For Itching Torture

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve irritation and that makes the skin clear and healthy. My druggist can supply you with one, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blisters disappear over night. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, aseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 25c; an exchange bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively tender, sensitive skins. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

George W. Steckley, Jacob H. Boyd, delegate to State Firemen's Convention Harvey Dintaman; alternate delegate, George Burr.

This is Mr. Kramer's twenty-second consecutive election to the presidency, Mr. Lynch's twenty-third consecutive election as treasurer, Mr. Verbeke's twenty-first consecutive election as recording secretary, and Mr. Murray's twentieth consecutive election as financial secretary.

The association's financial condition is in excellent shape, having a cash balance on hand January first of $7,445.78. There were eleven deaths last year.

NEED BOILERMAKERS

There is urgent need of boiler-makers at the Navy Yard at Norfolk, Virginia. The Navy Department has authorized the civil service commission to recruit men for these places who are experienced in their trades and to appoint them at the maximum rate of pay, which is $4.00 for an eight-hour day and to provide transportation if they will agree to work at least six months. Further information can be secured by calling at the office of the secretary, board of civil service examiners, Post Office building, Harrisburg, Pa.

CONFERENCES ON DEFICIENCY BILL

Heads of Departments Needing Money Will Meet McCaig Next Week

Compilation of the deficiency bill to provide funds for the expenses incurred by departments of the state government in the last two years which could be foreseen and to meet deficits will be started by the House Appropriations Committee next week when heads of departments and bureaus asking appropriations will meet Chairman W. J. McCaig.

Indications are that there will be a large number of bills submitted when the House meets on Monday night. Members have been getting bills in bales from the Legislative Reference to-day and indications are that some of the administration bills will make their appearance.

Governor Leaves—Governor William C. Sprout left this afternoon for Chester, accompanying his aged mother, who was taken ill here on inauguration day, but who improved sufficiently to travel. The new governor, attorney general, secretary of the commonwealth and other officers will attend the Pennsylvania Society dinner in New York on Saturday night.

Mr. Schaeffer's Signature—Attorney Schaeffer to-day returned his official signature. It will be "Wm. I. Schaeffer."

Major McLean Here—Major John D. McLean, the new assistant commissioner of health, to-day assumed charge of his department. Col. Martin, the new commissioner, formally authorizing him to act in his absence. Major McLean has been in the surgeon general's office of the army the last year.

Proposed Object—The boroughs of Lehigh and Lehigh Forge to-day filed complaint against the new laws of the Lehigh Forge Company before the Lehigh Forge Company Commission. Mrs. Rehnert—Mrs. Rehnert, mother of the State Treasurer and the supreme Court justice is seriously ill in Philadelphia.

Election Announced—Governor William C. Sprout to-day issued his new proclamation, it being an action when he is required to take under the law. He proclaimed the election of the Pennsylvania congressmen and sent the certified returns to the offices of congress at Washington.

Suggests One Day—In commenting upon the movement to have Roosevelt memorial meetings in various parts of the state, Governor Sprout to-day suggested that it would be well if they could be held on February 9.

The Telephone Case—The procedure of the Public Service Commission against the new telephone rates will not be completed until late in the week. A number of inquiries and letters have been received at the office of the commission.

Housing Experts to Meet Here to Discuss New Laws Needed to Better Homes

Harrisburg will be the scene of an important conference of the Pennsylvania Housing and Town Planning Association February 14, when eminent authorities of the state and nation will gather here to discuss legislation needed in Pennsylvania and to outline plans for a campaign. The conference will be held in the Penn-Harris Hotel.

Mrs. Franklin P. Iams, of Pittsburg, will preside at an uncheon to be held at the Penn-Harris Hotel preceding the conference. Proposed housing legislation will be informally discussed.

At 3 o'clock the afternoon session will be opened. A. B. Farquhar, of York, the state president of the association, presiding. J. Horace McFarland, of Harrisburg, a member of the Government Commission on Living Conditions of Philadelphia, will address the gathering on the subject, "Shall the State Help Its Workers to Become Home Owners?"

The convention is expected to be held at the Penn-Harris Hotel.

Cause of Stomach Sickness

How to Relieve Stomach Distress in a Few Minutes. Money Back if Treatment Does Not Overcome Any Form of Indigestion.

If you feel as though there was a lump of lead at the pit of the stomach, take a couple of Mi-o-na stomach tablets the night before, and you should see that all stomach distress has vanished.

If you belch gas, have heartburn or sour stomach, you need Mi-o-na. If your stomach feels upset the morning after the night before, take two Mi-o-na tablets and see how quickly you get relief.

If you have shortness of breath, pain in the stomach, waterbrash or foul breath, you need Mi-o-na and the sooner you get it the better your stomach should perform its duties properly.

If you use a box of Mi-o-na tablets and feel that it has not overcome your indigestion or stomach trouble, take the empty box to your dealer and he will refund your money. For sale by H. C. Kennedy and all leading druggists.

PAINS AND ACES YIELD QUICKLY TO SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Are you tormented by Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica or any of those aches that require a counter-irritant? Then let the soothing, warming application of Sloan's Liniment stop the pain by drawing the blood away from the congested part.

It is the pressure on the nerves by the blood rushing to the inflamed muscle or joint that makes you ache. So when Sloan's Liniment relieves the swollen blood vessels by setting up a counter-irritant on the surface, the circulation is equalized, sympathetic nerves all soothed, and soreness or lame-ness disappears.

Sloan's Liniment is probably the counter-irritant most widely used to overcome painful inflammation in cases of neuralgia, sore muscles, wrenched joints, strains, bruises, gout. Rubbing is not required. This clear, clean liquid is easily applied as it does not stain the skin.

Generous size bottles at your druggists. 30c, 60c, $1.20
