

DRY FORCES TO FOLLOW UP THE GREAT VICTORY

High Praise For Governor Sproull and the Harrisburg Telegraph

Despite the fact that the ratification of the national prohibition amendment by the Pennsylvania Legislature seems assured, the work of the dry federation will go on.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once if bilious or constipated.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well and playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

BIG ULCER ALL HEALED

"Now I Can Walk," Says Mrs. Southcott of Medina

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson, of Buffalo.

"Money isn't everything in this world. There is money a big hearted rich man who would give all he has on earth to be able to produce a remedy with such mighty healing power as Peterson's Ointment, to sell at all drug stores for 25 cents a box."

For this letter, written February 14, 1918, by Mrs. Albert Southcott, of Medina, N. Y., it seems like a miracle, but it is true, every word of it.

Know it because I get similar letters almost every day.

Is it any wonder I am happy! Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sirs— I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcer. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine boxes, worth of the salve I am cured. The ulcer was 7 inches by 4 1/2 inches. It is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again. You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. It cannot say enough to praise it. Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Medina, N. Y.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, the soreness ceases, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered in 24 to 48 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint of the syrup. You could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Judge W. E. Porter, of New Castle, was unanimously elected as president. Other officers elected included: Vice-presidents, Mrs. Ella M. George, Beaver Falls; B. E. P. Frugh, Harrisburg; the Rev. H. L. Neely, Pittsburgh; and the Rev. Rufus W. Miller, Philadelphia; secretary, S. E. Gill, Pittsburgh; treasurer, Frank H. Robinson, Pittsburgh; directors, George Rankin, Wilkinsburg; John E. Gill, Franklin; J. Denny O'Neil, McKeesport; Dr. Charles Scanlon, Pittsburgh; Lex N. Mitchell, Pittsburgh; Mrs. J. O. Miller, Pittsburgh, and J. W. Kinneer, Pittsburgh.

High praise for Governor Sproull's stand on the side of the "dry" forces was contained in the resolutions adopted by the convention. The resolutions also pledged the organization's support of woman's suffrage.

Resolutions Adopted The resolutions follow: "This is a time for universal rejoicing by all who have had a part in the passing of the amendment to the constitution of our country that makes it a saloonless nation. We express our profound thanks to God for his guiding Providence that has made this possible and to all organizations that have aided in this heroic undertaking.

"Resolved, first that we approve of the work accomplished during the past year by our state superintendent, Dr. John Royal Harris, by our executive committee, by our finance committee; that we express our heartiest appreciation of our local committee in their generous hospitality in making provisions for our comfort during this convention, and for the good will and co-operation of all affiliated agencies.

"Resolved, second, that we approve our high appreciation of the unqualified stand taken by Governor William C. Sproull favoring the prohibition amendment and we call the members of the Legislature to follow his wise leadership in this critical hour, and at an early date enact such state laws as will make effective the complete banishment of the saloon from Pennsylvania.

"Resolved, third, that we appreciate and approve our Governor's expression on the question of woman's rights and pledge our support for the same.

"Resolved, fourth, that the excellent work done by the public press in giving publicity to the activities of the dry federation receive our heartiest approval.

"Resolved, fifth, that the interest manifested in other countries to rid themselves of the curse of alcoholic beverage be gratefully recognized and encouraged.

"Resolved, sixth, that the chairman of this convention appoint a committee of which Dr. John Royal Harris shall be chairman to prepare and publish a history of our federation movement.

"Resolved, seventh, that the present executive committee be continued with the addition of two members, E. Johnston and John A. McSparrow, and if conditions arise requiring action to make Pennsylvania a bone dry state, that said committee be empowered to act."

Leads Demonstration The Rev. S. Harvey Klier, pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church, led in a demonstration by Dauphin county Bible classes. Members of the Legislature sitting in the audience were called to the platform and introduced.

A feature of the evening's meeting was an address by John W. Vickerman, Bellevue, sponsor of the Ratification measure in the House. He expressed his confidence in the passing of the bill. In fact, the whole convention yesterday and last evening radiated confidence in Pennsylvania's ratification.

Because of the illness of his mother, Governor Sproull could not be present at the meeting. A message of regret was read from him. Congressman Simeon D. Fess, of Ohio, scheduled to speak, wired his inability to come because of a sore throat. Mrs. Mary Harris, Iowa, widely known as the "Georgia Cyclone," a temperance lecturer of more than ordinary ability, delivered the closing address of the convention. "The biggest fight is ahead," she said. "Work to see that the law is obeyed."

A feature of yesterday afternoon's session of the convention was an address by Clinton N. Howard, chairman of the campaign committee of the National Dry Federation, in which he placed the Harrisburg Telegraph and the Philadelphia North American on the roll of honor as the only two newspapers in the United States who stood for prohibition all the time and said it could be done. Mr. Howard is a Harrisburg boy. He was born here, but now resides at Rochester, N. Y. He came all the way to Harrisburg to deliver his address here. He dealt with the ratification of the National Prohibition Amendment. He said in part:

Standing Alone The devil said it could not be done; the world of the fearful, unbelieving and abominable in the house of the Lord said it could not be done; the New York World and Times, the Cincinnati Enquirer, the Chicago Tribune, and the New Orleans Picayune said it could not be done. The Harrisburg Telegraph and the Philadelphia North American said it could be done. Thank God, we had a witness among the press!

"In one year and eight months after the first state ratified, it was done! The recording angel called the roll and forty-two states answered 'Dry,' Pennsylvania, the Gibraltar of the trade, will ratify; New York, the Vampire State, will ratify; and New Jersey—Oh, my! Oh, my! Oh, you Sweet Potato state! Oh, you Mosquito State! New Jersey has never ratified any of the eighteen amendments to the Constitution! Not one! She may not this one, but let her stew in her own juice until January 16, 1920. One more year of disgrace, and Uncle Sam will hang her out to dry.

"Hush, New Jersey, don't you cry. You'll be wanned and spanked bone dry."

"Eighty million people have voted to ratify. It is the final judgment of the American People—fixed, irrevocable and eternal. Everybody accepts it but the liquor trade. That old skeleton still makes some motions like the tail of a dead serpent, but it is only the convulsions of the abnormal abdominal protuberance that is moving its limbs. Prohibition has perforated its heart.

"We will make it good and carry it around the world."

"One day in the not far distant future," he adds, "I think we shall walk about with wireless telephones attached to our bodies and we shall be able, standing any in Piccadilly Circus, to call up a friend who is flying somewhere.

Or we may have an invitation by wireless telephony from a friend flying in France to join him at dinner in the evening."

Uses Airplanes Against the Rebels in Mexico

Mexico City, Jan. 23. — General Candido Aguilar, chief of military operations in the Gulf region, is using airplanes with success in his campaign against the rebels, especially in the state of Vera Cruz. Not only are the aviators doing valuable reconnaissance work, but one recently dropped bombs on a party of bandits who believed themselves safely ensconced on the top of a mountain near Orizaba.
