

MILITARY PLAY IS ENTERTAINING

"Seven Days' Leave" Arouses Enthusiasm of Orpheum Audience

Military and naval affairs seem to have slipped into second place now that the peace conference is on, but when one sees such an appealing play as "Seven Days' Leave" presented at the Orpheum theater last night and to-day, the enthusiasm and determination which was so widespread in the United States during the war, seems to come back.

A realistic presentation of the fight to conquer not only the German army and navy, but the German spy. Some of the situations are extremely difficult to interpret properly, but at no time in the entire play, does anyone seem to lose an opportunity to other each scene in the best possible manner.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of Danderrin at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp.

What was the big idea anyway? Was this a personally conducted tour of the French? I had a great fear that I might grow so used to the same cell that I would break loose again? With no answer to all these questions I was chucked into another cell with an Italian and a Frenchman. Truly, nearly all the Allies were represented in that cell, but I fear Italy was badly represented, for that Dago sure was a little shy in the garret.

Good Old Original Bricker's O. K. Bread

That's the bread— That's the bread made of all-wheat flour, the through and through quality bread you rely on. We went through the war-time period on a substitute flour—but we made the best bread during that time, just the same. But now conditions are different—we may use all-wheat flour, so we use it. It wasn't an accident that made Bricker's O. K. Bread the best liked bread! You can't make a good bread accidentally—every day in the year. You've got to know how to make it. And then you've got to want to make. And on top of those you've got to MAKE IT. We MAKE IT. Look for the O. K. wrapper on the ORIGINAL.
