

McADOO IN TALK FOR PRESIDENCY

Democratic Politicians Are on Their Toes For Preparedness at Nation's Capitol

Washington.—Washington just can't help talking and gossiping politically. It's part of the day's day here. Right now, even with the peace conference on over in Paris, the political speculation is unusually interesting because of the approaching meeting of the Democratic national committee here January 23.

Whatever they may think about national preparedness, the politicians are on their toes for political preparedness. And the G. O. C. having had their preliminary meeting in Chicago some weeks ago to put "feelers" out for 1920, the Democrats must follow suit.

One of the most peculiar phases of the situation here from the Democratic standpoint is the conclusion drawn by the politicians from Colonel Roosevelt's death. At once, everyone began to say: "Well, that ends any chance of President Wilson running for a third term."

William Gibbs McAdoo, the President's son-in-law, and former secretary of the treasury and director general of railroads, is the most possible candidate right now.

McAdoo has not announced and won't. No candidate is going to invite such unpleasant speculation on the part of the press as always gets so far ahead of time. But they rather take it as a matter of course here that he will be in the running.

One thing is certain: McAdoo won't shy from it. Secretary Baker would be the favorite of the parlor Socialist, extreme reform fringe. He speaks their language more than McAdoo does.

Right now the anti-administration Democrats appear to flit around Speaker Champ Clark. This is the nearest-thing group. Right now Clark doesn't look one, two, three as a successful candidate, but such a combination might be able to get a block of one-third of the delegates and have something to say about who it would be. They won't otherwise. The party machinery, he said, is firmly in the hands of the President.

Some mention Herbert Hoover. The Senator from Missouri is not one of these. The only trouble with him is that Hoover is a Republican as is supposed to be. He was accredited as a Republican when named as food administrator. If Mr. Hoover were nominated for the presidency, it's a cinch that he would do it, not the Democrats, for he trains more with the Republicans.

Republicans might trot out some other name, but it won't come from the Democrats. The setting isn't right. The Democratic feelers right now are behind the McAdoo boom.

Mention of Hoover though is like that of General Pershing. Hoover hasn't voted. People here who proudly claim to know Pershing don't well say he hasn't voted but that he is a Republican if anything. Politicians of any brand don't put out feelers or boost at this stage of the game men whose politics are so doubtful. They take them where it is popular to do so and climb aboard to win, not because they want to.

MINISTERS ASKED TO HELP BOOST VICTORY GARDENS

War Garden Commission Wants Sermons Preached on Subject, Feb. 2

Washington, Jan. 24.—Forty thousand ministers covering every denomination in the United States have been requested by the National War Garden Commission to aid in the campaign for Victory Gardens.

The National War Garden Commission is sending to the forty thousand ministers, data on home food production and garden books. The United Society of Christian Endeavorers from its headquarters in Boston, has joined in the campaign, and the Rev. Francis E. Clark, has sent out a call to thousands of members of that organization with the commission's data.

"To co-operate with the plans worked out by the United States Food Administration for helping to solve the post-war food problems, this commission's effort for increased food production and home conservation will be continued during 1919.

This commission bespeaks your helpful co-operation in conveying to your people the message of food needs. To give this message intensive force, it is suggested that these needs be emphasized the same day throughout the country.

WHAT OTHERS THINK OF US

Clipped From the Journal of Commerce Published in Philadelphia, December 21st, 1918.

GREAT ASSET TO THE COMMUNITY H. C. Kennedy, One of the Largest Patent Medicine and Sundry Houses in the United States, Desirably Located at 110-112-114 North Washington Avenue, Scranton, Pa.—Dealers in All Standard Preparations—Every Article Sold at Cut-Rate Prices and Cheaper Than Elsewhere—Reasonable Living Profit—Most Highly Successful.

"Kennedy sells it cheaper" appears to be the slogan of Scrantonians. Upon careful investigation it was found to be exactly as the slogan indicates. "Kennedy's" generally considered one of the largest patent medicine and sundry houses in the United States, is located at 110-112-114 North Washington Avenue, Scranton, Pa. A full and comprehensive line of proprietary medicines, face powders, toilet creams, dental powders and creams, toilet soaps, rubber goods, candy, cigars, razors, toilet sets, in fact, any and everything in the line of patent medicines and sundries is always on hand.

The establishment is commodious in every particular and agreeably arranged. The outstanding feature of "Kennedy's" is the absolute fact that they will sell any article or preparation cheaper than any one else. Their motto now is and ever has been, "quick sales of small profits," and the Scranton public has not been long in taking advantage of this extraordinary opportunity.

Judging from the multitude of buyers who daily surge the aisles of "Kennedy's" it was well assumed that the people of Scranton appreciate the concern's superior and admirable efforts. The city of Scranton has every reason to point with pardonable pride towards an establishment of such meritorious character, and on one whose influence in the community is of evident great benefit and advantage.
