eeking to beat Cumming's old rk of 51 minutes 6 3-5 seconds, ran 10 miles in the marvelous of 55 minutes 55 seconds. This formance is less than 13 seconds wer than "Alife" Shrubb's world's ord of 50:40 3-5, and the experts of as McCrae run are unanimous habit less enthusiasm in the he opinion that had the Scot run tileve miles he would have turn three miles he world over have held to be unbeatable.

McCrae is probably the most rethe opinion that had the scot runt five miles he would have turned Shrubb's record by a good mark. The world over have held to be unbeatable.

In his great 10-mile performed at Edinburgh the Scot raced ough the first mile in 4 minutes 3-5 seconds. When he made the mile record 14 years ago Shrubb in the first mile in 44 1-5, and even seall-more than 7 seconds slow than McCrae's—was considered cidal for any 10-mile runner barty the great wishie. When Cumbers did his 51:06 3-5 he ran the timile a bit slower than 5 mins.

Remarkable Runner to the mark that athletic experts the sold of the mark that athletic experts the world overlave have held to be unbeatable. McCrae is probably the most remarkable professional runner that the world over seen. He works also has a race on. When he has a race on saturday McCrae always does his regular day's work on Friends and the most remarkable because of the fact that of, late he has earned many good sized purses. For beating Cummings' record, which was made in purse of about $1,300. In spite of having taken in this goodly sum, McCrae was rewarded with a purse of about $1,300. In spite of having taken in this goodly sum, McCrae was back on his job in the shale pit bright and early the next Monday morning.

Tarsus lost its initial engagement Tarsus lost its initial engagement but put up a good battle considering St. Mary's strength. That team includes Gerdes and Gough, of the Independents; Sourbier, of Hassett, last year; Bihl, of Tech. It is a doughty bunch and Tarsus did well to keep the score down. To-night Tarsus plays the Time Department of the Pipe Bending Works on St. Paul's floor. Books, former Tarsus star, is captain of this team. Mc-Connell and N. Ford, former Independents, also play on this team.

Only one shift has been made in the program for the de luxe boxing tourney tonight at the Motive Power arena, Sixth and Reilly streets, namely in the opponent for Harrisburg's, premier scrapper, Sammy Schiff. Young Russel failed to make a showing last night at Lancaster with a kid named Ochs, and the Motive Power management gave him the hooks; selecting some one with a kick and a jolt, whose name was not given out early to-day.

Letters received by the Telegraph sporting editor tell of a delegation of fans from Altoona who are betting on Dick Conlin, the amazing "goose" fighter, who dropped his opponent when he showed here the last tmie. One correspondent says: "There will be a different type of boxing when our goose boy steps in the ring. If all signs do not fall this will be the swell bout of the evening as Dick has been training day and night. Baldy Brant is also in great condition and these two are going to put Altooma on the map Thursday night. Baldy will put his men to sleep is the betting here."
