The detailed plans for Capitol park extension will be submitted to Governor William C. Sproul on

THE LEGISLATURE

Governor Sproul is desirous of get-ting something started on the new office buildings, so that the state can stop paying rent for scattered offices and centralize the offices in Philadelphia and other places in Harrisburg. The need of storage space is also becoming apparent, and the state has recently had to rent reoms in buildings about the city.

Pleased Customers

Mr. Wm. Strouse didn't order this advertisement to be put in the paper this way, but after hearing him tell how pleased the customers were who came to the Overcoat Sale last week, it seemed too good to keep.

Said he, "You know we had 85 of those overcoats to sell at $14.75 last Thursday and we said in the paper that we had only 85. They're nearly all gone. There are about a dozen coats left-and they'd have gone, too, but the right size fellows just didn't happen to come in."

Do you think for a minute that a good piece of news like that ought to be kept in the background? Not much!

¶ When a store can advertise 85 Overcoats of a certain line at a certain price to be sold on a certain day, and they sell, all but a dozen coats, isn't that worth talking about? It surely is.

It goes to show that the people believe the Wm. Strouse advertising. And it goes to show that they get what they go for. It proves that the people have confidence in the Wm. Strouse Store.

Many a time Wm. Strouse has said, "The best advertisement customer." the printed adthe world any good for a store didn't with the kind advertised.

is the pleased He's right. All vertisements in wouldn't do store if the back them up of merchandise ¶ Wm. Strouse Store stands back of its printed announcements, with the merchandise. Read the advertisements of this store and you know the full facts of the goods.

Take the Wm. Strouse 15-Day Clearance Sale as an example. There's a sale that is worth attending. No half way measures in that sale. Everything in the sale is a genuine reduction. And it's a mighty fine opportunity for any man to outfit himself and save a good bit of money.

If you've been in the service and you're returning to civil life-get in on those reductions in the 15-Day Clearance Sale. Buy a suit and overcoat in Wm. Strouse Store now. It's a sensible thing to do. The styles are just right, you'll wear the clothes with the same pleasure and satisfaction as though you paid full prices for them.

If it comes "down to dots" there's really no reason for reducing them, except to carry out the policy of clearing stocks each season. Yes, Mr. Reader, it's a good time to buy.
