

Permits Withdrawal of Suit Filed in Courts of Philadelphia County

Permission has been granted by the Dauphin county court to withdraw a suit filed in Philadelphia county by the persons now in charge of the Pleasantville Water Company, Pleasantville, N. J., in the hands of receiver, against Grant Ritchie, W. Dale Scheafer and Harry Clark.

Charles C. Stroh, of the Dauphin county bar, was appointed as an auxiliary receiver to take charge of the company's affairs in Pennsylvania, and the receiver in charge of them in New Jersey. Two equity suits were brought against the men named as defendants, one in New Jersey and one in Pennsylvania. It was explained that the New Jersey action was for trial now, could be disposed of at much less expense than one in this state, and will finally settle all legal questions involved. Stroh presented the petition to withdraw the suit, which was signed.

HARRISBURG TO GET BENEFIT OF HOUSING SURVEY

J. H. McFarland, Local Chairman, to Inspect Every Development in Pennsylvania

George S. Reinhold, president, to-day sent a letter to each member of the Chamber of Commerce housing committee, stating that J. Horace McFarland, chairman, will not call the committee together for a few weeks until he has completed an important piece of work for the national government which will take him to every housing development in Pennsylvania. This added knowledge of conditions and prospects in Pennsylvania, Mr. McFarland feels will be of great help to the local committee in framing its program for the year.

The letter in full follows: "Mr. McFarland in accepting the appointment as chairman of the housing committee, advises that he has not yet been relieved of his work in Washington. As you probably know, Mr. McFarland is a member of the commission on living conditions in the Department of Labor with his own special duties including health and housing. At the present time he is involved in the preparation and presentation of a plan for nationally promoting the erection of better housing, and also in the preparation of a plan for the housing and by the provision of better living facilities making less desirable the present living conditions in the city of Washington."

Mr. McFarland expects to be occupied for the next five or six weeks at least in this national work, but during that time it is his intention to personally visit every housing operation recently completed or now under way in the state of Pennsylvania. With this information he will be in a position to discuss the matter of the house proposition with the members of the committee. This letter, therefore, is to explain to you the reason for the organization meeting of the housing committee for the next several weeks or until Mr. McFarland has completed the work that he is now on. It is felt that the possible disadvantage of the delay in organization will be more than overcome by the advantages derived from Mr. McFarland's visits to other housing operations within the next few weeks.

Gettysburg Seeks Restoration of Western Maryland Pre-War Schedule

Gettysburg, Pa., Jan. 24.—Gettysburg's Chamber of Commerce has taken up with those in charge of the Western Maryland railroad the question of furnishing better train facilities to the citizens of this place who desire to go to Baltimore on business. The schedule is now arranged, it is an absolute necessity for a person who wishes to go to the Maryland city on business to spend parts of three days away from home. The shortest possible time he can take for such a trip is to leave here in the evening of one day, stay in the city all of the next day and return home the following morning. Many of the railroads are planning to resume the train service as it was before the war, and the business people of this community are seeking to have the before-the-war schedule between this place and Baltimore brought into effect.

One of the largest public sales in the lower end of the county during the last few years was held yesterday afternoon when the stock, farm implements and household property of D. G. Despite the steady downpour of rain during the afternoon record crowds attended, the sale lasting from noon until 5 o'clock.

Since Taking Tonnal One Year Ago Has Had No Return of Dyspepsia

"I had a very bad case of dyspepsia and suffered pain for several hours after eating," says L. K. Eshleman, a well-known farmer living near Safe Harbor, Lancaster county, Pa. "I often had to lie down to relieve my pains. After taking one bottle of Tonnal I noticed an improvement and this encouraged me to continue keeping on using Tonnal until I was cured. Now my stomach is as good as ever. I can eat heartily and without any pain or distress. I first began to use Tonnal over a year ago and have had no return of dyspepsia since." This testimonial was given January 15, 1919. Tonnal is sold at Gorgas' Drug Store, Harrisburg, and all leading drug stores in Eastern Pennsylvania.

High prices were paid for many of the farm implements. A double-disc harrow which originally cost $15, was sold for $70, and a large binder brought $56 above its original cost. Horses sold for prices from $225 down; forty-five head of cattle for $112 down. About $7,000, all paid in cash or by check, were realized at the sale, which was conducted by County Clerk J. S. Farver, administrator of the estate, through J. C. Hess, auctioneer.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH REMEDY FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in some of the best hospitals in the world is especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climatic conditions. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Farnim (Double strength). Take this home and mix it with a pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Farnim used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.
