Rudy-Hahnlen Wedding Takes Place in Vineland

The marriage of Mrs. Arvilla W. Hahnlen, a former resident of this city, widow of W. L. Hahnlen, and Samuel H. Rudy, of Vineland, N. J., were united in marriage Tuesday, January 14, at the rectory of the Trinity Episcopal Church, that place, by the Rev. Francis Van R. Moore, the rector. Only the immediate relatives were in attendance and after the ceremony supper was served at the Rudy home. Mr. Rudy is stationer at the home of Mrs. Armstrong, 304 Walnut street, Steelton, when their daughter, Miss Martha Louise Armstrong, becomes the wife of Sergeant Humphrey John Roberts of the Six Hundred and Tenth Aero Squadron, Aviation Supply Depot, Middletown.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smuckert, pastor of the Stevens Memorial M. E. Church, in the presence of a number of relatives and close friends.

The bride will wear a charming costume of pink and blue Georgette crepe and point de flanders lace. Miss Henrietta Torr, as bridesmaid, will wear orchid colored chamoisee with overdrappings of chiffon embroidered in gold.

Sergeant D. L. Mullaney, of the Six Hundred and Tenth Squadron, will be best man.

A wedding supper will follow the service, after which Sergeant and Mrs. Roberts will leave for a wedding trip to Princeton, N. J., and New York City. On their return they will reside, for the present, at 304 Walnut street.

Miss Armstrong is a soprano of much ability and her beautiful voice has been heard frequently in the many patriotic musical events and patriotic churches of the city.

Sergeant Roberts is a native of Wales, having moved to the States five years ago. He was a student in music at the Royal Academy in London, before coming to America, and finished his training with John S. Evans, an eminent Welsh vocalist of New York. He has been singing for some weeks at the Stevens Memorial Church Sunday nights.

Mrs. Roberts is well known in the city as a very fine vocal artist. She, too, has had a large training in her profession.

Wears Leg of Another Man, Says Wounded Soldier

Philadelphia, Jan. 25.—That a leg of another soldier was grafted in place of his own left leg, which he lost in the war, is the interesting information Private John F. Buckley, 21 years old, of 508 North Front street, Camden, is giving his friends, and when some of them yesterday told the soldier that surgeons doubted that such an operation could be successfully performed, he produced the proof of his story. On his naked leg he pointed to a portion of the left leg containing more flesh than the other and said it grew there while the limb was being grafted. He contended that the grafting took place a short distance above the left knee.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY IS CAUSE OF LEGAL ACTION

Harry L. Biever was given a preliminary hearing before Alderman Murray on the charge of assault and battery on the person of Chester Reigle. Reigle said he charged Biever with a serious misdemeanor when he found him with Reigle's wife. Biever resented the charge. Reigle said, and made an attack upon him, inflicting bodily injuries. Reigle brought charges against Biever.
