SPROUL RECEIVES SCOUTS WARMLY

Governor Welcomes Lads in Khaki Who Took Big Part in the Ceremonies

The proudest moment of a glorious day for the Scouts of this city came when they filed past the new governor of the Commonwealth and felt his handshake.

It was after ten o'clock Tuesday night, and for twelve long hours the Scouts had been on duty. Backs were tired, eyes and arms ached, but every Scout's heart glowed in the satisfaction of having been of service; all the fatigue was forgotten as they responded to the gracious smile of the first lady of the State and felt the heartiness of the hand-clasp of the big chief and brother.

The day started at nine o'clock when 65 Scouts assigned as ushers and orderlies at the reviewing stand reported at Headquarters for final instructions. At quarter before ten they were at their posts. How well they did their work is shown by the fact that 2300 people were escorted to their seats without a bit of confusion.

Plans are under way to turn the Mansion house, Keystone avenue and Madison street, conducted by Lar-bush Brothers, until it was closed

What the Governor and Captain George F. Lumb, chief of the State Constabulary think of the Scouts and their doings on Tuesday are printed on another part of the Scout page. All your Scout Executive can say is—"Thank you, Scouts. You have again proved yourselves worthy of your name and training."

SCOUTS TO HONOR COL. ROOSEVELT

Boy Scouts of the City to Pay Tribute to the Late ex-President

The day Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America took quick action for a suitable Boy Scout memorial to honor his memory.

The National Council decided that each of the 16,000 troops in the United States should arrange special memorial meetings as soon as convenient, and following the suggestion of Daniel Carter Beard, National Scout Commissioner, each troop is to plant one or more sturdy trees with suitable inscription as a permanent expression of all for which Colonel Roosevelt stood in the eyes of the virile youth of the nation.

These recommendations were embodied in a telegram to Mrs. Roosevelt, a transcript of which was dispatched to all scoutmasters and scout officials throughout the country.

As all the Scouts of Harrisburg will attend service at Pine Street Presbyterian Church on the designated evening, it is planned that this service be a memorial of our late "Chief Scout Citizen."

Bolivia Willing to Abide By the Peace Conference

Washington, Jan. 24.—While Bolivia would have preferred that the dispute over the provinces of Tacna and Arica be adjudicated by the United States, will be satisfied with the decision of the peace conference, Don Ignacio Calderon, Bolivian minister to the United States, said yesterday in discussing the report from Paris that this question will be taken up by the peace conference.

"I believe the claims of Bolivia will receive justice in the settlement at Paris," said Mr. Calderon, "and that my country will receive an outlet to the sea as she formerly had." In explaining why Bolivia would rather have had the United States settle the question, Mr. Calderon said his country had the greatest confidence in "the sense of fairness and justice" of the American government. He added that the United States understands the democratic principles of the Americans and the American people better than do the people of Europe.

American Soldier Is the Best in the World, Says Capt. Ralph Crow

"The American soldier is the best in the world," was the statement of Captain Ralph C. Crow, of Lemoyne, commander of Company A, 128th Machine Gun Battalion, last night. The coolness of the Yank under fire, his contempt of danger and self-reliance continually came in for praise from the soldiers of the entente, he said. Many times when they would go into battle and lose their officers, they would go on until they attained their objectives.

Captain Crow told the story of his experiences before the Brotherhood of the Zion Lutheran church last night. He was introduced by Captain Henry M. Stine, with whom he served in the National Guard.
