

HEINIE KOHLMAN BEST TECH MAN IN LEAGUE; HARRISBURG IS SLACKER IN SWIMMING

Shame That Harrisburg Has No Great Swimmers

SNOODLES :-:

By Hungerford

The fact that the City Council of Harrisburg takes no interest in developing our water front; have no thought for the thousands of children who would be bathing in the Squinchanna is responsible for Harrisburg's blank space in the swimming sport. It seems a great pity that a river sport cannot be developed here, days when Harrisburg would be a champion swimmer, and would have a number of short distance swimmers who were well known all over the country. As for the men, we have none, and so the women of the A. U. swimmers, given out last night by Secretary Frederick W. Ruben, have the concern for the youth of this city who may as well conserve their enthusiasm for another decade; see that no provision is being made for swimming, however, here is the program:

February 19—50-yard, free style, 200-yard, breast stroke, Chicago Athletic Association, Chicago.
February 21—100 yards, free style, Pittsburgh Athletic Association, Pittsburgh.
March 8—100 yards, free style, for Philadelphia, Truro, Philadelphia.
March 26—Plunge for distance, 100 yards, Philadelphia.
March 29—220 yards, free style, 150 yards, back stroke, Detroit Athletic Club, Detroit.
August 16—Long distance swim in Lawrence River, auspices of Riverton Athletic Club, Riverton.
September 1—80 yards, United Lake League, Pittsburgh.

Swimming enjoyed a banner year in 1918, despite the war. The increased popularity was noticeable in the big fields for important events, and the absence of many watermen engaged in war activities; the crowded and constructive work was accomplished. The introduction of competitive aquatics, the social and athletic interest in the game, and the addition to the ranks of school and club teams organized during the year.

Best performance in the men's field one finds it difficult to establish a comparison of any kind, owing to the many brilliant feats accomplished under differing conditions and the failure of most of the leaders to try consecutive events. Kohlanok, however, displayed the fastest century chronicle, 53 4-5 seconds straightaway, and shattered a number of short distance marks, so is fully entitled to chief sprinting laurels.

Perry McMillan, of Great Lakes, and Norman Ross, of Rockwell Field, did the best work at the middle distance, the former thrashing a sensational furlough, straightaway, in 2 minutes, 21 1-5 seconds, the latter thrashing to pieces old time figures from 200 to 500 yards, when he covered the full distance in the amazing time of 5 minutes 53 2-5 seconds in a 60-foot tank.

Long-Distance Star
At the longer classic courses William Wallen of Great Lakes, topped himself peer, for he captured National titles at 880 yards, and one mile, and covered the half in the world's record time of 11 minutes, 27 seconds. Harold Kruger, of Honolulu, is now a ready-made Philadelphia proved the most successful backstroke swimmer, setting world's records of 1 minute, 3-15 seconds for 100 yards and 8 minutes, 28 seconds for 440 yards, besides hanging up several other records in between.

Among the fair contestants the question of leadership was more clean cut than at all other events, showing supremacy of Miss Olga Dorfner of Philadelphia, who officially swam 220 yards in 2 minutes 56 3-5 seconds, both international pool marks. This was a record for the longest distance, and she was followed by Miss Eleanor Smith of Philadelphia, who swam 200 yards in 2 minutes, 18 seconds, and 200 yards at the latter in 2-20 and 1-15 seconds, respectively, 3 minutes, 16 4-5 seconds, clipping from the old records.

Kohlman of Tech Is Leading Scorer in the Basketball League

Reading Team Is Second in Standing and Has Whole Line of Stars Who Will Give Stiff Battle All Season

Records for all contests played in the Central Pennsylvania Basketball League, inclusive of last Friday night, show that "Henrie" Kohlman, the sophomore guard of the Technical High School quintet, takes the lead as the highest individual scorer per game in the league. Against Allentown last Friday night, Kohlman tallied five field goals and ten fouls while he was in the lineup. Coach Miller is using nine players in each of the contests, and as long as this is done Tech will not be among the very highest leaders, as most of the team plays but one-half. Picking a Tech quintet is a hard matter, as the nine players are about of equal caliber.

Friedman, the veteran Reading center, tops the list in the matter of field goals with a total of twenty for the three games in which he has participated. Nyquist, of Reading, has hit the net twenty-one times

PHILLIES TRADE MILTON STOCK

Manager Coombs Cleans Decks and Starts to Pick Training Quarters

Third Baseman Milton Stock, Catcher "Pickles" Dilhoefer and Pitcher "Dixie" Davis are Phillies no longer. Manager Jack Coombs last night announced that his first move toward building up the 1919 Phils consisted of trading these three players to the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for this Baseman, Douglas Baird, Pitcher Gene Packard and Stewart, a young infielder.

By all tokens Philadelphia is going to have a lively National League club, but, of course, one swallow does not make a summer. Announcing they would train at home, some one touched the button and now they are going south to get in condition. Jack Coombs, who is a banker down in Texas, showed speed in starting, but Philadelphia writers think St. Louis got an edge on the deal.

It almost resolves into a swapping of two corking good third basemen, Stock is a fine thinker, consistent and a hard worker on the whole team, as well as a dangerous batsman at any and all times. Baird is a classy fielder and looks like a "comer."

Davis came to the Phils last year under a rub of "Little" Watson, during the training trip he contracted pneumonia and it was not until late in the season that he was able to return to mound duty. His main job was to catch games for "Little" Watson but he appeared to have a fair amount of "stuff."

Packard has been an "in-and-out-er." He was up with Cincinnati in 1912, but slipped back to the minors in 1913 and later came up for a chance with the Cubs, after which he drifted to the Cards. However, the Phillies have been in sad need of a portside hillman for several years, and even with Rixey back, Packard will probably come in handy.

So far as Dilhoefer is concerned, he still had a lot to show to earn a regular berth. Evidently the whole deal hinges on combining Coombs and Phils to show. It is obvious that a catcher will have to be dug up somewhere, for Jack Adams is about dead, Burns has a good enough head, but the pegging work is done by neither one of them can bat horses through a smoke screen.

Stuart has yet to show. Nobody ever heard of him, least of all Coombs and Baker, unless they have an inside line on his ability.

Coombs left for Dixie to-day to find a training spot. The Phillies will meet the Athletics in a five-game series, beginning April 16.

AROUND THE BASES

LOWERS GOLF RECORD
Pinchurst, N. C., Jan. 22.—J. N. Stearns, 3d, of the Nassau Country Club, who set a new low mark for the season on the championship course a few days ago with a 73, clipped a stroke of that figure in a match round yesterday. Stearns went out in 38 and came home in 4-3-4-5-6-3-4-3-3-3 for a 722.

Says Frank Erne: "I like Leonard's style in the ring. He is a corking general and doesn't waste any strength when that right goes across. Leonard fights almost the same as a few days ago with a 73, clipped a stroke of that figure in a match round yesterday. Stearns went out in 38 and came home in 4-3-4-5-6-3-4-3-3-3 for a 722.

WILLS HIS ESTATE INTACT "AS LONG AS GRASS GROWS"

Richmond, Va., Jan. 22.—The will of Hugh W. Titman it is provided that his estate is to remain intact "as long as grass grows and water flows." The will was probated here yesterday. County officials are to-day of the opinion that the estate, therefore, will remain just as it is until the end of time.

Titman is estimated to have been worth several hundred thousand dollars. He was an extensive real estate owner in Bloomsburg and Shenandoah and owned three powder plants, all of which have done an active business during recent years. The will provides that his wife and children receive the income of the estate as long as they live and that upon their deaths the income is to be equally divided among the Bloomsburg Hospital, the First Methodist Church of Bloomsburg, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church of Bloomsburg, and the First Methodist Church of Shenandoah, conditioned upon their using one-fourth of the amount each institution receives for outdoor charity work.

King Row Bouts at Motive Power Show

The Motive Power boxing show which takes place next Tuesday evening promises to be a whirlwind. Lancaster enthusiasts are offering big odds on their man, and predict that he will put Sammy Schiff out of commission in jig-time. Schiff is not excited, he says, and by way of getting in shape for this fray he fights the semiwindup on Saturday night with Joe Kiplitz at the National in Philly.

Larry Hanson is in trim, too, beating Artie O'Leary on Monday night at Philadelphia and again to-night meeting Leo Johnson at Binghamton. Hanson is in the king row now, having hooked up with the best of them, George Cheney, Johnny Kibane and Matty Brock. He will meet a real boxer in Eddie Dundee, however, for Dundee has never been knocked off his feet.

Don't Waste Coal just to get the Bathroom Extra-Warm

You do like it extra-warm for a bath. Surely. But isn't it wasteful to fire up the furnace just to get that one room warmer than the rest of the house? For such occasions and any occasion that calls for extra heat in any room you need a Perfection Oil Heater.

PERFECTION OIL HEATERS

are a wonderful help in saving coal and cutting down fuel expense. They are small in size but big in heating capacity. With very little attention your Perfection is ready at all times for the living room after the fire is fixed for the night; for getting-up time when the bedroom is still chilly. You'll find use for it somewhere in the home every day of winter.

Of course, one of the finest features of a Perfection is that it burns kerosene—an economical fuel. That means money saved. But all kerosenes do not give the same kind of results in a Perfection. It's a matter of quality. So, to be sure of getting perfect satisfaction from your Perfection always insist on getting Atlantic Raylight Oil. It is so highly refined and purified that it gives a steady, radiating heat without smoke, smell or sputter. Ask for it by name.

And now is the best time to buy your Perfection Oil Heater. Don't put it off. Your dealer should have a good supply on hand now but there is going to be a big demand later. They are reasonably priced—$5.65 to $10.00. The Perfection is safe.

Middletown Complete Bridge Across Railroad at Middletown

The new overhead bridge crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks west of the borough is about completed and the approaches on both sides are finished. The borough has a force of men at work and will put up guard rails on both sides of the approach on the south side of the bridge. The traction company will erect a waiting room on the north side. The car company has men at work digging away the old bed of the trolley line. The ground is being used for fill at the plot recently purchased from Lutz Bros., where several tracks will be laid and new sheds built.

The Liberty band, of town, took part in the inaugural parade at Harrisburg yesterday afternoon and was engaged by Colonel L. E. Beitler.

Mrs. Levi Heagy was given a hearing before Squire H. A. Lenhart on Monday evening charged by her daughter, Mrs. Amanda Brown, of Chester, with larceny of some jewelry which had been given to the mother by another daughter, Miss Annie Heagy. Mrs. Heagy waived a hearing for court and furnished $200 bail.

Lieutenant Winfield Sides left this morning for Andover, Mass., where he will be an instructor in the Andover College. Lieutenant Sides had been a teacher for the government at Porto Rico before the war broke out.

Mrs. Amanda Brown, of Chester, is spending some time in town with relatives.

An automobile driven by George Rider, who was on his way home near Frey's Grove, ran into a team driven by Robert Selders, a neighbor. Rider was coming to Middletown with a load of milk cans which were full. The horse ran away but was caught by Harvey Landis and Simon Landis. The wagon was badly damaged and Mr. Sider

Police and Detectives Keep Order in Crowds

A score of visiting detectives from Baltimore, Newark, Philadelphia, York, Washington and Pittsburgh, besides the entire force of the Harrisburg Police Department, were engaged in keeping order in the great crowds which thronged Harrisburg yesterday. Nine visitors were arrested as pickpockets and given hearings to-day. Many suspected pickpockets and confidence sharpers were sent out of the city almost as soon as they arrived and were detected by the police.

"Fakers selling toy balloons, and other cheap goods, were conspicuously their trade unless they could show credentials testifying to their good behavior in other cities. The nine men arrested as pickpockets were Norman Freese, Harry Taylor, William Bradley, John Mackey and Harry Jordan, white, of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh; William Moore, Otto Hall and Frank Baker, colored, of Baltimore and Washington; and W. B. Holmes, colored, of Steelton.

Service Medal Given to Hollidaysburg Boy

Hollidaysburg, Jan. 22.—The distinguished "Red Cross" has been awarded Lee Smith, twenty-two, son of George N. Smith. He is a private in the medical corps of the First Battalion, One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Infantry, in France. The citation states that a runner from the Third Battalion reporting to the First Battalion in reserve was severely wounded while crossing No Man's Land. The message carried by the fallen man was of utmost importance. Smith dashed from his protection, ran through a murderous machine gun fire, carried the wounded man to a safe place to shelter and administered first aid.

TELEGRAPH SERENADED
Employees of the Harrisburg Telegraph were given a real treat last night when they were serenaded by the Danny Nirela Band, of Pittsburgh. The musical organization, which ranks among the finest in the state, presented an improvised program of about a half hour's duration in the front of the "Telegraph" building, the concert attracting a large crowd. The band accompanied the delegation from the Rock Club, of Pittsburgh, to Harrisburg, where they marched in the inaugural parade yesterday.
