

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. Telegraph Building, Federal Square

E. J. STACKPOLE President and Editor-in-Chief

Members of the Associated Press-The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association, the Audit Bureau of Circulation and Pennsylvania Associated Dailies.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter.

By carrier, ten cents a week; by mail, $3.00 a year in advance.

On the mud and scum of things There always, always, something sings.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1919

TWO SIDES TO IT

THROUGH the courtesy of Directors Keen and Witman and Secretary Hammelbaugh, all members of the organization, the Rotary Club last evening got first hand working knowledge of Harrisburg's open air school.

And who are you that you should turn HIM away empty handed?

ENOUGH FOR PRESENT

Governor Sproul and Frank Morrison, Secretary of the American Federation of Labor, are of one mind as to the necessity of limiting immigration during the reconstruction period.

THE FARM SHOWS

SUCH farm exhibitions as the State Department of Agriculture and the allied societies of the state have staged in Harrisburg this week are highly beneficial to all concerned.

LOP OFF THE SURPLUS

IT develops that instead of scarcity of clothing materials there is a vast surplus in the hands of manufacturers.

RUM AND BOLSHIEVISM

SAYS Lloyd Osborne, of San Francisco, asserting that prohibition is going to help Bolshevism, referring to the vineyard owners of California.

permitted to sell poison to the many because there is more profit in poison than in some other form of mercantile activity.

UNTIL THE LEAST OF THEM

HE little folks of the Children's Industrial Home and the Day Nursery are in need.

They do not ask for much—just enough to pay their debts contracted during their illness of influenza, with enough left over to buy some warm blankets, a few simple clothes and some groceries.

Groceries, yes, and clothing, also, for you may not think it, you folks who have been giving nothing to these worthy charities, but it is a fact beyond dispute that these children actually do have robust appetites, just like your own boys and girls, and they must have clothing fit to keep them clean and presentable.

That means they look to you for support, because they have nobody else to whom they can look.

Will you refuse to give them a little of your plenty?

Remember it was the Master himself who said that even as you do it unto the least of these, ye do it unto Him.

PARIS, NOT VERSAILLES

The impression, long prevalent and persistent, that the Peace Conference would sit in Versailles, has been augusly dissipated by the formal opening of the sessions in the Foreign Office of the banks of the Seine.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin contains this interesting comment upon the Sproul cabinet selections as announced and qualified—

The Governor's office last night announced the appointment of the following deputies attorney general: Robert S. Gwynne, chief justice, first deputy attorney general, and second deputy: William M. Hargest, Harrisburg; Emerson Collins, Williamsport; Bernard J. Myers, Lancaster, and William J. Swope, Clearfield.

The Pennsylvania State Legislative Correspondents Association, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, held its fourteenth annual meeting at the Hotel Pottsville last night.

With regard to restriction of immigration, it needs no proof to argue that where idleness exists it is folly to add to the population by increasing the number clamoring for employment.

These are reasonable suggestions. There is much work pressing for attention in this country, and probably in the next four months we shall be almost as busy as during the war period.

TIRED OF LIFE ACCOUNT of the suicide of a hundred years old man killed himself because he was "tired of life" is one of the most unusual items that has turned up in the newspapers in a year.

A RADICAL OUTRAGE

The Bolsheviki have issued an order that husbands shall be selected for all women who are between 18 and 45 years of age and that the women will be compelled to marry these men; and that the children which may result from these marriages shall be the property of the state, to be supported and educated by it.

WELL RECEIVED

The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

show what a bold Governor Sproul has upon the party and the breadth of his legislative program.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

Governor William C. Sproul's very evident intention to get down to business right away and to push along his plans for reorganization of the state government is winning favorable comment from legislators and they have been calling at his offices to tender their support.

Very general commendation has followed his expression in favor of every action on the prohibition amendment and the Law and Order Committee of the House will likely meet Tuesday to dispose of the measure.

It was said to-day that Governor Sproul would send a number of names of appointees to the Senate Monday and that by Tuesday he would make up his mind regarding most of the hold-over appointees of the Brumbaugh administration.

The men whose appointments were withdrawn will serve until the end of the Senate unless their successors are named in the meantime.

That means they look to you for support, because they have nobody else to whom they can look.

Will you refuse to give them a little of your plenty?

Remember it was the Master himself who said that even as you do it unto the least of these, ye do it unto Him.

And who are you that you should turn HIM away empty handed?

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin contains this interesting comment upon the Sproul cabinet selections as announced and qualified—

The Governor's office last night announced the appointment of the following deputies attorney general: Robert S. Gwynne, chief justice, first deputy attorney general, and second deputy: William M. Hargest, Harrisburg; Emerson Collins, Williamsport; Bernard J. Myers, Lancaster, and William J. Swope, Clearfield.

The Pennsylvania State Legislative Correspondents Association, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, held its fourteenth annual meeting at the Hotel Pottsville last night.

With regard to restriction of immigration, it needs no proof to argue that where idleness exists it is folly to add to the population by increasing the number clamoring for employment.

These are reasonable suggestions. There is much work pressing for attention in this country, and probably in the next four months we shall be almost as busy as during the war period.

TIRED OF LIFE ACCOUNT of the suicide of a hundred years old man killed himself because he was "tired of life" is one of the most unusual items that has turned up in the newspapers in a year.

A RADICAL OUTRAGE The Bolsheviki have issued an order that husbands shall be selected for all women who are between 18 and 45 years of age and that the women will be compelled to marry these men; and that the children which may result from these marriages shall be the property of the state, to be supported and educated by it.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

MOVIE OF TWO MEN DISCOVERING A POPULAR TOPIC

PARIS, NOT VERSAILLES

The impression, long prevalent and persistent, that the Peace Conference would sit in Versailles, has been augusly dissipated by the formal opening of the sessions in the Foreign Office of the banks of the Seine.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin contains this interesting comment upon the Sproul cabinet selections as announced and qualified—

The Governor's office last night announced the appointment of the following deputies attorney general: Robert S. Gwynne, chief justice, first deputy attorney general, and second deputy: William M. Hargest, Harrisburg; Emerson Collins, Williamsport; Bernard J. Myers, Lancaster, and William J. Swope, Clearfield.

The Pennsylvania State Legislative Correspondents Association, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, held its fourteenth annual meeting at the Hotel Pottsville last night.

With regard to restriction of immigration, it needs no proof to argue that where idleness exists it is folly to add to the population by increasing the number clamoring for employment.

These are reasonable suggestions. There is much work pressing for attention in this country, and probably in the next four months we shall be almost as busy as during the war period.

TIRED OF LIFE ACCOUNT of the suicide of a hundred years old man killed himself because he was "tired of life" is one of the most unusual items that has turned up in the newspapers in a year.

A RADICAL OUTRAGE The Bolsheviki have issued an order that husbands shall be selected for all women who are between 18 and 45 years of age and that the women will be compelled to marry these men; and that the children which may result from these marriages shall be the property of the state, to be supported and educated by it.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

AND JESUS SAID

From The Literary Digest for January 18, 1919

PARIS, NOT VERSAILLES

The impression, long prevalent and persistent, that the Peace Conference would sit in Versailles, has been augusly dissipated by the formal opening of the sessions in the Foreign Office of the banks of the Seine.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin contains this interesting comment upon the Sproul cabinet selections as announced and qualified—

The Governor's office last night announced the appointment of the following deputies attorney general: Robert S. Gwynne, chief justice, first deputy attorney general, and second deputy: William M. Hargest, Harrisburg; Emerson Collins, Williamsport; Bernard J. Myers, Lancaster, and William J. Swope, Clearfield.

The Pennsylvania State Legislative Correspondents Association, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, held its fourteenth annual meeting at the Hotel Pottsville last night.

With regard to restriction of immigration, it needs no proof to argue that where idleness exists it is folly to add to the population by increasing the number clamoring for employment.

These are reasonable suggestions. There is much work pressing for attention in this country, and probably in the next four months we shall be almost as busy as during the war period.

TIRED OF LIFE ACCOUNT of the suicide of a hundred years old man killed himself because he was "tired of life" is one of the most unusual items that has turned up in the newspapers in a year.

A RADICAL OUTRAGE The Bolsheviki have issued an order that husbands shall be selected for all women who are between 18 and 45 years of age and that the women will be compelled to marry these men; and that the children which may result from these marriages shall be the property of the state, to be supported and educated by it.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

TENDER GERMAN CONSCIENCES

From The New York Times

PARIS, NOT VERSAILLES

The impression, long prevalent and persistent, that the Peace Conference would sit in Versailles, has been augusly dissipated by the formal opening of the sessions in the Foreign Office of the banks of the Seine.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin contains this interesting comment upon the Sproul cabinet selections as announced and qualified—

The Governor's office last night announced the appointment of the following deputies attorney general: Robert S. Gwynne, chief justice, first deputy attorney general, and second deputy: William M. Hargest, Harrisburg; Emerson Collins, Williamsport; Bernard J. Myers, Lancaster, and William J. Swope, Clearfield.

The Pennsylvania State Legislative Correspondents Association, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, held its fourteenth annual meeting at the Hotel Pottsville last night.

With regard to restriction of immigration, it needs no proof to argue that where idleness exists it is folly to add to the population by increasing the number clamoring for employment.

These are reasonable suggestions. There is much work pressing for attention in this country, and probably in the next four months we shall be almost as busy as during the war period.

TIRED OF LIFE ACCOUNT of the suicide of a hundred years old man killed himself because he was "tired of life" is one of the most unusual items that has turned up in the newspapers in a year.

A RADICAL OUTRAGE The Bolsheviki have issued an order that husbands shall be selected for all women who are between 18 and 45 years of age and that the women will be compelled to marry these men; and that the children which may result from these marriages shall be the property of the state, to be supported and educated by it.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

VOICE FROM OKLAHOMA

PARIS, NOT VERSAILLES

The impression, long prevalent and persistent, that the Peace Conference would sit in Versailles, has been augusly dissipated by the formal opening of the sessions in the Foreign Office of the banks of the Seine.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin contains this interesting comment upon the Sproul cabinet selections as announced and qualified—

The Governor's office last night announced the appointment of the following deputies attorney general: Robert S. Gwynne, chief justice, first deputy attorney general, and second deputy: William M. Hargest, Harrisburg; Emerson Collins, Williamsport; Bernard J. Myers, Lancaster, and William J. Swope, Clearfield.

The Pennsylvania State Legislative Correspondents Association, one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the country, held its fourteenth annual meeting at the Hotel Pottsville last night.

With regard to restriction of immigration, it needs no proof to argue that where idleness exists it is folly to add to the population by increasing the number clamoring for employment.

These are reasonable suggestions. There is much work pressing for attention in this country, and probably in the next four months we shall be almost as busy as during the war period.

TIRED OF LIFE ACCOUNT of the suicide of a hundred years old man killed himself because he was "tired of life" is one of the most unusual items that has turned up in the newspapers in a year.

A RADICAL OUTRAGE The Bolsheviki have issued an order that husbands shall be selected for all women who are between 18 and 45 years of age and that the women will be compelled to marry these men; and that the children which may result from these marriages shall be the property of the state, to be supported and educated by it.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

WELL RECEIVED The newspapers of Pennsylvania have received with favor the inaugural address of Governor Sproul. Even the Democratic press terms with editorial approval.

Evening Chat

"How 'Agricultural Week,' of the big seasons of the year men interested in farming and branches and for politicians who in rural districts, has had a development. It has brought dreds of farmers, live stock raisers, fruit growers and others to city this week, and they are not only a big interest in the display of the week, but in the annual sessions here, but are manifesting concern as to the Department of Agriculture. The State Horticultural Society is to meet here at the State House and then one or two other organizations. Four years ago the produce show was started, and it has since become a regular test and it soon became more popular than the meetings. Now week is an established institution in Pennsylvania, and bids fair to grow to greater dimensions. Harrisburg is not only the official, a certain transportation extent graphical center of the state, it is the center of such agricultural activity. The people here are farmers of the prosperous and they are all talking of the opportunities for a greater mid-winter display of the best of the crop at the summer and fall sessions. The state board itself was organized in 1876 and has been meeting annually.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

VOICE FROM OKLAHOMA

To the Editor of the Telegraph: Whiteagle, Okla., Jan. 15, 1919. As a physician and former resident of Pennsylvania, I have been watching with a great deal of interest the proposed action of the State Legislature on the ratification of the prohibition amendment. There probably has been and will be much written regarding this question, but there has been up to date a noticeable lack of interest, displayed by the medical profession, especially in view of the action of the American Medical Association convention in Chicago when there was adopted a resolution strongly condemning the use of alcoholic liquor.

In considering the work of the Department of Parks for the State, it is probable that some consideration might be given to the establishment of a park in the city of Harrisburg. The park would be a fine addition to the city and would be a great benefit to the people. The park would be a fine addition to the city and would be a great benefit to the people.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

—Lewis S. Sadler, the new way commissioner, has been one of the most consistent movers for the highways in the Commonwealth for over a dozen years.

HOW IT HAPPENED

(From the Kansas City Star) "Pardon me," said the army for military chefs are prone to dress their underlings courtly. I noticed that you do it all the time in great bulk, alas, too many do, but looser of the skin on the other end of the stick it all off. You must have had much experience in soldiering. "I did, thank you, sir," replied the man, "before I decided to make the world safe for democracy I was a country banker."

Speaking of Fruit

A man never ascertains what he married a peach or a lemon happens to open a family. From Cassell's Saturday Journal

A Popular Wish

President Paderewski, M. administration be a perfect r. —From the Philadelphia Record