February Sale Opens Tomorrow

These are the days when furniture is writing its own advertising. No advertisement that ever was written for good merchandise can come up to the publicity that good merchandise can write for itself in the minds of people who come in and look at it thoroughly and judge it fairly. People can see for themselves, they are seeing for themselves that we have the furniture here to make the greatest sale this store has ever known.

It has come to this, that the most alert and tasteful classes of people would no more pay out good money for furniture without first coming to Bowman's than they would throw good money away.

Scores of people came in on the two Courtesy Days to inspect the beautiful designs and to judge the excellent values. And as soon as the two splendid suites were placed on display in our windows, they attracted the attention of hundreds of people the first half day, and many expressions of admiration could be heard from time to time as groups of women and men assembled to view the glaze of line and quality of construction that has built for this store its reputation for dependable values in furniture. And during this February Furniture Sale, prices of course, have been reduced considerably below our usual moderate prices.
