While this bore on the instructions for Poland, yet the main desire of reference representatives at the Princes Islands, but the Russian committee in Paris will probably make a formal response in a few days on beaulf of the various other delegates, Kramarz and Benes.

Two official communications on yesterday's peace proceedings were issued. The first says:

"The President of the United States, the premiers and foreign ministers of the allied and associated governments and the Japanese representatives held two meetings on January 29. The morning sitting was devoted to hearing reports of delegates, who made general statements on the Polish situation and Polish claims. In the afternoon the Czecho-Slovak delegates gave their views on the question of the industrial basin in Silesia, situated between Bohemia and Poland."

The other communique says:

and Poland."

The other communique says:
"Since Monday last Mr. Barnes (British minister without portfolio) has been conferring with prominent British trade unionists and representatives of India and the dominions on the draft of a scheme for the international regulation of conditions of employment. The scheme has been closely examined, and the experience of all present at the conference has been freely placed at Mr. Barnes' disposal. Many valuable suggestions have been made and it is felt that full light has been given to the views of organized British trade unionists.

"The conference concluded at noon January 29, and the draft scheme agreed upon will be submitted to the International Com-mission on Labor Regulation, which was appointed on Saturday last at the Peace Conference."

FATE OF GERMAN COLONIES DISCUSSED

acter of this administration, with a the council was to hear the Poles to protecting the interests of and Czecho-Slavs concerning the

the nation and the population.

Later in the day Premier Hughes, of Australia, who is the exponent of the extreme view for outright annexation of the colonies, conferred with Colonel House in a further effort to secure a middle round. In the meantime the various British dominion deleates held a meeting and conferred with Premier Lloyd George for the purpose of determining their course.

The result of this meeting was not made known, but the sentiment in conference circles is strongly hopeful that an agreement will be reached which will preserve the American plan of a mandate, without hampering the power in administering a colony.

The council was to hear the Poles and Czecho-Slavs concerning the warfare now going on between them along the Silesian frontier. This of the two countries is regarded as contrary to the recent warning given by the council against the occupation of territory by force.

The hearings yesterday and the departure of the commission for Poland are expected to put an end to this internal conflict between two powers which are represented at the conference.

said, "was to fool the people into believing American bayonets were necessary to protect Archangel stores from the Germans" and that the suggestion is "the veriest kind of pretense."

Disclaiming sympathy with Bolshevism or belief that it is likely to find root in America, Senator Johnson said he expected "the servile part of the press" would apply the term bolshevik to him.

"During the war," he said, "it became fashionable to call all the disagreed with any governmental policy pro-German. Now x x any man who will not accept the wrongful edict of entrenched power is by that token a Bolshevik."

Before Senator Johnson delivered his address, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee met but took no action on his resolution calling for official announcement to American purposes in Russia, nor on that of Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, Republican, proposing systponement at the paece conference of the questions of a league of nations and freedom of the seas.
