

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

Lewistown Soldier Is Dead at Fort Sill, Okla. Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 30.—Bert...

Hotel Is Said to Be Unsanitary; Protest Transfer of License Wrightsville, Pa., Jan. 30.—

My Wolf Boy Believed Dead Mt. Wolf, Pa., Jan. 30.—Daniel...

Sewing Circle Meets Blain, Pa., Jan. 30.—The Ladies...

Rheumatism A Home Cure Given By One Who Had It In the spring of 1893 I was...

A Clean Scalp Parisian Sage Quickly Stops All Itching and Prevents Dandruff...

I Blame the Woman Who Lets a Man Drink Says Druggist Brown of Cleveland. He guarantees a Simple Home Treatment Given Without the Knowledge of the Drinker.

RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS PRAISED BY MANY "Twenty years ago I was bothered with rheumatic pains through my shoulders and lungs to such an extent that my head was drawn down on my chest causing great suffering..."

Day and Night School DIAL 4016 ENTER ANY TIME BELL 125 Harrisburg's Greatest Commercial School BECKLEY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE THE OFFICE TRAINING SCHOOL 121 MARKET STREET

Children Fail to Go to School Three Cases From Montgomery Township in Franklin Courts Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—

Philadelphia to Be Buried at Hummelstown Hummelstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—The body of Guy H. Fox, who died in Philadelphia on Tuesday morning, will be brought to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, tomorrow, at noon. Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Arthur R. King, pastor of the Reformed Church. Burial will be in the Hummelstown Cemetery.

TO REPEAT CONTEST Liverpool, Pa., Jan. 30.—The Young People's Missionary Society will repeat its missionary oratorical missionary contest at Montgomery's Perry, Union Church on Sunday, February 2, at 1.30 p. m.

GRANGE TO MEET Liverpool, Pa., Jan. 30.—A grange will meet on Wednesday, February 27, at the home of W. E. Hebel. At the meeting "How to Lower the High Cost of Living" will be discussed by Mrs. George W. Crow, Mrs. W. E. Hebel and Miss Myra Farmer will give a piano duet and Mrs. J. W. Spicher a recitation.

DIES AT ROCHESTER Liverpool, Pa., Jan. 30.—A Wesley Holliday, a native of Liverpool, died at the home of his father, John W. Holliday, in Rochester, N. Y., on Monday of pneumonia. He is survived by wife and five daughters, a father and one sister.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY Marietta, Pa., Jan. 30.—This evening the pupils of the Marietta High School will present a play in connection with the regular monthly session of lyceum in the high school room.

FINDS PEARL Marietta, Pa., Jan. 30.—James H. Brunner, West Market street restaurateur, while opening some oysters at his place of business found a large pearl frozen in the shell. It is valued at about $100.

York Countians Plant Gardens Hallam, Pa., Jan. 29.—Although the season for gardening is still some time off, several residents in this section of the county have started to till the soil and are planting onions and peas. The spring-like weather has brought about the early gardening. The soil appears somewhat damp for successful gardening.

WAYNESBORO SOLDIER DEAD Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Etta Strine, this city, has received a letter informing her of the death of her son, Corporal Crawford C. Strine, who was a member of Company E, 316th Infantry. Some time ago official word was received by Mrs. Strine stating that her son had been wounded in action, but later reports as to his condition led to the impression that he was gradually improving.

PLAN DEPARTMENT STORE Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Morris Nathan, proprietor of a leading department store in Johnstown, has arrived here to make arrangements for the opening of a department store here.

AUTO INJURIES CAUSE TROUBLE Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Miss Marian Heffler, of McConnellsburg, Fulton county, has been admitted to the Chambersburg hospital for an operation on her right leg. Miss Heffler was injured shortly before Christmas, when an auto was driven by Max Sheets, of this place, struck her and her friend, Miss Anna Mary Sipes. Miss Sipes died from injuries received in the accident.

ACCEPTS WASHINGTON CALL Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 30.—The Rev. Dr. G. M. Diefenderfer, for thirteen years, pastor of the First Lutheran church here, who was for some months at Newport News, as camp pastor, has accepted the pastorate of the Lutheran Memorial church in Washington, and will assume his duties April 1. The Rev. Dr. Diefenderfer resigned his position here to accept a post as secretary of the Pastor's Fund Society of the Lutheran church, relinquishing this to take up the duties of camp pastor. He is widely known throughout Pennsylvania and has held many important church posts.

DIES AT PHILADELPHIA Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 30.—Relatives here were informed late yesterday of the death at Grand View sanatorium of the Rev. Dr. Mervin J. Eckels, a widely known Presbyterian minister, who was for some years in charge of the Arch Street Presbyterian church in Philadelphia. He was 64 years old and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Eckels, of New Kingston, Cumberland county, and was educated in the local schools, Chambersburg Academy, Lafayette College, and the Western Theological Seminary, at Pittsburgh.

LOGGED IN JAIL Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 30.—After eluding officers for nearly two days after he was engaged in a fight in which he is alleged to have attacked a neighbor with a razor, Abram Lane, colored, of Carlisle, was arrested at the point of a revolver by local officers and lodged in jail. A charge of assault with intent to kill has been lodged against him.

FOUR TEACHERS ARE ILL Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Four teachers in the local schools are off duty because of illness. One of them, Miss Mabel Hockenberry, a member of the High school faculty, being in the Merklein Hospital here undergoing treatment. The other teachers who are ill are Miss Pauline Drawbaugh, Miss Kate Sheets and Miss Mary Gano.

C. V. NEWS CHILDREN FAIL TO GO TO SCHOOL

Seventy-five Blain Men, Under Captain John A. Wilson, Made Offer January 12, 1861

Main, Pa., Jan. 30.—The great war has awakened a new pride of Perry countians in their county, and investigations have been made as to what the county has done in the past. These searches for information have revealed the fact that one of the county's towns, Blain, made the first definite offer of volunteers for the Union cause. The offer was made on January 12, 1861, even before war was declared, to James Buchanan, then president of the United States.

Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Failure to enforce the compulsory school attendance law in Montgomery township, this county, because of opposition among the residents of the township, has resulted in the entrance of three actions in common pleas court of Franklin county, returnable on the first Monday in March. One of the cases was on the petition of Miss Nedra Schaeffer, a teacher in the Blain school, against Montgomery township, who on January 24, was arraigned before Magistrate John G. Palmer at Binol, this county, on a charge of having neglected to properly report the names of all children to the truant officer. She was adjudged guilty by the magistrate and was fined $20 and costs. Her appeal followed.

HOME FROM FRANCE Greencastle, Pa., Jan. 30.—Miss Grace Brumbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Brumbaugh, arrived home yesterday evening from New York, having landed there on the Rochambeau, after doing hospital duty in France. Miss Brumbaugh volunteered her services as a Red Cross nurse soon after war was declared with America.

PLAY NETS $310 Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—The play, "Scenes at the Union Depot," which was given by local talent for the benefit of the Citizens Fire Company, and one of the most successful ever given, netted the company the sum of $310. The money will be used to cover expenses of a fitting celebration for the soldiers of the town when they return to their homes again.

TO HOLD FARMERS' INSTITUTE Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 30.—All plans have been completed for the Farmers' Institute, to be held on Saturday, to be held in the Wayne Heights High school building. The first session will be held Friday at 1.30 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for the best potatoes, corn and baked cakes by the women.

WOMAN NOTARY PUBLIC Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Miss Lydia M. Kump, of this place, has lifted her commission as notary public. The commission is for four years, dating from January 20, 1919.

Suburban Notes HALIFAX Mrs. J. G. Smith will give an address Sunday morning at the missionary service of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School. The H. A. Club will hold a bake Saturday afternoon in the basement of the Methodist Church. Mrs. John Spence, aged 82 years, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selzer, in Halifax township after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the Selzer home, conducted by the Rev. J. F. Stables, pastor of the Fishersville Lutheran Church. Interment will be in the Fishersville Cemetery. The Christian Endeavor Society of the United Brethren Church will render a special program Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

MIDDLEBURGH Mr. and Mrs. Dal Marks and son, of Lewistown, spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stahnecker. Miss Marian Charles, of Sunbury, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Charles. Mr. and Mrs. R. Kreeger are visiting friends in Williamsport. James Sigler spent several days of this week in Philadelphia. Mrs. George Roush and Mrs. Murray Kratzer spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives at Pine Grove Mills. Mrs. B. B. Belstel, of Harrisburg, visited friends on Wednesday.

ELIZABETHVILLE Miss Pearl Gaupp, who had been nursing in France for a year, has returned home. Isahiah Swab visited at Buffalo for several days. Miss Mary Shadle has returned from a several weeks' visit in Philadelphia. Private Stewart Swab, who was stationed at Camp John Wise, San Antonio, Texas, has been discharged from the Army. Sergeant Lester Horner, of Camp Meade, Md., has been discharged and has returned home. G. F. Holtzman, of Edinboro, Md., visited friends and relatives on Sunday. Melvin Romberger, of Sunbury, spent several days here.

PERRY MEN FIRST TO OFFER THEIR SERVICES IN CIVIL WAR

Seventy-five Blain Men, Under Captain John A. Wilson, Made Offer January 12, 1861

Main, Pa., Jan. 30.—The great war has awakened a new pride of Perry countians in their county, and investigations have been made as to what the county has done in the past. These searches for information have revealed the fact that one of the county's towns, Blain, made the first definite offer of volunteers for the Union cause. The offer was made on January 12, 1861, even before war was declared, to James Buchanan, then president of the United States.

Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Failure to enforce the compulsory school attendance law in Montgomery township, this county, because of opposition among the residents of the township, has resulted in the entrance of three actions in common pleas court of Franklin county, returnable on the first Monday in March. One of the cases was on the petition of Miss Nedra Schaeffer, a teacher in the Blain school, against Montgomery township, who on January 24, was arraigned before Magistrate John G. Palmer at Binol, this county, on a charge of having neglected to properly report the names of all children to the truant officer. She was adjudged guilty by the magistrate and was fined $20 and costs. Her appeal followed.

HOME FROM FRANCE Greencastle, Pa., Jan. 30.—Miss Grace Brumbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Brumbaugh, arrived home yesterday evening from New York, having landed there on the Rochambeau, after doing hospital duty in France. Miss Brumbaugh volunteered her services as a Red Cross nurse soon after war was declared with America.

PLAY NETS $310 Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—The play, "Scenes at the Union Depot," which was given by local talent for the benefit of the Citizens Fire Company, and one of the most successful ever given, netted the company the sum of $310. The money will be used to cover expenses of a fitting celebration for the soldiers of the town when they return to their homes again.

TO HOLD FARMERS' INSTITUTE Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 30.—All plans have been completed for the Farmers' Institute, to be held on Saturday, to be held in the Wayne Heights High school building. The first session will be held Friday at 1.30 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for the best potatoes, corn and baked cakes by the women.

WOMAN NOTARY PUBLIC Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Miss Lydia M. Kump, of this place, has lifted her commission as notary public. The commission is for four years, dating from January 20, 1919.

Suburban Notes HALIFAX Mrs. J. G. Smith will give an address Sunday morning at the missionary service of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School. The H. A. Club will hold a bake Saturday afternoon in the basement of the Methodist Church. Mrs. John Spence, aged 82 years, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selzer, in Halifax township after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the Selzer home, conducted by the Rev. J. F. Stables, pastor of the Fishersville Lutheran Church. Interment will be in the Fishersville Cemetery. The Christian Endeavor Society of the United Brethren Church will render a special program Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

MIDDLEBURGH Mr. and Mrs. Dal Marks and son, of Lewistown, spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stahnecker. Miss Marian Charles, of Sunbury, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Charles. Mr. and Mrs. R. Kreeger are visiting friends in Williamsport. James Sigler spent several days of this week in Philadelphia. Mrs. George Roush and Mrs. Murray Kratzer spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives at Pine Grove Mills. Mrs. B. B. Belstel, of Harrisburg, visited friends on Wednesday.

ELIZABETHVILLE Miss Pearl Gaupp, who had been nursing in France for a year, has returned home. Isahiah Swab visited at Buffalo for several days. Miss Mary Shadle has returned from a several weeks' visit in Philadelphia. Private Stewart Swab, who was stationed at Camp John Wise, San Antonio, Texas, has been discharged from the Army. Sergeant Lester Horner, of Camp Meade, Md., has been discharged and has returned home. G. F. Holtzman, of Edinboro, Md., visited friends and relatives on Sunday. Melvin Romberger, of Sunbury, spent several days here.

Columbia Council Favors the Scheme of Making Susquehanna Navigable

Columbia, Pa., Jan. 30.—Borough council, in special session last night, unanimously adopted a resolution instructing the secretary to write to the United States Senators from Pennsylvania and the members of Congress from Lancaster county, requesting them to use their influence and best endeavors in Congress to accomplish the navigation of the Susquehanna river from Chesapeake Bay to a point as far north as may be deemed feasible. This action followed the movement started by the Merchants and Manufacturers Association. The Harrisburg Rotary Club is promoting the same enterprise. It is urged that petitions be sent from businessmen throughout the Susquehanna Valley to their representatives in Congress to further the project.

Soldier Elected to Teach at York Haven York Haven, Pa., Jan. 30.—John Beshore, who was only recently discharged from the army, was elected teacher of the fifth and sixth grades school, to succeed Mrs. Frank Mickey, at a special meeting of the York Haven school board Tuesday night. Mr. Beshore, who is a former Newberry township teacher, will assume charge on Monday. Mrs. Mickey's resignation becoming effective February 1.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES Hummelstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—The Rev. J. R. Zook, of Des Moines, Ia., has arrived here and is the guest of the Rev. Samuel E. Rehm. The Rev. Mr. Zook will conduct a series of evangelistic services in the Brethren in Christ Church.

May Remove Position of Williamstown Miner's Son Williamstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—It is rumored that the breakery of the mines at this place will shortly be removed to Big Lick, between here and Lykens. Operations are now under way at Big Lick, making ready for big changes which will shortly take place. It is said that a big volume of the work done at Williamstown will be removed to that place.

Columbia Plans Community Home as Soldier Memorial Columbia, Pa., Jan. 30.—A citizens' meeting for the purpose of erecting a community home in Columbia is to be held in the high school auditorium, Friday evening, February 7, under the auspices of the Woman's Club. Delegates are being named from all the civic and fraternal organizations in the borough and the speaker to be thoroughly discussed and probably a decision reached as to the future plans. It is intended that the community home shall be a memorial for Columbia soldiers.

SNYDER DIRECTORS MEET Middleburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—The annual convention of the Snyder county school directors was held in the courthouse at Middleburg Tuesday. Dr. Tietrich, deputy state superintendent of public instruction, of Harrisburg; Dr. G. M. Phillips, principal of the West Chester State Normal School, and D. H. Mauser, superintendent of schools of Northumberland county, were the speakers. P. S. Ritter, of Middleburg, was elected president, and James Herman, of Adams township, secretary of the convention.

DIES AT WILLIAMSTOWN Williamstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—Thomas C. Bowman, aged 37, died at his home on Tuesday of influenza after a week's illness. He is survived by his wife, seven children and his father.

OVERSEAS VETERAN HOME Williamstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—Lieutenant Harry Edwards, who was wounded in action in France, arrived to-day to spend a few days with his mother. Lieutenant Edwards will return in a few days to a hospital in New York city.

GASSED SOLDIER RETURNS Lykens, Pa., Jan. 30.—Robert D. Schreffler, son of George W. Schreffler, arrived home Monday evening. He was gassed at Verdun last September and has spent several weeks at different hospitals on this side since his return from overseas.

WOMAN NOTARY PUBLIC Chambersburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—Miss Lydia M. Kump, of this place, has lifted her commission as notary public. The commission is for four years, dating from January 20, 1919.

Suburban Notes HALIFAX Mrs. J. G. Smith will give an address Sunday morning at the missionary service of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School. The H. A. Club will hold a bake Saturday afternoon in the basement of the Methodist Church. Mrs. John Spence, aged 82 years, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selzer, in Halifax township after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the Selzer home, conducted by the Rev. J. F. Stables, pastor of the Fishersville Lutheran Church. Interment will be in the Fishersville Cemetery. The Christian Endeavor Society of the United Brethren Church will render a special program Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

MIDDLEBURGH Mr. and Mrs. Dal Marks and son, of Lewistown, spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stahnecker. Miss Marian Charles, of Sunbury, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Charles. Mr. and Mrs. R. Kreeger are visiting friends in Williamsport. James Sigler spent several days of this week in Philadelphia. Mrs. George Roush and Mrs. Murray Kratzer spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives at Pine Grove Mills. Mrs. B. B. Belstel, of Harrisburg, visited friends on Wednesday.

ELIZABETHVILLE Miss Pearl Gaupp, who had been nursing in France for a year, has returned home. Isahiah Swab visited at Buffalo for several days. Miss Mary Shadle has returned from a several weeks' visit in Philadelphia. Private Stewart Swab, who was stationed at Camp John Wise, San Antonio, Texas, has been discharged from the Army. Sergeant Lester Horner, of Camp Meade, Md., has been discharged and has returned home. G. F. Holtzman, of Edinboro, Md., visited friends and relatives on Sunday. Melvin Romberger, of Sunbury, spent several days here.

Idle Since Christmas, Steel Plant Resumes Work

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 30.—After being idle more than a month the Logan Iron and Steel Plant, at Burnham resumed operations today. Six hundred and fifty men were employed in this plant before the mill was closed by a strike before Christmas. A portion of the men were out on a strike and this so badly crippled the working force that the entire works were shut down.

WICONISCO WARS ON DOGS Wiconisco, Pa., Jan. 30.—Constable Shomper is killing a number of dogs that are at large without license tags. Mr. Shomper is notifying all persons owning dogs to get the required license and until such time to keep same tied.

DIES OF "FLU" Williamstown, Pa., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Chester Greiner died at her home on Tuesday evening from influenza, aged 26 years. She is survived by her husband, two small children, her parents, one sister and two brothers. Burial will be in Evangelical Cemetery on Friday afternoon.

WIGHT records have little value unless correct. FARBANKS SCALES standard of the weighing world. Henry Gilbert & Son 300 South 2nd St., Harrisburg

What a Commotion there'll be in Harrisburg when tomorrow's Telegraph comes off the press. There you'll find the whole story — and it will be a relief to me — to unload this secret. It's keeping me awake o' nights. Mary Schaeffer North Third Street at No. 210

LOOK OUT FOR THE TRIANGLE MAN! Little Hazel Wilson 1306 N. Luzerne Ave. Baltimore, Md. INTRODUCES "THE TRIANGLE MAN" Read Her Letter--It Tells the Story-- Baltimore, Md. Jan. 11, 1919 The Triangle Mint Co. Dear Sirs:— I am sending you a drawing which I submit for your approval. I am a little girl 10 years old and have done my best. Respectfully Yours Hazel Wilson 1306 N. Luzerne Ave. Balto., Md. The Triangle Man TRIANGLE MINTS ARE MADE IN HARRISBURG TRIANGLE Mints please the taste of little folks and big folks alike. Evidently little Miss Wilson is a "booster" for Triangle Mints, because they are her favorite. That refreshing, delightful satisfaction that comes with Triangle Mints make them more than a confection. They are a daily necessity. Eat plenty of them. "WONDERFULLY GOOD" Peppermint Clove Wintergreen Cinnamon THE WINTERMINTS COMPANY Harrisburg, Penna. SALES DEPARTMENT TELEGRAPH BUILDING