Carlotta only leaned across the er earnestness.

r carnestness. Well, now, it's this: Do you see, y harm in my being friends with t Dalton? He's married, I know, t he isn't living with his wife. w, I don't see why he should be t off from friends and companions nile he's trying to find out what

The above diagram shows the distribution of the average Swift dollar received from sales of beef, pork and mutton, and their by-products, during 1918.

> 1919 Year Book of interesting and instructive facts sent on request. Address Swift & Company Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois

Swift & Company, U.S.A.

Harrisburg Local Branch, Seventh & North Streets F. W. Covert, Manager

Trose, with sudden resolution that brought the men to their fest. "Didn't I tell you when we met that I'd an engagement?" I asked, ly-ing by implication even while I stay-ed just within the truth. "Well. Tm on my way to see Virginia. This was a 'delicious luncheon. I hope my Jimmie and his little secretary fared half as well—they're so busy they have to work even at mealtime." "You're on your way to see Jeanie?" murmured Pat Dalton, hold-ing my hand in his as if he meant never to let it go. Then he flung it from him—and turned to the others: "Well, that needn't keep us from spinning up the road—need it?" But he didn't offer to take me to my destination in the new car. (To be continued.) "good points" you have, and after you have done that, try not to give any more thought to that over-dis-cussed subject of beauty. If you have real interests and real friends, and health and energy, you have the essentials for a happy life. Don't give up all the fun you'll have in living it just because you're self-consciously and superstitiously aware that your nose isn't straight. Flannel negligee shirts--the wall L As to Beauty's Rival And most interesting of all, the woman who is frankly devoid of Dress gloves, auto gloves, white dress gloves---Daily Dot Puzzle 34 35 ... 36 Collars, umbrellas and walking sticks---33. EVEN CROSS. SICK (0) .37 CHILDREN LOVE 39 The entire stock is being removed to SYRUP OF FIGS 38 Kaufman's store and will be ready shortly SIMPLE WAY TO •41 Look at tongue! If feverish, for the big sale-which will afford the men TAKE OFF FAT 12. bilious, constipated. of this town an opportunity to stock up at take no chances. •42 can be nothing simpler convenient little table prices for high class furnishings which will a convenient i ach day until to normal •13 ig a convenient little tablet four s each day until your weight is ed to normal. That's all-just inse a case of Marmola Prescrip-Tablets from your druggist (on u prefer, send 76c to Marmola 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit s, no exercise. Eat what you me be as lazy as you like and on getting silmmer. And the part of Marmola Prescription ets is their harmlessness. That uur absolute safeguard. "California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, -43 meet their fondest dreams. .14 liver, bowels. Watch for the date---17 •44 Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. Wait for the Sale and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigeston, di-arrhoea, give a tenspoonful of "Cali-fornia Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can' rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and swet. 23 25 •22 ALL VICTIMS OF •24 ECZEMA'S ITCH •54 47 .53 NEED POSLAM لحرالح الحرالحرالحرالع العرال OVE make their little 'insides' clean and sweet. Keep it handy, Mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bothe of "Call-fornia Syrup of Figs," which has directions for bables, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other is syrup. acconditional and a conditional and a conditiona signth-omes as he sore ag pow-should So ef-rashes, a little ity that School of Commerce everywhere. For free sample o Emergency Laboratories, 243 7th St., New York City. your skin to become fresher, better by the dataly use of