 NEWS AND NOTES OF THE BOY SCOUTS &

PLAN FOR HUGE SCOUT BANQUET

Father and Son" Dinner to Be Held February 10; Many Stunts

Many Stunts

magements are well under way big celebration and night of the "Father and Son Ban-Owing to lack of room the ave had to be change and the will be held in the Masonic hall at Third and State instead of at the Penn-Harris Teckets are now at headquar-5c cents for a scout—$1.00 for ter. On the 'stunts' committees P. Jenkins, scoutmasop 8, and John German, Jr., aster of Troop 13. This comrequests that all reports on 'stunts' be made next Tuesening, February 4, at scoutseing, February 4, at scout the big celebration and night of sible 75 cents for a scout-$1.00 for or heaviness after meals are most annoying manifestations of acid-dyspepsia.

HEARTBURN

neutralize acidity and help restore normal digestion.

MADE BY SCOTT & BOWNE

HAIR NETS ARRIVER WAS

Coal Office

Seventh & Woodbine Sts.

OR the convenience of consumers up-

Orders given our up-town yard are filled carefully and promptly. No long waits for coal for the simple reason that the yard is located a short distance from the point of

Most coal dealers deliver good coalthey must, to stay in business; but there

United Ice & Coal Company delivers

may be a big difference in the way it is clean coal, carefully weighed, into your cellar with a minimum amount of dirt - and little delay. We endeavor to have cour-

United Ice & Coal Co., Main Office Forster and Cowden Sts. Also Steelton, Pa.

Absolutely No Pain

teous and considerate drivers.

town we maintain a coal office and yard at 7th and Woodbine Streets.

THE WIGWAM

Last Monday evening as the mar turn up we did not have our union

"HOLD TIGHT" HAIR HETS ENJOY AN ENVIABLE NATIONAL REPUTATION AND THE PRIENDSHIP OF MILLIONS OF WOMEN HOLD TIGHT" HAIR HETS ARE MADE OF THE FINEST REAL HUMAN HAIR. ALL SHADES.

THE OFFICE SCOUT

Dear Gang: Have you got yours? Has Did got his? Get 'em early. What?! Why your tickets for the father and son banquet, of course. Don't till me you don't know about it. It's going to be the only thing in town that night, and if you want a bang-up good time you'd better be at the Masonic Temple on the night of February 10th. Make it early, too. That's all I'm going to say about it but read this week's Wigwam, and the article about the affair. You'll decide to go then sure. I've been asked to state that all the Scouts who won prizes in the W. S. S. campaign contest in December are to come in to headquarters as soon as possible to select their prizes. We don't know what you want. Tou do. So let us know. I know what I'd get, but, gee, I didn't win one. nent in our Scout room, and the coutmaster sent messages to the couts. We also had some signal work.
Our new Assistant Scoutmaster,
Mr. Keller, asked if any Scouts had good turns to report. He was almost swamped by the Scouts. Scoutmaster Jenkins told of a novel good urn he had done for three persons. t was an exciting story, and also aught us a lesson. The Scouts of his Troop are securing "ads" for win one.

Won't Dad have a good time?

THE OFFICE SCOUT.

P. S.—Get 'em early. The number of tickets is limited.

Scouts of Troop 26 to Have a Champion Team

Have a Champion Team

We had some meeting on Monday evening at Troop 26. After the devotional exercises two first aid teams were picked by Assistant Scoutmaster Kohlhaas, and were given instruction in bandaging of lacerations of the head, shoulder, ribs and knee. It is likely that these same teams will give a splendid exhibition at the big Scout banquet on February 10. The Scouts who represent the two first aid teams are: Joseph Steele, Andrew Stouffer, Paul Wynn, Robert Quigley, John Byrem, H. Thurston Collicott. We will soon be prepared to meet any Scout team in first aid.

In the meantime Assistant Scoutmaster Sparrow, who had charge of the remaining Scouts, formed a bicycle faund. This squad will be really to answer calls from headquarters. Some interesting bicycle trips will be taken. The following Scouts belong to the Squad Wentzel Grove, Walker Edmondson, Lester Bowman, George Rodenheiser, H. T. Collicott, Joseph Steele. Any Scouts of Troop 26 wishing to join will please notify Mr. Sparrow.

Two of the Scouts brought fire making sets which they had made, but were unable to make a fire because they did not put enough pepinto it to get a fire. We are hoping for better results soon. They were then given a little instruction on a few of the constellations and how to find the north star. Also how

Troop Fourteen to Be

Present at Big Banquet
Troep 14 held a very successful meeting last Monday night. Two new members passed the tenderfoot examination. Action was taken on purchasing telegraph instruments to be installed in the scout room, for the use of those scouts who wish to learn the telegraph code. Our newly commissioned assistant scoutmaster, Malcolm Hall, took charge of the scouts at the close of the meeting and put them through the first steps in military drilling. He will continue training the scouts in this feature of scoutcraft for several weeks or so. The scouts were instructed by Scoutmaster Seifert to be sure to attend next Monday night's meeting at which time full particulars about anniversary week will be given out, and tickets will be placed on sale for the big scout banquet being held February 10. The scouts of our troop and their fathers are expected to be present in full force at the banquet. We are also planning to turn out in a body to attend the big scout service at Pine Street Presbyterian church, Sunday night, February 9.

SCRIBE, PAUL WARFIELD. Present at Big Banquet

TROOP 11 TO MEET
Troop 11 will hold one of the most inspiring meetings in its history. Owing to the large number of new members enrolled in the last few months, all patrols will be regranted and new patrol leaders and assistant leaders appointed. A new Scribe and treasurer will also be elected.

A doctor will be present at the meeting to give the boys directions in first aid. There will be basketball practice and wig-wagging following the meeting.

All members are urgently requested to be present at this meeting in uniform.

F. L. MURRAY, Acting Scrib

TROOP TWENTY IS VERY ACTIVE

The time—7.30 P. M., February 10.

The place—Masonic Temple.

The place—Masonic Temple.

The place—Masonic Temple.

The place—Wasonic Temple.

The place—Masonic Temple.

The place—Mas

a small forest!
One kind of fire which the forester explained was the "Crown Fire."
This fire is in the tops of the trees, and when once started cannot be stopped. Such fires travel with express train. speed, and he stated that he knew in ohe instance of a crown fire leaping a valley without setting fire to the valley itself.

The foresters live with their families in real log cabins and travel by trails only. The fire spotters have solitary huts on high peaks which over-look the forests. Here they must live for two weeks without seeing a human being until the supply man brings the groceries and provisions. These must be carried up on foot as horses cannot keep to the steep trails. The spotters are all connected by phone to a central station where fires are reported and records made, on a large chart of the forest.

This chart is marked off in squares and each one has a number. When the spotter reports fire in a certain area, this is marked, and by this means they can determine very accurately the range of the fire. When asked if it got very 'cold in Montana, Mr. McKibbin said, 'Not very. It was only 25 degrees below zero when I left in December.'

We intended to arrange for a union meeting with several troops to share Mr. McKibbin's talk, but because of the short notice we received this was impossible. However, when he comes east again, we will try to have him talk to all the ceived this was impossible. How-ever, when he comes east again, we will try to have him talk to all the troops at a big union meeting. Just now it's all out for the banquet. Henry A. Baer, Scribe.

Adopted by Scoutmasters

In order to have uniformity in the Scout Bugle Corps, the following decision was reached at the meeting of the Scoutmasters' Association on Tuesday evening:

"The requirements for a bugler shall be that he must be able to sound the following calls properly:

1—First call.

2—Reveille.

3—Mess.

4—Assembly.

5—Taps.

the bugler's insignia.

5—Taps.
Scouts who come up to these requirements will be entitled to wear

SHOULD STAND Commissioner Foust Declares That Any Reduction Would Mean Trouble

State Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust is opposing any change in the eleomargerine license law, especially in reduction of the license fees, such as is proposed by some bills presented to the Legislature and which are understood to be in prospect.

OLEO LICENSE

some bills presented to the Legislature and which are understood to be in prospect.

The commissioner has issued seven reasons why the state should not make any change in "oleo" laws, one being that the Pennsylvania law on the subject is the best of any state and that there is more of the product sold in Pennsylvania than in any other state. "If the license fee is eliminated crooks and irresponsible people will engage in the 'oleo' business," says-he. "Moonshining will start in cellars and other unsanitary places by unsanitary people coloring the product and selling it for butter and at butter prices."

The commissioner says oleomargerine has been sold for twelve years and is now recognized as a wholesome article of food, but it is not butter. He contends that it should make its own market and sell at its own price. Now, he says, its price is regulated by the price of butter and in Philipsburg, N. J., it sells for the same as in Easton, Pa., although New Jersey has no license, and Pennsylvania has such a system. The law is now working admirably, he contends, and there are practically no prosecutions and the consumption of the product in a degree greater than in any other state under such conditions, he says is an argument for letting the law stand. The license does not amount to one-eighth of a cent a pound now, he remarks and there are 200 licenses in Philiadelphia alone and every town has licensed places.

Troop Sixteen Helps

Troop Sixteen Helps to Start New Troop

The Troop met at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church on Sunday and from there walked up to St. Matthew's Lutheran, where the middle aisle was reserved for us. Every to noe was present except two members. Mr. Virgin then talked to the congregation about the Scout movement and of the things that keep the girls and boys in the church.
After Mr. Virgin had finished talking another man talked about the scout movement and of church benevolence.
A great many people shook hands with us when church was over. We hope the new Troop there is successful and good luck to them.
CLEON CRISWELL.
Scribe.

Yum! Yum! Pack Two
to Have Fried Oysters

glad not one of our fellows gets fifteen demerits for not going.

This week we have eats, and we hope George Boak and Richard Plams will be able to come. Mr. Virgin will be with us. I think we are going to have fried oysters and the thing for "Teddy Bear" and "Yale" half cuts—believe me, if your hair won't stay back with one of those caps on it's hopeless.

Sunday night we went to church at St. Matthew's Lutheran, and every cub there that fateful anglet. See you tonight. So long.

Cub Huston, Scribe.

MPERIAL COFFEE IS BOTH "ROASTED" AND PRAISED IN HARRISBURG one last week—flying cloud.

Sunday night we went to church at St. Matthew's Lutheran, and every cub there that fateful anglet. See you tonight. So long.

Cub Huston, Scribe.

MPERIAL COFFEE IS BOTH "ROASTED" AND PRAISED IN HARRISBURG IN HARRISBURG One last week—flying cloud.

Sunday night we went to church at St. Matthew's Lutheran, and every cub there that fateful anglet. See you tonight. See you

"Gee-but it's good!"

TITTLE Johnny's a pretty keen judge of food values. And he L says, right from the heart, that "Purity" Margarine is the best margarine he's ever tasted. "And, gee whiz," he adds enthusiastically, "you can't tell it from butter." Personally, we know that Johnny is 100% right because we eat "Purity" ourselves. You just ought to try it. Sells for about 25c per pound less than butter.

Capital City Dairy Company Branch, 40 S. Delaware Ave., Phila., Pa.

THE PUREST SPREAD FOR BREAD

Will Labor's Mighty Forces Form a New Party?

"Third Parties" in this country have generally come to grief, but the scope of the new movement to organize "hand and brain" workers into a political unit and its appearance in a winter of unrest and discontent convince observers that history is likely to forget to repeat herself in this instance. Samuel Gompers, a consistent opponent of the Labor-party idea, pleaded with New York leaders on the eve of his departure for Europe not to join the new movement, but within a week, as The Evening Post, (New York) notes, a New York Central Federated Union, the Brooklyn Central Labor Union, and the Woman's Trade Union League had met in convention and created the most formidable of the local party organizations.

In an enlightening article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST - February 1st - all the particulars of this new political movement are shown. The platform adopted in New York is also presented. A new political labor party directly affects millions of men and women in this country. Don't fail to read about this latest development in our industrial life.

Other articles of great interest in this number are:

Why the Farmer Opposes "Day-Light Saving"

The Result of an Investigation Made by "The Literary Digest" Among the Spokesmen For ral Papers Throughout the Country

The Probable Effect of Nation-Wide Prohibition The Railroads' Own Remedy Germany Votes For Order Does Finland Deserve Help? Lichnowsky's Peace Suggestions To Stop Germany at the Rhine A Tree Census Germany's Economic Crisis Rescuing Stranded Fish The Diminishing "Mayflowerites"

Teaching Americanism in the Factory Rostand's Satire of William A Poet's Horror of War French and American Praise for the "Y" The Trenches Against the Church Slackers in War Prove Slackers in

Marriage Jugo-Slavia The Best of the Current Poetry News of Finance and Commerce Personal Glimpses of Men and Events

Many Striking Illustrations, Together With the Best of the Cartoons

World Opinion On the Peace Conference Yours in "The Digest"

In Paris to-day an international conference without precedent in history is engaged upon the momentous task of reshaping the destinies of the world. The news of what is accomplished from week to week by this assemblage of liberal statesmen is perhaps the most important that has ever been given to the public. It will be fully covered in THE LITERARY DIGEST, as the conference progresses and compactly summarized for you, as will the view-points of the leading periodicals of all countries, from which quotations illustrative of every shade of opinion will be made for your benefit. If you wish, therefore, to be accurately informed as to what is being done in France and also as to what the press of the world thinks of it, your one sure way to knowledge is to read THE DIGEST.

February 1st Number on Sale Today---All Newsdealers---10 Cents

320 Market St.

HARRISBURG, PA.

EXAMINATION