War Control Helped

"Cities and towns throughout the country now face a most important crisis. Under control of the military authorities four million soldiers and sailors received greater protection against diseases than they received before the war in civil life. ## Continu to Be Thrifty, the Federal Reserve Board Urges

Washington, Feb. 6.

CONTINUE to be thrifty. Pile up reserves of credit. Incustries of the United States and other countries will soon need quantities of capital. This is urged upon Americans by the Federal Reserve Board in a review of the forth-coming February reserve bulletin.

Deinite evidences of the beginning of financial recuperation following abnormal war conditions are reported to be a follows:

Ircrease of bank balances at financial centers; a tendency toward lower rates for money; lessening of the amount of way paper held by Federal Reserve and member banks; infow of gold coin and gold certificates at banks, indicating greater confidence in the financial situation and lessened demand for money; decline in the volume of Federal Reserve nites outstanding, demonstrating the elasticity of the Federal Beserve system

Opposes Transfer of Liquor Licenses Now

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 6 .- The trans Potsville, Pa., Feb. 6.—The transfer of liquor licenses, which has always been an important feature of court every week here, was given a body blow yesterday by Judge Berger, who said that the transfer of licenses at this time, in view of the nearness of prohibition next July, was a travesty.

"It makes those who get the transfers look ridiculous and the court even more ridiculous," said he.

Judge Berger advised all lawyers to discourage any transfers at this time, when the closing down of all saloons is imminent. He said no good business man would go into a business so soon to be closed up.

ed opinion to-day is that the menace of a general strike in London is removed. Many conferences were held yesterday and the Board of Trade and the cabinet had another meeting, but there has been no marked change in the situation.

Some suggestions for strikes in other trade unions were made, but nothing definite developed. Lord Henry Cavendish-Bentinck proposes to introduce in the House of Commons a bill enacting a universal working week of forty-four hours. The situation on the Clyde is still improving, thought there has been no general resumption of work, especially in the shipbuilding yards.

At Belfast, Lord Pirric, controller of merchant shipbuilding, had a long conference with representatives of the strikers. He proposed a temporary arrangement of work for fifty-four hours weekly, with overtime paid for all work exceeding forty-seven hours, pending a complete settlement. It is probable that a decision on this proposal will be reached to-day.
