Tramping 18 miles a day, Mr. H. M. Foreman, a mail carrier of Allentown, Pa., found that shoes with ordinary soles last about one month. But he says a pair of Neōlin-soled shoes gave him more than nine months of service, n which time he walked over 4,000

hood of the city celebrates its thirty-first anniversary with a dinner dance at the Penn-Harris.

This organization, formerly known as the Ladies' Hebrew Social Circle, has always been active in religious, charitable and social affairs. During the war the social activities were replaced by Red Cross relief and similar work, and now that the war is over the members of the society feel that they may fittingly celebrate this anniversary.

SPECIAL CHAPEL HELD

A special chapel was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of impressing the importance of fire drills for the students. Due to some unknown reasons there had been no fire drills held at all this year. Yesterday Prof. Severance read the fire regulations provided by the school board, and went over the various exits that are to be used in case of fire. Shortly after the assembly, an alarm was sounded, and the entire building was emptied of students and teachers in a very short time. A new ruling went into effect yesterday concerning where the pupils should go after they leave the building during these drills. Instead of congregating any place on the street, the lines were kept the entire time the student body was outside of the school. This new method proved very efficient, when the gong was sounded to return to classes.

Seniors Plan Play

The first real work of the senior class play committee was done yesterday, when President Lewis Rimer called a meeting between sessions. In view of the fact that both Prof. Severance and Prof. Rose thought it impossible for the present senior class to give a musical play, the committee dropped that idea, and took up the one of a comedy. Mrs. Ewing, instructor in declamation, was present at the meeting and has consented to drill the cast for the play. It will be remembered that she drilled the cast for the 1918 class play, "The Hoodoo," and turned out one of the best amateur plays ever presented in this city. The action of the committee will be reported to the class at a meeting as soon as Rimer can arrange to hold one. The committee in charge of the play includes President charge of the play includes Pres SPECIAL CHAPEL HELD
