MORE THAN $7,000 IN ROTARY CLUB'S FUND FOR HOMES

Frank B. Musser's Committee Reports $5,000 Goal Passed by $2,000 and Over

The Harrisburg Rotary Club started out to raise $5,000 for the Children's Industrial Home and Nursery Home and wound up last evening with a little more than $7,000, according to the report of Frank B. Musser, chairman of the committee in charge.

J. William Bowman, another member of the committee, said the money would be a godsend to the management of the Industrial Homes who had exhausted their funds and had no place to turn for more.

An interesting debate was also recently held. The question was "Resolved that the flivver car is more economical than the touring car." The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

Philosophy of Rotary The meeting last evening was in the rooms of the School of Commerce, Dwight L. Baker, the principal was sick and unable to attend.

The club last evening prepared for its annual ladies' night at the Penn-Harris Hotel, February 12, and decided to appoint an "on the Salt Lake" committee to arrange for the delegation that will attend the international Rotary convention there next June.

CURED HIS RUPTURE I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. It has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Fuller, care of 3523 Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

CATARRH VANISHES Here is One Treatment That All Sufferers Can Rely Upon If you want to drive catarrh and all its disgusting symptoms from your system in the shortest possible time, send to your druggist and ask for a Hyemel outfit to-day.

Breathes Hyemel and let it rid you of catarrh! It gives such quick relief that all who use it for the first time are astonished. Hyemel is a pure pleasant antiseptic, which is breathed into the lungs over the inflamed membrane; it soothes the sore spots, and heals all inflammation.

Don't suffer another day with catarrh! It is dangerous, and often ends in consumption. Start the Hyemel treatment to-day. No stomach dosing, no sprays or douches, just breathe it—that's all. Ask H. C. Kennedy.

Trade Not Buying, Philadelphia Dealer So Declares

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 5.—The toboggan appears to be well greased for the butter and egg market and prices continue to go lower. The tidal wave of popular anger, which has swept over quotations were 30 cents for eggs and 40 cents for butter.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—Declaring that the increasing surplus stocks of poultry, butter and eggs were accumulating so fast that consumption must be stimulated, Arthur Bonsal, of the Reading Terminal Market, said last night:

"Priced asked for poultry, butter and eggs are too high. That is all there is to it. People are refusing to buy, and to increase the consumption lower prices will have to be offered, but this is not the case. Fowls at 33 cents to 34 cents a pound are too high. Butter prices are falling, as is the price of strictly fresh eggs. The latter sold to-day at 50 cents a dozen. Butter that a few days ago sold at 80 cents a pound is selling now at 60 cents a pound."

Terminal Market prices for eggs varied considerably yesterday. Strictly fresh eggs sold at from 50 cents to 60 cents at the market stalls. In the wholesale market fresh eggs sold at from 28 cents to 41 cents a dozen. Reports received from Chicago by shippers showed the western market at 35 cents a dozen, with large shipments on route to the concentration points.

of melody of which Mr. Herbert seems to possess an inexhaustible store. His concerted numbers are elaborate in their musical construction. Among the most striking in his musical attractiveness is the "Sabot Dance" and "Pretty as a Picture," in fact, every number is a gem that needs no setting to enhance its brilliancy. The libretto, too, has accomplished the feat of writing words that can be sung intelligently and with new thoughts and humor, comedy and pathos such as are demanded in a production that has seldom been equaled. Scenically, "Sweethearts" is most pretentious, as presented. The first act is a replica of the old Belgian town of Bruges, for it is in this picturesque and, at present, devastated little kingdom of Belgium that the scenes of "Sweethearts" are all laid, but previous to the outbreak of the war and the subsequent desolation and destruction caused by the German hordes. The ancient homes of the quaint old town, with its windmills and canals, in the waters of which are reflected the ever changing colors of the sky, all furnish a beautiful frame that displays to the greatest possible advantage the talents of the young and pretty, in their attractive garb of bonnets, blue and white dresses and sabots.

Have you a service star in your heart for someone? If so, you simply must see "The Village Chestnut." A Twilight Tale He Left Behind. The new play which comes to the Orpheum next Tuesday and Wednesday with daily matinee. While there is absolutely no war in it, it is not shot in the usual manner of a love story, it tells a story that strikes home to everyone who has someone there, in an old-fashioned garden, where for generations the same old sweet story of a girl who becomes a youthful swain into the ears of maidens. It is absorbing. It is exciting and one or winning because it is really thrilling, but it is clean—entirely clean—with wholesome comedy and good drama, with absolutely no double entendre.

Those in search of splendid entertainment will appreciate the Matinee vaudeville bill to-morrow, featuring "Bobby" Heath and his five girls, in a Song Revue, and, as a popular attraction, Pierlot and Scelfo, presenting a pleasing little comedy of the Flying Mitchell, aerial artists; Rein and Fitch, two girls, charmingly gowned, in an original singing and comedy act, and "Dick" Knowles, clever comedian.

To-morrow a new bill opens, also beginning next Monday—the opening instalment of another thrilling story, "The Lightning Raider," starring popular Earl White, will be shown. Don't miss it.

COCOANUT OIL MAKES A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain an alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
