

ACTIVITIES OF Y. W. C. A. DURING 1919 WERE MANY

Treasurer's Report at Annual Meeting Shows Small Balance at End of Year

That the Y. W. C. A. accomplished much during the year ending January 1, 1919, was shown in the various reports read at the twenty-sixth annual meeting, held in the John Y. Boyd Hall last evening, with the president, Mrs. John W. Reilly, in the chair. New board members were elected.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $27.50 in the treasury, with receipts for the year amounting to $10,983.36 and expenditures, $10,957.86. The financial report of the cafeteria showed receipts of $21,167.54 and expenditures, $20,437.46, leaving a balance of $730.07.

The following board members were elected: Mrs. William Jennings, Mrs. F. E. Downes, Mrs. Solomon Hiney, Miss Mary Hoffer, Mrs. J. Frank Palmer, Mrs. C. A. Kunkel, Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, Mrs. Edward Bailey, Miss Mary Gorman.

Those who remain in office from last year are: Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mrs. Henry B. McCormick, Mrs. William B. Hammond, Mrs.

Mabel Cronise Jones, Mrs. D. M. Gilbert, Miss E. Blanche Clute, Mrs. George Preston Mains, Miss Fannie M. Eby, Mrs. Robert A. Lambertson, Mrs. John H. Weiss, Mrs. William M. Hain, Miss M. Caroline Weiss, Mrs. D. S. Funk, Miss Mary Jennings and Mrs. J. K. Smith.

Two-minute talks were given by representatives of the industrial clubs, as follows: R. F. O. M., Miss Carrie Miller; Kresge Komrade, Miss Clara Wallower; Bachelor Girls, Mrs. Clara Wolfe; Blue Triangle, Mrs. John Kuhn; Monito, Miss Mary Bechtel; High School, Miss Grace Peake.

The musical numbers were furnished by Miss Alice Deceve, pianist; Miss Evelyn Cumber, soprano, and Miss Romayne Boyer, soprano.

The general secretary's report, by Miss Ella M. Stitt, was as follows: "Over the clouds of war hung low over our country at the opening of last year and it was prophesied that we would have a very hard year yet we have had one of the most successful in the history of the Association."

"In no department has a stone been left unturned where we might show our spirit of patriotism. This will be shown when reports of different departments are read. We now have 1,465 members of whom have done special war work in this country."

The religious department, Mrs. Jennings, in her report, has been very interesting. Meetings early in the year, Mrs. Harold Baldwin gave a series of talks on "War and Women. These vesper services were held at the club room on Thursdays. The first subject was "The Greater France," the second, "Safety in Terms of Service," the third, "Comrades in Service," and the last, "Seeing Our War as Others See Us."

These talks described graphically the work being done by women in France, England, Russia and America. The national hymn in each country was used in connection with the service. On February 4, Miss Seesholtz gave a talk at vesper service to an audience of 100 high school girls.

Among the members of the College faculty gave the story "A Comrade in White" which has a strong spiritual message. March 17, the Kresge Club of the Brege street had charge of the meeting. Miss Cortez, secretary of Spanish speaking girls of Buenos Ayres, was the speaker and made a strong appeal for our assistance in the Buenos Ayres work.

This fall, we have had interesting meetings conducted by the different departments. The average attendance during the year was 75. During Lent, Mrs. John Y. Boyd, gave six lectures on the book of Genesis on six successive Monday evening sand in the fall, she gave four lectures on the book of Exodus. This fall was filled to overflowing with work in the various clubs is carried on by religious work committees.

Educational Department (Miss Weiss, Chairman) "During the earlier part of the year we had six Red Cross classes every week. Two in telegraphy and four in dietetics. There were five other classes in Domestic Science taught by Miss Muriel Warner and in the fall the Domestic Science was taught by Miss Helen Wallis. During the year there was a total enrollment in Domestic Science of 108. Miss Watts reports that many kinds of baskets have been made in the basketry class. Miss Cecelia Joyce had two classes in dressmaking each term with total enrollment of 41. During the spring term millinery was taught by Mrs. Clara Bashore. All the members of the class making their own spring hats. Mrs. Menges, our very enthusiastic Spanish teacher had three classes during the spring term, one being a Bible class which read the Gospel of St. John in Spanish. On June 7th a Spanish club picnic was held at Bolling Springs with an attendance of 25.

Industrial Department Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, chairman for the Industrial department reports the year 1918 saw the industrial work of the Y. W. C. A. confronted with many entirely new and perplexing problems. The world-wide conditions that made it utterly impossible to hold interest along former lines, and it was evident very early in the year that experiments must be tried along new lines. There was no path to follow and we were forced to blaze our own way. Our undoubted success during 1918 is due to the initiative of our industrial secretary, Miss Louise Scott and to the willingness of the girls to adopt her suggestions. What we did during 1918 would fill a couple of volumes and in the few minutes allotted we can only indicate most inadequately some of the work attempted, some of the ends achieved. Red Cross work and special service work along many new lines stand out prominently. The amount of social service work done regularly and steadily by our girls has been wonderful. Each club now makes its own budget for the year, and within that a certain amount for social service work. Baskets at Christmas and Thanksgiving; remembrances at Easter and at other seasons; the clothing of children; help to the sick; reading matter to those who cannot buy it; nourishing food in many emergency cases—these are just a few lines of social service work undertaken by our girls. Their classes have been well attended. Each year has seen new subjects presented so that there shall be variety, and no danger of the department falling into a rut. Among the classes for 1919 which are free to the girls save for a very small gym fee and a small cooking fee to cover the cost of materials, are had classes in current events, signifying the Y. W. C. A. in cooking, French, Bible, English, Etiquette, and United States History. The noon meetings at the different industrial plants have been continuing and being remarkably successful. In one plant the girls have a program committee that decided what kind of a meeting is desired for each week; The committee has charge of the program, and the meeting in accordance with their wishes. We have a large flourishing club formed recently—The Blue Triangle—that has taken the initiative in the Y. W. C. A. work, and that is growing rapidly that we can hardly keep pace with the membership.

The clubs raise through dues and various entertainments of their own, the money to carry on their work. Some of the girls in accordance with Federal requests have kept most detailed account books, telling the wages earned and how every cent was spent. The books have been forwarded to the committee making the request, and Harrisburg can be quite proud of the showing made. While class work and noon meetings were not continued during the summer, there were hikes, walks that brought out some points of Natural history, house parties in the country, roof garden gatherings, here at the Y. W. C. A. events and parties, games, and many other gatherings that kept us in touch and served useful purposes. The noon meetings vary greatly in character; the aim is to have as much variety as possible; the meetings are religious, musical and educational, with a wide variety in each grouping. Friday night the building belongs to the industrial girls. Not that they are not here on other nights, but on Friday night they are so numerous that no other classes are held, and the rooms are given over to them. At 6 o'clock in the club room—which by the way is growing to be a main room for us—serve the girls for fifteen cents a most appetizing supper. Miss Scott has won many laurels in her planning of the menus and in her cooking. With as many as 27 girls on hand at times, she needs help which is given now by the girls themselves and by members of the Industrial Committee. It takes planning to get all of the girls into the club room for supper—and on at least one occasion we failed to do—and about a dozen ate in the hall. So—some day we want a larger club room—and we bespeak it early that the industrial work may not be hampered just as it is taking on new vitality and energy. The girls have been anxious to do "new" things. Some of them are going in groups to our Capitol, there to study the Abbey and Von Ingen pictures and to hear their historical significance. They will take only a small portion of the Capitol at a time, and when they have finished we feel that they will probably know more about the Capitol than many residents of the city who are blessed with more leisure. Many of our girls are now studying in the night schools or at business college. Some within the year just gone have been promoted to most important positions. They are making good all along the line and we feel that we must keep pace with them in our equipment and our plans. The best that the Y. W. C. A. can furnish is none too good for the industrial department, and before long we shall want larger quarters and space to grow.

"Sixty-two members enjoyed a restful vacation at Locust Valley Farm during the months of July and August. The General Secretary was sent to two conferences at Philadelphia the Industrial secretary to one at Wilkes-Barre and the House secretaries to one at Washington. The office secretary has aided many women and children in response to telegrams sent us from Travelers' Aid Societies of other cities. As we look back over the past year we see three threads of deeper color than ever before woven into the very fabric of association life, these are the threads of patriotism, sacrifice and service. As we travel into the new year these three words should have a deeper meaning to every association member."

MRS. KINNARD DIES OF STROKE

Came of Old and Prominent Family; Mother of L. H. Kinnard, Jr., of Phila.

Mrs. Mary Hummel Kinnard, 79 year old, widow of the late Leonard H. Kinnard and mother of Leonard H. Kinnard, Jr., vice-president of the Bell Telephone Company, of Philadelphia, died at her residence, 2118 North Third street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the result of a stroke of apoplexy. Mrs. Kinnard was a member of an old Harrisburg family and resided in this city all her life. She was a charter member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, which she attended regularly. She was active in the work of that congregation. She was a daughter of Valentine Hummel, who was prominent in Harrisburg a half-century ago. Mr. Kinnard, who died some years ago, was for a long period a merchant of Harrisburg and served two terms as City Treasurer, having been elected in 1881 and re-elected in 1883.

Mrs. Kinnard was a granddaughter of Colonel Frederick and Susan Hummel and a great-granddaughter of Frederick and Rosina Hummel, who were the founders of the Hummel family in America. They owned extensive tracts of land hereabouts and were the founders of Hummelstown. Her father, Valentine Hummel, was at one time State Printer, County Recorder and Collector of Internal Revenues, afterward entering mercantile life. Mrs. Kinnard is survived by three children, Ella May, wife of David H. Witmer, of Harrisburg; Leonard H. Kinnard and John N. Kinnard, of Harrisburg. Mrs. Witmer was at her bedside when she died. Three grandchildren, D. Harvey Witmer and Miss Mary Witmer of Harrisburg, and L. Richard Kinnard, of Philadelphia, also survive. Funeral services will be held at the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Rev. J. Bradley Markwardt, pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be private in the Harrisburg cemetery.

Mrs. Louise Catherine Orth, One of the City's Oldest Residents, Dead

Mrs. Louise Catherine Orth, widow of J. Harry Orth, died at her late home, 241 Briggs street, on Friday morning, February 7, at the age of 87 years. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Joseph, a prominent family of Sussex county, Delaware. She was married in 1865, soon after her husband's discharge from service in the United States Navy and moved to Harrisburg shortly after her marriage. She was a number of Reform School teachers and a devoted and faithful Sunday school teacher for thirty-nine years. She took a great interest in the members of her classes, many of whom she lived to see become heads of families. Twelve years ago she was taken ill and has been confined to the house ever since. During the last six years she lived in her chair, being unable to lie down because of heart affection. Her patience was unusual and the cheerfulness with which she bore her lot was an inspiration to her friends. Mrs. Orth is survived by four brothers and four sisters, all living in Delaware, except one sister, Mrs. Frank Witherow, of Philadelphia. Carrie L. Orth, a well known public school teacher, is her only surviving child. Funeral services are to be held at the home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WILLIAM H. HOYER Funeral services were held this afternoon for William H. Hoyer, a 40-year-old employe of the Pennsylvania Printing Company, who died at his home, 5153 Folsom street, Philadelphia, on Wednesday. He is survived by his wife, three sisters, Mrs. Frank Witherow, Mrs. J. Benjamin Boggs and Miss Josie Hoyer, of Harrisburg, and two brothers, George Hoyer, of Harrisburg, and J. Bruce Hoyer, of Chambersburg.

JAMES BOYD CROUSE, JR. James Boyd Crouse, Jr., 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crouse, 1449 Regina street, died yesterday afternoon in the Harrisburg Hospital from pneumonia and meningitis. He is survived by his parents and one brother, Clayton. Funeral services will be held at the home of his parents on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

Downie, at home; Charles L. Downie, of Boston, Mass.; and Harry S. Downie, of this city, and her father, Jacob R. Miller; three sisters and a brother. She was a member of the First Street Presbyterian Church. The Rev. L. S. Mudge will conduct services at the above address on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Burial will be private in East Harrisburg Cemetery.

MRS. AMELIA E. KEPPLER Mrs. Amelia E. Kepple, aged 91 years, died yesterday at her home, 257 Reily street. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Harrisburg Cemetery. Mrs. Kepple was widely known in this city. She had a host of friends who mourn her loss.

With Choir and Organist

To-morrow morning in Redeemer Lutheran Church the new two-manual Moller pipe organ, which has been in progress of installation for some time will be set apart for service. It is announced that the program will be of special interest to the members and friends of the congregation. The pastor, the Rev. M. E. Shaffer, will speak on "The Worship of Music." There is to be special music by the choir. The organ is conveniently placed and the makers said during the service it would be found all together satisfying for the demands of the Redeemer Church. The last Moller organ installed in Harrisburg is that at Messiah Lutheran Church, upon which Charles Heinrich, the Pittsburgh organist, gave a recital a short time ago.

William F. McBride, organist at the Victoria Theater, is confined to his home by illness. William McIntosh is playing during the hours formerly occupied by Mr. McBride and a most competent substitute is filling Mr. McIntosh's place.

There will be no organ recital at the Y. M. C. A. because of the memorial meeting in Chestnut Street Auditorium.

The choir of Second Reformed Church will sing four anthems at the services to-morrow. Under the leadership of George A. Hutman this choir renders excellent service each according to his ability. Philip Bowman is the soprano soloist and Miss Louise Shartzer, of Penbrook, the contralto soloist.

The full primary will be held Wednesday, September 17, and the general election Tuesday, November 4. Every voter in the cities must be registered to vote and the days are: First and second classes—September 4, 9 and 13—7 a. m. to 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. to 10 p. m. Third class, August 28, September 2 and 12—8 a. m. to 1 p. m.; 2 to 6 and 7 to 10 p. m. Other dates are: First day for securing signatures to petitions to file with the Secretary of the Commonwealth is Monday, June 30, 1919.

The last day to file petitions of nomination with the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the primary, is Friday, August 8, 1919. The first day to secure signatures on petitions to be filed with the county commissioners is Friday, July 11, 1919.

The last day for filing petitions with the county commissioners is Wednesday, August 20, 1919. The last days to be assessed in boroughs and townships for the November election are Tuesday and Wednesday, September 2 and 3, 1919. The last day to pay tax to qualify Assessors sit at polling places on for the November election is Saturday, October 4, 1919.

The last day when candidates, whose petitions are filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, may withdraw before the primary is Friday, August 15, 1919, up to 4 o'clock p. m. No voter can receive and vote a party ticket at the primary unless he is enrolled as a member of the party whose ballot he asks for. Voters living in townships and boroughs can be assessed and enrolled at the same time by applying to the assessor at the polling place on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 2 and 3, 1919.

CHEVROLET

---an individual car

To the very smallest detail, the Chevrolet reflects the ideals of the makers to produce a really high-grade car at a popular price.

That the Chevrolet is more commonly compared with cars selling at much higher prices is justification for the conscientious effort of its manufacturer.

The new model Chevrolet "Four Ninety" Touring Car and Roadster, attain a standard of excellence uncommon of cars at these prices. This is a claim we would be delighted to prove—we could ask no greater favor than to do so.

Would you have a good-looking car? The Chevrolet has it in full measure. Would you have strength? Vanadium steel is used wherever unusual strength is required. Would you have comfort? Proper spring suspension together with comfortable upholstery and roominess meet your comfort-wishes to the fullest degree. Would you have power and low upkeep? The wonderful valve-in-head motor with which each Chevrolet is equipped provides power far in excess of ordinary requirement or emergency; and the direct-application-of-power principle insures maximum power on minimum fuel. Twenty-five miles per gallon is a common thing for this Chevrolet. And the car is FULLY equipped.

Suppose you let us demonstrate that we have not overstated Chevrolet quality.
