He Won't Want to See His Girl In "Sensible" Clothes When he comes back, he'll be disappointed if he finds the girl he left behind him in "sensible," plain, wartime frocks. He's had enough of those, and he wants to see her in fluffy, alluring little party dresses, with all the frivolous furbelows that he missed so long. Won't you let me fit you with delicate, home-coming costume, that will make his welcome doubly attractive? All the repressed expressions of the world's leading fashion creators, now bursting into full bloom, are displayed at my shop. But this doesn't mean that well-tailored "sensible" suits for business and shopping aren't there too. They are, and there's a choice assortment of them that can't be matched in Harrisburg for graceful lines and serviceable fabrics. Mary Sachs North Third Street at No. 210
