LITHUANIANS ROUT THE REDS Mad Dogs!

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Paul N. Milukoff, former foreign minister of Russia, who is in London, was surprised when told that the Allies had invited the Bolshevists of Russia to a conference. He said:
"The Bolshevists are in no wise representative of the Russian people. They are robbers and cutthroats; mad dogs who wish to bite others so that all may be mad."

He said the only way to settle the Russian problem was to overthrow the Boshevist rule there, which he declared is simply terrorism and "hateful to the majority of Russians." He also stated that if the Allies would supply guns and munitions, patriotic Russians would overthrow Bolshevist tyranny."

A dispatch from Stockholm says the Swedish government has sent an ultimatum to the Bol-shevik legation there, demand-ing its departure from Stockholm by January 25 at the latest. Attorneys of the county bar who are filing licenses for the present holders, said they anticipated the government "bone dry" order effective July 1, may be revoked, which would mean that the saloons could remain open until next January when the federal prohibition amendment becomes operative.
