ill Box Here Tomorrow Night

o-morrow night promises to be elixer in the boxing areaa, for Motive Power folks have ared a tiptop program. Sammy will get a warm hand, no t, for he jabbed Joe Tiplitz all the ring on Saturday night at vational in Philadelphia, get the decision. Sammy is a southand his odd style is very interg even when you have seen him uple times. He opens his guard old Joe Choyinski and the foe is led to know what his strategy ing to be. When expecting a bing to be. When expecting a lead Sammy confuses the enemy a right and it takes a clever to outguess him. Sammy was ked up some when he returned he will be on the job with ty of zip to-morrow night to le Russell, of Lancaster anager Runk was assured to-that the program would go ugh as planned, including the k and diverting puglist, Dick in, the game little chap who hown here to-day in his fighting but not displaying his goose mpaniment which adds greatly is class. ## Gordon Ford's Team Loses Close Game to Fast Hancock

Six - cylinder basketball at Chestnut street on Saturday night ave Gordon Ford's Independents the first jolt they have suffered for a long time. It was no jinx; just swift, dazzling play which resulted in the Hancock taking the gray, 35-29. Manager Ford was badly han-dicapped in the absence of Ire McCord and Harry Rote. The latter had been advertised to ap-pear and being a town hero this word brought an extra attend-ance who were greatly disap-pointed at the finish. Besides this "Horse" Haggerty had a guy named Hugg oppoged to him, and when Haggerty haggled Hugg, Hugg hugged for Ford and gave a good account of himself.
