NEW RUSSIA TO BE UNDER RULE OF OWN PEOPLE

Allied Governments Hear Dec- Noted Speakers Appear Belaration From Conference of Ambassaodrs in Paris

The principles which will form the sis of the democratic organization Russia are:

1. The new legal order must be founded on the sovereignty of the people, who will exercise their power through organizations of their own choice, which will be responsible to the people and will guarantee to them the unallenability of their sovereignty.

2. No difference is to be made between the people's prerogatives and class privileges. There will be equality for all in the eyes of the law, and free access to all the degrees of the political and social scale.

3. The rapid development of producing forces. The encouragement of all private initiative and all measures likely to attract capital into the country. At the same time the state must adopt allowing classes all the economic and social lexperlence accumulated by international practice.

4. The most important questions where the settlement of self prohibition becomes effective one year from that date.

The proclamation was signed by Mr. Polk at 11.24 o'clock in the presence of Senator Sheppard, of Texas, author of the amendment resolution; former Secretary Bryan, Representative Randall, of California, Prohibition member, of the House, and officials of the Anti-Saloon League of America; the Women's Christian Temperance Union and other anti-saloon organizations.

MRS. BAILEY TO ENTERTAIN THE

Last year Charles E. C. Hoover and Harry E. Fetrow, both applied for a license for the Fort Hunter Inn, Rockville. The court refused the petitions, but this year Hoover has applied again.

Although the breweries are no longer making beer, four of the five licensed ones in the county again applied. The petition for the Graupner brewery at Tenth and Market streets, had not been filed at an early hour this afternoon, but it was believed that attorneys would present it before the prothonotary's office closed.

Lawyers to-day said that it is evident the present license holders believe the July 1 order will not be enforced and that their permits to sell intoxicants will be good until next January when the prohibition amendment becomes operative.

Others who were not so optimistic about the future of liquor sales it is believed took a chance on the probable revocation of the July 1 order, and rather than not have a license should they be permitted to sell liquor after that date, preferred to sell very the tax and do business pending any further action by the gov-
