PRICES AND WAGES
"PRICES are falling much more rapidly than wages," says a financial observer in a New York Journal of Commerce.

Nor is it surprising that manufacturers are shading the prices they quoted last fall, when it looked as though the war might run at least another year, with ever-increasing costs of production that would necessarily have followed the decrease of man-power and reductions in stocks of raw materials.

REFORMING THE TYPIST
THE city of Syracuse is all "het up" over the proposal of the Council of Women's Clubs that girls working in public places be uniformed and that typists and stenographers be required to wear less transparent waists.

STICK TO ONE JOB
THE Dry Federation lets it be known that it intends to confine its efforts to the abolition of the liquor traffic.

rum element more than to see prohibition societies shunted off to the curb and advocates pursuing of their hunt for bear to pursue rabbits and chipmunks.

Politics in Pennsylvania
By the Ex-Committeeman
The contest of selection of a resident clerk of the House to succeed William S. Leib, of Schuylkill, who has held the place the last half dozen sessions and which has stirred up men in politics in the State, ended last night when Milton K. Burger, of Chambersburg, was unanimously selected.

A DISGRACEFUL SHACK
D. STOKES, speaking at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon yesterday, referred to Harrisburg's so-called "sanitary hospital" as a "pesthouse" and a "disgraceful shack," and nobody in Harrisburg took offense.

General Wood and New Army
(From the Philadelphia Inquirer)
General Leonard Wood worthily wears the rare jewel of consistency. He insists that it is quite as important to come to a sensible decision regarding the future defense of this country as it was before the war.

A PARAMOUNT ISSUE
[From the Philadelphia Press.]
Governor Sprout has acted promptly in the matter of Postmaster General Burleson's increased telephone charges.

LABOR NOTES
The United States Steel Corporation employs nearly 400,000 people.
The total trade union membership in Canada numbers over 200,000.

Wanted Warning
Mr. McCaodo should have given us some warning. One has an uncomfortable feeling that half of the United States government has resigned from the Charlestown News and Courier.

They All Like Him Anyway
An optimist is usually popular and quite often his facts are wrong. From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE WILD
O wild woods and rivers and untrod sweeps of sod,
I exult that I know you,
I have felt you and worshipped you,
I cannot be robbed of the memory of horse and plain,
Of bird and flower,
Nor the song of the illimitable west wind.
—Hamlin Garland.

The Necessary Horse
"Do you think the motor will entirely supersede the horse?" Farmer hope not," replied Farmer Cynnotus. "There must be some market for hay. I depend on what I make on hay to buy gasoline."
—Washington Star.

Until it was announced that the State Game Commission authorized proposed to stock the state's game preserve in the Lykens valley probably very few people knew that the Lykens valley, owned land in Dauphin county, was less than 100 miles from Harrisburg.

By BRIGGS
"OH-M-H-MARY-COME BACK TO MEN!"
"BLESS THIS PLACE! NO GOOD—I LEAVE"
"OH-M-H-M-GIRLS-AIN'T IT A GR-R-R-R-R-AND FLOR-R-R-RIOUS FEELIN'?"

"SILE"
I came upon the name an hour ago Of Silas Drew, just half way down the list Of "Soldiers Killed in Action." Well I know That he'll be missed.

A NOTE ON IGNORANCE
(Thomas L. Masson in the Outlook)
Some people think that ignorance is merely an accumulation of facts. But that hypothesis reveals a lack of imagination. Ignorance, any more than knowledge, is not concerned with facts. It is concerned with the product of one's general intelligence.

A PROMISING START
(From Pennsylvania Farmer.)
In the organization of the Pennsylvania Legislature, Mr. M. M. Hollingsworth of Chester county, was made chairman of the House committee of agriculture. Latest reports indicate that E. E. Jones, of Susquehanna county, will head the agricultural committee in the Senate.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE
—Major R. A. Keilty, of the army has been named as pathologist of the new hospital at Camp Detrick.
—Robert S. Judge, in charge of department of justice activities in Pittsburgh district, has resigned and will likely go back to West Virginia.

A Helpful Hint
If you have a spring to sing or wait until next spring. Sing now.
If you know a funny thing, don't let the point take wing. Tell it.
If you have a job of work or a mule and a dog and a shirk, get done.
If you always do this way, sing a joke and work each day, twirl your hair.

The Wherewithal
Knicker—A big university will ply a psychology test for new recruits.
Bocker—But father will still subject to the Bradstreet test.

Good Until July 1st
Congressmen from wet regions congratulate themselves that District is no longer ten miles from Washington.
